A CHEAT DEFEATED It is now well known that, the desperate Frebut one thrashing, which it is sure to get this fall, and then it will be dissolved, and the American Fillmoreites; and desperate are the expedients of the Fremonters to defeat it. The grand card in the game of cheat has just been played, and the game lost. In order to show the honesty of would sternly and deservedly rebuke the guilty disturbers of the public peace. The defeat pr the fraidulent attempt at Lancaster the other day puts sarend to the last hope of Premontism in this State. THE TENTH-THE TENTH.

Hasten up the preparations for the Giorious 10th. It is close at hand-next Wednesday. Namerous distinguished speakers will be here. A grand procession will be formed, with music and banners; and we hear of delegations preparing to dome from all quarters. The Ohioans say they will be here in good numbers. Beaver county promises 2000; and Washington county will do still better. Old Westmoreland will turn out en masse. The railroads are making exten sive arrangements to bring all who desire to come, cheap. It will be a grand affair. It is hoped that Hon. John C Breckinridg will get here.
