PENNSYLVANIA STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY, WILL BE HELD AT PITTSBURGH On SEPTEMBER 30th, and on OCTOBER 1st, 2d and 3d, 1856. BOBT. C. WALKER, Secretary.

Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad. STOCKHOLDERS MEETING TO CONSIDER THE CON-SOLIDATION MORNING SESSION.

Yesterday, at 11 A. M., the Stockholders of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad met at their office, on Fifth street. A large number of Stockholders were in attendance

On motion of Col. George W. Cass, Gen. Samuel Lahon, of Canton, Ohio, was called to preside, and George R. Arnold, of this city, appointed Secretary Col. Cass, the President of the Road, stated that the meeting had been called for the purpose of considering articles of consolidation between the Uhio nd Pennsylvania Railroad Company, the Ohio and Indiana Railroad Company, and the Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company into one road, to be called "The Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Bailroad " By the law under which this action was to be had, it was necessary that the articles of consolidation should be submitted to the Stockholders, and for this purpose the meeting had been called. Col. Cass then read the articles of consolidation, with which our readers are already familiar, as al

the material points have been published. The articles of consolidation were then formally submitted to the Stockholders, to be voted on ac cording to law. Col. Cass, as representing stock in the city s submitted by the Board of Directors of this Com Resolved, That all those in favor of consolidation, place upon their ballot, "For Consolidation," and those opposed, place upon their ballot, "Against Consolidation."

Resolved, That Wm. M. Edgar, R. F. Smyth and C. W. Ernest be and are hereby appointed tellers to receive and count the votes, and report the same to his meeting. Resolved, That the polls be kept open until 9 o'clock, P. M., or such further time as may be desigated by this meeting. The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. McKnight, amended by Mr Murdoch, the meeting then took a recess until 7 P M., the voting of stock meanwhile proceeding.

At 9 P. M., the meeting re-assembled, but th ousiness transacted was unimportant. The meeting was very harmonious, and the feeling seemed to be all one way, viz : In favor of consolidation. At 9 F M., the votes were all counted off, showing the fel lowing result : Whole number of votes cast

Van Amburgh's Circus and Menagerie arrived yesterday according to announcement, and exhibited in the evening to a large and well pleased audience. A great variety of curious animals are gathered in the penagerie, and the circus company is composed of first rate equestrians and gymnasts. To-day there will be both an afternoon and evening performance, and to morrow, in order to give the thousands who desire it an opportunity to see the show, there will he four performances. The whole is exhibited for a single price of admission. Large numbers of people rom the country will visit the city on the Fourth to ee the sights. A Relic of the Great Fire .- Hughes' tavers, first tenement erected in the burnt district after the great fire of April 10, 1845, was razed to the ground yesterday to give way to the march of improvement. It was located on Water, between Wood and Market treets. There are a number of shells and rookerie; th
