SIXTH ANNUAL EXHIBITION PENNSYLVANIA STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY, WILL BE HELD AT PITTSBURGH On SEPTEMBER 30th, and on OCTOBER 1st, 2d and 3d, 1856. je24 ROBT. C. WALKER, Secretary.

The Day we Celebrate.

And how are we going to do it? The means and he variety of ways are abundant. The Christian. the salt of the earth, will combine innocent meats and drinks with the bread of life, and while he gives to God all the glory, he will not forget the praises due to the men who gave us the basis upon which has arisen our great republic. The American born patriots will hail the rising sun of this glorious day, and bless the mothers that draft a constitution and by-laws for the organization bore them and rejoice in the fortune that made their eves to first open on the western world while the patriots of foreign birth, who have made their homes with us, will gaze upon our proud banner, and with a sigh for fatherland, feel their hearts swell within hem, beneath its ample folds and mingle their ardent shouts with the voices that go up for this land of the free and home of the brave. Buchanan and Breckinridge will get a lift to-day, and a scattering shot will be fired from the swivel guns of the long boat, jolly-boat, skiff, yawl and canoe of the Little endians of every thing for every body. There will be numerous pleasurs excursions, excursions for pleasure, for nobody knows how they will end to day. Dances, drums and deviltry w abound. Pic-nics, petticoats, pumps and palave will not be scarce—love-making, heart-breaking swearing, swilling and sweating will transpire -- ther will probably be some bottles emptied and some $408,151 13 pockets; some will get their hands as full as their hats.
