on the Occasion of the Presentation of Stand of Colers from the "Duquesne We give below the speech of Col. Black at the recent flag presentation, delivered at Chicago on the 4th of July. Those who were present, speak of it as one of the most eloquent efforts of the gifted orator. The published speech must naturally lose much of what is enhanced by the gentleman's earnest delivery and silver-toned voice, although, in itself, it is a beautiful production. The military were drawn up
