HOW MUCH FOR THEIR HIDES! When Fremont bought of Eulojio Celis of California the 600 head of cattle, principally cows, under pretence of supplying his company with beef, he gave $10 a head for them, with the understanding that the hides were to be returned. But as the cows were designed for breeders, and were leased to Abel Stearns for three years for that purpose, the hides were wanted; so an additional sum was added for the hides.
