PENNSYLVANIA DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

CHAMBERBBURG, Franklin Co., August 6th, 1856. Dear Post - After a ride of 251 miles on the Central Railroad, and 52 miles on the Cumber land Valley road, I find myself here in the midst of a great assembly of Democrats-the matter in hand being the nomination of a candidate for Surveyor General, in the place of Judge Timothy Ives, resigned.

Although this place is not quite as accessible as ome others that might have been chosen, no one; who loves fine scenery, and to witness the fertility, heauty and prosperity of our noble Comnonwealth, can regret that he has been summond here. We have many fine valleys in Pennsyl vania, but certainly none finer than this. It is beautiful beyond any I have ever before seen. The growth of the spring crops were somewhat etarded by the drought, but lately gentle showers have fallen, and now vegetation of all kinds wear a most promising aspect. But the fertility of this valley is not exhausted

y productions like these. Many of her sons have gone forth to render good service to their country, and reflect honor on their native valley. Foremost among these is the man whom all true men delight to honor-Pennsylvania's favorite son. In a modest looking farm house at Stony Batter, in this county, be began that career of life which has since been so eventful and hono-
