would require "no religious test as a qualification to any office or public trustunder the United States."

I ask, under such circumstances, which oath would be keep, and which oath would be violate? Are the old line Whigs prepared to endorse Fillmore, thus presented for their suffrages by him-self? I know no difference between an individual joining the order, and giving his vote to susis more effective in carrying out the tenets of that party.

The friends of Mr. Fillmore have assailed Mr. Buchanan for his Ostend communication, with out admitting or denying the soundness of the the correspondence of Mr. Everett, as Secretar f State under Fillmore after the death of Mr Webster, relative to Cuba, is more offensive, and ought to be more obnoxious to the criticism of conservative men than the Ostend Letter: and i should be remembered that the diplomatic manifesto was issued under the immediate superv sion of Mr. Fillmore and his Cabinet. Mr. Everett is probably the best educated Statesman now living; he is an erudite scholar and a sound Patriot. When in Congress, he took a higher ground in favor of the South on the mbject of slavery, than any Northern Statesmar had ever done before, or has ever done since. One thing is certain, any opinion upon Interna tional Law promulgated by him, is entitled t respect. Mr. Buchanan has been in public li upwards of forty years, he has filled the highest offices which his own State could confer upo him. He has occupied the highest sent in the Cabinet during a most eventful epoch; and he character stands without blot or blemish and beyond rebuke or reproach; and it is a high eulogium upon his public life, that the "Ostere Letter" is the only act which is designated by is opponents as the ground of attack. There are many Old Line Whigs who are at tached to their cognomen, and dislike changing it-this] is an over-scrupulous nicety. They must change their name—they must recogni the title of an American, Know Nothing, Repub lican, or a Democrat If they refuse to eleceither of these names, they must retire from all participation in public affairs. Gov. Seward is reported to have said during the present session of Congress, in caucus, that he cared nothing for names, but that he looked to principles alone The remark showed he had a clear head and a sound judgment, and was worthy of a better

Time will not permit me to discuss at large, the question of the Territories. I hold that the Territory ceded to us by Mexico was purchase by common treasure The fifteen slave States contributed their portion of the fund as well athe then fifteen free States Territory should stand on the same footing as admitted States and the right of the people to hold slaves or not as they please, in the Territory ought to be com nensurate with the rights of the people as the exist in the thirty-one States. There can be just ground for any discrimination between the two cases. New Territory is surely not me acred than the old thirteen States, or the tosent thirty one States. The will of a majoris prevails in the cases last enumerated, and the basic orthodox principle should prevail in the Territory.

It is the sixteen free States declaring to fifteen slave States—you are part owners of this Territory; you have shed your blood and expendereasure in acquiring it, but you shall have sixteen say to fifteen, it is true you are part owners and have contributed to the purchase our common property, but you shall have a share in the enjoyment of its privileges or th receipts of its profits. Such a doctrine is subversive of every principle of justice and equality and cannot be sustained.

I am not the advocate of opinions that are new to the Whig party of Pennsylvania. At a Whir by Mr. Clay's own son. meeting held in September, 1850, at the Chinese congratulating the nation upon the restoration of peace and quictude to the country by the pasage of the Compromise Acts of that year was unanimously adopted, and I then laid dow the same principles which I am now endeavoring In November, 1850, the great Union meeting was held at the same place, and over which John tering, is a falsehood. Sergeant presided. Among others, I again en reed the same principles. At a later perioduring the session of the Legislature of this State in 1851, a pure Whig meeting was called to re quest the repeal of the Act of the Legislature 1847, which closed the public jails of this Com monwealth against the custody of Fugitive Slaves. At that meeting Samuel Breck, seconto no man in the country, in intelligence and per same doctrine and they were again endorsed b These are some of the reasons why I involury old line Whig in Pennsylvania to suppor party in Pennsylvania, in Octobber next, would move the last glimmering hope of the opposition restore peace and quietude to the country, and the people rule themselves. for one generation at least, put at rest the preold line Whigs of Pennsylvania possess the power at the draft which is made upon their patriotism will be promptly accepted, and that the great Keystone State will once more come to the r cue, and do as she has done heretofore, put down all sectional feeling, and at the ballot-box give a perity, and no nation was ever more free and
