Such has been the fruit, of Democratic policy: such the triumphs of a steady adherence to the great fundamental principle of popular sovereignty. Yet during all that time the Democratic party has been constantly villified and slandered. It has been accused of every crime. The ruin of the country by its measures has been constantly predicted. It has been worse abused and slandered, many a time, than it is now. Two wars with foreign foes have been brought to a glorious conclusion; yet in each the opponents of the Democracy have endeavored to give aid and comfort to the enemy. dypocrisy of the Black Republicans ---Their Attempt to Legislate Slavery into A short time since we charged the Black Republicans with hypocrisy for naving voted for a bill which legislated slavery into the territory of Kansas and Nebrasba for two years, and made of children in the meantime born of slave mothers slaves forever. For this statement, the Republic called the Courier a very naughty name, and th Express, with the courteous ness for which it is remarkable, insinuated that we could not produce the proof of the assertion. The proof, which we then promised, we now produce. It is contained in the twenty-fourth section of a bill introdu ced into the House by Mr. Dnnn, of Indiana, and No man, conversant with the state of affairs now which passed that body by a strictly party vote in Kansas, can close his eyes to the fact that eighty-eight to seventy-four, all the Black Repub cans save Mr. Leiter, of Ohio, voting in th " Provided however. That any person lawfull
