DEMOCRATS OF PENNSYLVANIA.

"The Union must and shall be preserved."
—JACKSON

THE DEMOCRACY OF PENNSYLVANIA, and all others in favor of preserving the Union of the States, now seriously endangered by a sectional organization, led and controlled by the open enemies of the Federal Constitution, and conducted upon the alarming idea of repudiating nearly one-half of the States of this Union, are respectfully notified that MASS MEETINGS will be held at the following times and places, of the friends of JAMES BUCHANAN for President, and JOHN C. BRECKINRIDGE for Vice President:

At CHAMBERSBURG, Franklin County, on THURSDAY, the 7th day of August, 1856, being the day after the Democratic State Convention.

At ERIE, Erie County, on WEDNESDAY, the 27th day of August, 1856.

At PITTSBURGH, Allegheny County, on WEDNESDAY, the 10th of September, 1856.

At BELLEFONTE, Centre County, on WEDNESDAY, the 24th of September.

THE CAMPAIGN POST.

It is three months yet to the Presidential election. We will furnish the Weekly Post to clubs of ten or more during that time for the low price of THIRTY CENTS each. Three dollars will pay for ten papers for the time. Now, how can any good Democrat or friend of the Union do service in the cause better than by raising ten dollars and sending for thirty-four Posts for use among his neighbors?

The Post is "enlisted for the war," and will contain in its ample columns a larger amount of political intelligence than any other campaign paper west of the mountains.

The campaign from about the middle of Augu to the election will be a warm one. Great issues are involved. Great efforts will be made; and the Democracy is preparing for one of its most resolved and vigorous efforts. Let our friends send the money for ten, twenty, forty or a hundred Campaign Posts and they will thus let their neighbors understand all about it.

Our club lists are very large already A little exertion will double it again. Cash in advance

WEEKLY POST.

The Saturday Morning Post, issued this morning, contains an excellent variety of reading matter—literary, political and miscellaneous. The following is a portion of its contents:

Selected Tale.—The Errand Boy.

Poetry.—The Men Need not Propose, (original); Does He Love me? Obituary.

Political Articles.—Fremont in California—How he became Rich; Letter from Wm. B. Reed; Com. Stockton Withdrawn, &c.

Editorials.—Henry Clay's Letter on Abolitionism; The Test Question; What a German Said; New Issue; A Lie well stuck to; and Kansas Now.

Correspondence.—Washington Letter; From Alliance, Ohio; Illinois Letter; From Clarion County; and a Letter from Boston.

Besides the above, there is a Weekly Market Report, and three columns of Local News. Price five cents per number, or $1,00 per year to clubs of ten.

GERMAN DEMOCRATIC PAPER.

The work of getting up a new German Democratic paper goes bravely on. It will be commenced next week, and will undoubtedly prove the most profitable paper published here for our German citizens. It will to a great extent supplant those that have betrayed their friends and gone over to the Know Nothings. The Democrats stood up firmly for the constitutional rights of the naturalized citizens during the dark times of 1854 and 1855. The moment the battle is ended the German editors of two papers wheel round and propose to their readers to help "crush out" the Democratic party if possible!!; The great mass of the German voters repel the proposition with scorn and indignation; and then come forward promptly to contribute their support to a new paper that will speak their sentiments; and that will help to prevent the old Keystone State from being sold to New England abolitionists.

The new paper will succeed. We had the pleasure of informing the gentlemen who have the matter in charge that one man from an adjoining county would subscribe for fifty copies. From another county we are told two hundred subscribers can soon be obtained. With a reasonable effort the new paper can find abundant support, and do great good for a cause and a party with which the interests of the working men, and the Union are closely identified.

We are happy to be able to state upon good authority that the great mass of the German democrats of this county are sound and true, and will remain so. Let the new paper receive a liberal support.

A COUNTRY GIRL writing to her friends of the Polka, says the dancing does not amount to much, but the hugging is heavenly!

CRUELTY OF THE CHICAGO TIMES.

The disunionists of Illinois nominated Colonel Bissel for Governor, and a Mr. Hoffman for Lt. Governor, and they boasted much of the certainty of their election. The Chicago Times waited till they had blown out their first blast, and it then went coolly to work and proved beyond a doubt that Mr. Hoffman was constitutionally ineligible to the office for which he was nominated. So clear did it prove it that Mr. Hoffman came out in a letter and acknowledged its truth, and withdrew from the canvass. That done, the Times waited a while to hear the disunionists shriek about their bad luck. But it was of no use. Mr. Hoffman was ineligible, and positively declined to run.

One would have thought this was cruelty enough for one paper to commit. But not so. The Times now comes out and proves with equal clearness that Col. Bissel is also constitutionally ineligible to the office of Governor, or any other office of honor or profit in Illinois. The proof is clear, positive and unanswerable. In the Constitution of Illinois, the following clause appears—Article 13, Section 25:

"Any person who shall, after the adoption of this Constitution, fight a duel, or send or ACCEPT A CHALLENGE FOR THAT PURPOSE, or be aider or abetter in fighting a duel, shall be deprived of the right of holding any office of honor or profit in this State, and shall be punished otherwise, in such manner as is, or may be prescribed by law."

"This Constitution," mentioned in the above provision, was adopted by the Convention, August 31, 1847; ratified by the vote of the people March 6, 1848; and went into force on the first day of April, 1848.

The 26th Section of the same Article of that Constitution provides that, before entering upon the duties of the office of Governor, he shall take an oath in which the following words occur:

"I DO SOLEMNLY SWEAR, THAT I HAVE NOT FOUGHT A DUEL, NOR SENT OR ACCEPTED A CHALLENGE TO FIGHT A DUEL."

The Times then adds:

"Subsequently to April, 1848, William H. Bissell, now a candidate for the office of Governor of this State, he being a citizen, and a resident of this State at the time, did receive and 'accept a challenge' from one Jefferson Davis, 'to fight a duel.' The fact that he did so accept a challenge to fight a duel, will not, I suppose be questioned or denied; if it shall be, we are prepared to publish a copy of the challenge, and a copy of Bissell's acceptance thereof; also to publish proof that said duel was to be fought with weapons, and under circumstances which rendered it inevitable, except only in case of a want of skill by the parties, that the death of one or both of the parties would ensue. We say we have the proof of these facts at hand if necessary.

"Col. Bissell, knowing the fact that he has accepted a duel, the issue of which was so far likely to result in death, that he drew up his will, and made other dispositions of his worldly affairs upon the eve of fighting it, will never 'solemnly swear' 'I have not accepted a challenge to fight a duel.' Without that oath, the Constitution expressly declares he can never 'enter upon the duties of his office.'"

There, then, is the whole case. Is it not a perfectly clear one? That Col. Bissell did accept a challenge to fight a duel with Col. Jefferson Davis is known to the whole country, and will not be for one moment denied How, then can he be a candidate for governor? How can he take the oath of office without committing, and being indicted for perjury?

As we have a good many subscribers in Illinois, we publish this for their benefit, and also to let our home readers see what a cruel "border ruffian" paper is the Chicago Times

"THE SWEET GERMAN ACCENT."—The Black Republicans, like Gen. Scott, in 1852, seem to have become very much captivated with "the sweet German accent," notwithstanding it has not been many moons since some of the leaders of that party were in full community with a secret oath-bound association, whose members were sworn on the Holy Evangelists to prescribe these same Germans for the awful crime of having been born in "Fatherland." Thinking, however, that the fact of their connection with the Know Nothing order, was either not known or has been forgotten, these self-same leaders are now directing their special attention to wheedling the Germans to vote for Fremont. By way of influencing the Germans of other States, they have been industriously circulating the report that a large majority of the Germans of Pennsylvania are Black Republicans The editor of the Philadelphia Demokrat, however, has taken these worthies in hand, and denounces the report as a libel upon his countrymen. He says "the fruitless attempt of the Fremont leaders, to manufacture public opinion, is re-acting upon themselves, as the frauds become one by one exposed. The Germans are Democrats both by education and habits, and will never leave their party to follow some sentimental absurdity, which cannot stand the test of reason." Philad. Argus

TALK ABOUT PRINCIPLES.

Our Black Republican neighbors can talk very glibly about principles, and can recommend to Pittsburgh merchants and mechanics to sacrifice all their trade and interests with the South for the sake of principles. And yet at the same time a Massachusetts delegate to the Philadelphia Convention can go home to Boston, and brag that the plans are all laid, and the funds raised by which to buy Pennsylvania for Fremont. And he thinks a million dollars will do it. Our glorious old Commonwealth is to be bought by Yankee demagogues and disunionists and infidels for a million of dollars!!! Is not that a compliment to the people of Pennsylvania. Pittsburgh derives advantages worth three times that sum from its commerce with the southwestern States every year. Yet all that must be sacrificed to enable abolition demagogues and newspapers to make a million in hand for selling the State to the disunionists of Massachusetts and New York. And the same papers can prate eloquently about the external principles that should be maintained at the sacrifice of all pecuniary interests. And yet those papers cannot name a single political principle that they are advocating except opposition to the principle of popular sovereignty, hostility to the south, disunion and civil war. Those are the principles for which all pecuniary interest of Pittsburgh should be sacrificed.

When we think of that million dollars with which our State is to be bought we can understand the sincerity of those who preach such folly

THAT GLEE CLUB.

The Buchanan and Breckinridge Glee Club, of this city, is a "little ahead" of any thing of the kind ever got up here. It is composed of a large number of excellent singers, who, with a little more practice, will equal any band of vocalists in the country. Their serenades are delightful, and we acknowledge ourselves under obligations for a musical entertainment night before last that was very agreeable.

Their songs are as effective as any speeches that can be made during this campaign; and we are satisfied now that if good music is an element of success in the political campaign the Democrats are ahead of all opponents. Success to the "Buck and Breck" Glee Club.

GENERAL FREIGHT AGENT.—John J. Houston, Esq., has been appointed General Freight Agent of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad. The Board of Directors and Management of the road have secured the service of a most efficient and thorough business man. He will be able, we predict, to conduct his department with credit to himself and satisfaction to the officers and stockholders of the road. We wish him, as he deserves, every success.

Portrait of Buchanan.

We have received from J. J. Gillespie, Wood street, a lithograph likeness of James Buchanan, which for elegance of execution and truthfulness of likeness cannot be surpassed. It is handsomely framed, and makes an elegant picture for a parlor, counting room or office. It can be seen at our counting room for a few days, and we are sure those who see it will go and buy one at Gillespie's.

[For the Pittsburgh Post]

To the Editors of the Morning Post:

GENTLEMEN:—My communication had the good effect, as I perceive with pleasure, of arousing my German Democratic fellow-citizens to laudable activity, and of drawing some heart-blood from the Freedom's Friend, in the shape of a denial of having been purchased by the Republicans, and of having turned a party paper.

As regards the first mentioned effect of my communication, I flatter myself to have given the first impulse at least to starting a new daily Democratic paper. I see that steps have been taken towards realizing this object, and as far as can as yet be judged from the subscription list, I have not the least doubt but that in a short time the necessary funds will be raised. Besides this the Germans held several spirited meetings, and on Tuesday next, as I understand, a German Democratic meeting will be held at Wilkin's Hall, which has been tendered to them free gratis during the campaign.

The reply, or rather excuse, of the Freedom's Friend, seems to imply a sense on his part of having done something wrong: what he might rather retract, if he only could. He acknowledges that he has called the masses of the Republican party "a fanatical, stupid rabble;" that he still does not altogether trust the Republicans and Fremont in regard to their Know Nothing sentiments. He therefore comes out in a lengthy article directed to the liberal press, proposing to send a committee to Fremont for the purpose of ascertaining what is to be expected of him, if elected respecting the naturalization laws! You see from this that the Freedom's Friend mistrusts the Republicans and their candidates, and nevertheless has the perfidy to assail the Democrats day after day, and to advise his fellow citizens to vote the Republican ticket. If this is no partiality on his side, if he can call his paper still an independent one, after his daily abuse of the Democratic party, and the praising of the Republicans and their candidates, I do not know, then, what he calls impartiality and independence.

A few days ago he published a letter of Fred Hecker's, the leader of the insurrection in Baden, at present living on a farm in Illinois, and now a candidate on the electoral ticket of that State Mr. Hecker, on whose joining the Republican party the papers raised a great halloo, expressed himself in this letter in such a manner that the German Fremont Club in Buffalo resolved not to publish the same, until some offensive paragraphs were stricken out. The Freedom's Friend said in its preface to said letter that it had wished to delay its publication; that Mr. Hecker mistrusted the Republican party and Fremont—but still more mistrusted the Democratic party. What do you think of such political balderdash?

To-day the Freedom's Friend publishes an article, in which I find the assertion that the Republican party was nothing else than the rejuvenescent Democracy of old! What say the old Whigs to this assertion.

They seem to be on the wrong trail as regards the writer of this article, the Freedom's Friend suspecting a certain lager beer seller, and the Courier, the editors of the Republican. If Mr. Neeb wishes to see and talk to an old acquaintance, he will find me at Schenck's beer hall after I close my store on Saturday evening, and receive him at once.

THE BOSTON CLOTHING MERCHANT

The following was handed us for publication, by a responsible party, who is willing to stand up to the amounts named. As there has been considerable bluffing on the part of some Republicans within a few days, we have some ground for believing they may be taken

AN OFFER

Messrs. Editors:—In order to test the sincerity and pluck of our abolition opponents, I offer the following propositions, and give them one week for consideration and reflection:

1st. One hundred dollars that James Buchanan will be elected next President of the United States

2d. One hundred dollars that James Buchanan will receive the electoral vote of Pennsylvania.

3d. One hundred dollars that James Buchanan will receive the electoral vote of New Jersey

4th One hundred dollars that James Buchanan will receive the electoral vote of New York

5th One hundred dollars that I can name ten States that will cast their electoral votes for James Buchanan.

6th One hundred dollars that seven States cannot be named that will cast their electoral votes for John C. Fremont

7th One hundred dollars that I will win a majority of the above named bets

DEMOCRAT

THE WAY THEY TALK.—At the Boston Abolition Convention, on the 30th of May, Chas. Remond said:—

"Remembering that he was a slaveholder, he could spit upon that scoundrel George Washington" (applause, and a hiss) "The hissers, said Remond, "are slaveholders in spirit. "What," he continued, "to hear Faneuil Hall and Bunker Hill, war he not to be permitted to say that that scoundrel, George Washington had enslaved his fellow men?"

Comment is unnecessary

GREELEY CIPHERING.—Horrors Greeley has been ciphering again, and has made it out by his figures, "as clear as a pike staff," that Fremont's vote will be the multiplicand of all factions and isms: Fillmore's vote a respectable but harmless multiplier, and Buchanan's vote and election will be the product.

The Cincinnati Gommercial, a Black Republican paper, pitches into Greeley's calculations, and wishes he would let figures alone

THE Freeport, Illinois, Anzeiger a German paper, at first run up the black flag of Fremont and Dayton. It has now pulled it down and hoisted the names of Buchanan and Breckinridge to its mast-head

We know of some other German papers that will do the same thing. The rank and file of German voters will not run with the Know Nothings.

IS THERE not an Act of Congress declaring that one who sends or accepts a challenge to fight a duel is ineligible to any Federal office? Fremont has done both. He accepted a challenge to fight a duel with Col. Emory—he sent a challenge to Senator Foote. His friends took care to get him out of both without a fight, and he let them

THE editor of the Gazette gives us a challenge for a little quarrel. We have only to reply, "We will be at the Clifton House." Now, according to the new code duello, he is bound to go there and wait till we come. Good, bye neighbor you may expect us daily

THE MAGAZINES.—We have received from Miner & Co and Gildenfenney & Co, the July number of "Blackwood." It contains the usual number of well digested literary articles, from the pens of the best magazine writers in Great Britain. Price 25 cents per number, or $3,00 per year.

REMEMBER the Democratic Meeting at Wilkins Hall to-night. Turn out a crowd

THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY.—It gives us much pleasure to announce the return of the Hon. James Dobbin, Secretary of the Navy to Washington. The laborious duties of his department, have tended to enfeeble his constitution. We sincerely hope his health has greatly improved by his late absence from the seat of government. This distinguished gentleman is a popular member of the cabinet of President Pierce, and the whole country will be glad to hear of his returning health.—Pennsylvanian.

IOWA RAILROADS.—It is stated that the Legislature of Iowa have passed a bill giving the lands recently donated by Congress for railroad purposes to four railroads running across the State, the Mississippi and Missouri, the Dubuque and Big Sioux, the Lyons and Iowa Central, and the Burlington and Missouri. These roads get about 1,200,000 acres each.

ELK COUNTY REPORTER.—This paper, heretofore neutral in politics, has been purchased by our esteemed fellow citizen, J. A. Boyle, Esq., and will hereafter be conducted at Ridgway, Elk county, as a Democratic paper, under the broad banner of Buchanan and Breckinridge.—Pennsylvanian.

More of It.

The Pen Yan (N. Y.) Democrat publishes an extract from a letter written by a gentleman residing in St. Louis, Missouri, who is intimate with Col. Brant, the brother-in-law of Col. T. H. Benton, where Col. Fremont stops when in that city. He says:

"That Col. Fremont is a Catholic no one who is acquainted with him will deny. Whenever he is in this city, he, without any concealment whatever, attends the Catholic church; he was baptised and christened in that faith; he was married by a Catholic clergyman, and the Bishop, (the Right Rev. Dr. Kendrick,) to my certain knowledge, is his spiritual adviser and daily visitor whenever he has been sick or confined to his bed at the house of Col. Brant, where he is in the habit of making his home while he is in the city. Col. Brant is a particular friend of mine. I visit his house frequently. He is a man of great wealth, and married, as you know, a sister of Col. T. H. Benton, who makes it as his home there since Mrs. Benton's decease. Col. Fremont's sister, who is the wife of an officer in the army, is also a Catholic; was educated in a Catholic convent, and, so far as my knowledge extends, all his family and kinsmen are Catholics.

"Within the past year I have had occasion to transact business with, and frequently been at the house of Col. Brant, and several of the domestics have been, from time to time, pointed out to me as the slaves of Col. Fremont, and these are not all either, as he owns many others, male and female, hired out in various parts of the city."

☞ Opinions of the Press.—The following is from Gen. Geo. P. Morris in the Home Journal of November 7, 1846:

All editors profess to be the guardians of the rights of the people, and to keep them advised, through their columns, of whatever shall arise for their benefit. We will live up to this letter, and inform them that the most wonderful and valuable medicine for their general use ever invented, is "Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor." Its virtues are so rare, mighty and secantric, that often they appear to work more like miracles than by science; so effective, indeed are its bounding agencies powers on the human body, that, though now it is daily tried by thousands of people, not one of this great mass but is delighted beyond comparison, and candidly confess they, on no consideration, will ever again be without it.

The inventor, Mr. H. Dalley, has wisely kept the secret to himself. Counterfeits are busy about it, but without success. Its overwhelming merits defy all competition, and its peculiarities analysis. We confidently commend all parents to seek its acquaintance, for surely such a friend, who laughs at death and suffering, restores the blind, lame, halt and scarred to perfection, and all from pain, is "a friend indeed."

We wish the discoverer of this mighty blessing, who is a real benefactor to mankind, God speed.

My wife has been afflicted with the Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia for a number of years, during which time I have spent a great deal for doctoring, but she received very little benefit therefrom, and finally the doctors said she could not be cured. Last spring she concluded to try HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS; she took two bottles, and ever since taking them she has been able to attend to her business. This is to certify, that I have critically, and by a personal examination of the books, capital, assets and securities of the Alliance Insurance Company, of Philadelphia, investigated the standing and responsibility of said Institution, and I do find, and am entirely clear in my convictions, that the Company has a good unimpaired Capital in Mortgages on unincumbered Real Estate, worth double the amount for which the same is mortgaged. My investigations have been close, thorough and searching, and are, I think, reliable.

BENJAMIN H. AUSTIN.

I take pleasure in saying that I have been acquainted with Benjamin H. Austin for several years, and have entire confidence in his integrity, capacity and ability, and would place full reliance upon his statements or legal opinion.
