rarily absent from the room. While gone, the little boy, some seven years old, who, it seems, had a knowledge of the existence of powder in the house, ocured it, and told his sisters he would show them ow his father blasted rocks. Placing the powder on the floor, the children naturally gathered round to see the sport. After igniting a match, the lad touched off the powder, which set fire to their dresses, with the melancholy result above noticed. The youngest girl, Sarah, aged two years, died on Sunday morning at three o'clock, and the eldest, Emma, aged about eight years, died at a little before the most exeruciating pain. The funeral of the two little girls took place on Monday afternoon, and was leries. argely attended. The boy was very severely burned about the chest and legs, but the physicians yester about the chest and legs, but the physicians yester.

RIVER NEWS.

THE RIVER.—There were 17 inches water in the channel, last evening at dusk, by the metal marks, and stationary The weather is cloudy, with indications of more showers. THE St. Louis papers of the 28th say that the low water is the Hilinois is proventing the shipments of produce from that stream, and the same thing might be said of the Upper Mississippi. The Missouri river continues in good beating order but dull times are compelling a number of boats to lie up The "Star of the West" was laid up at St. Joseph, and th "Hannibal," "Martha Jewett," and "Genoa," for Council Bluffs, were to leave on the 28th.

LEFT FOR ST. LOUIS .- Capt. R. M. Hunter, formerly one our most popular steambout o mmanders, left yesterday for St Louis, where he intends to act as Steamboat Agent and rwarding and Commission Merchant a business for which from his long acquaintance with our merchants and steam boat men, he is eminently qualified. We would cordially recommend Capt. Hunter to any of our friends having but lness in his line, confident that it will be attended to with promptuess and despatch. THE new steamer "Samuel P. Hibberd," which came t our wharf yesterday, was built under the superintendence of that veteran steamboat-man, Capt. Wm. Dean, and will be commanded by Capt. Redman Grace. She has been built expressly for low water, and with capacity for accommodations equal to any of the first class hotels. Capt. Chas. W Coles officiates in the clerk's office, and there is no surer guarantee that that department will be well filled. The hull of this light steamer was built at Brownsville by J. S. Pringle, and is 154 feet in length on deck, 32 feet beam, 4 feet depth of hold, and is pronounced one of the best jobs of the ter. 22 feet long, with 2 cylinders 16 inches diameter, $3\frac{1}{2}$ feet stroke, furnished by R.
