VENALITY OF THE OPPOSITION. A grand coup d' etat is about to be made by the late proprietor of the "Woolly Horse" and his friends, to secure the election of that "enterprising young man" to the Presidency. Barnum, the great showman, gave a good round sum to curing his nomination for the Presidency. But precocious aspirant, the New York Times and coming every day more dangerous to the despote Herald, the great Mariposa estate in California governments of the old world. is to be tapped, and piles of money are to be expended in this great contest for the "Woolty
