Joseph White's Carriage Repository.

JOSEPH WHITE, now carrying on business in his spacious premises, thus lately refurnished, on the Pittsburgh and Greensburg Turnpike, near the Two Mile Run, between the cities of Pittsburgh and Lawrenceville, respectfully invites the public to inspect his stock of CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, &c. And he particularly informs gentlemen purchasers, that one price only is made.

Fourteen years' experience in the business enables him to place before his patrons the same choice collection of Carriages which, so many years past it has been his particular department to select, from the various and most celebrated Eastern manufacturers. The success of his new system is complete—the economy of its arrangements will supply the best and most fashionable conveyances at moderate prices.

Guaranteed by the strictest scrutiny, which the terms for discarding houses of business has brought upon the prices of goods, owing to large rents, JOSEPH WHITE will sell, on ready money only, at much less than the usual prices.

☞ Carriages repaired in the best manner with dispatch. mar1-1y&w

ST. CHARLES LIVERY STABLES.—The undersigned has bought the lease of the above named Stables, together with the entire stock of Horses and Carriages into the property of James Mathews, deceased. In addition to the above he has also added a number of FINE HORSES, Buggies and CARRIAGES, which were formerly employed as his Livery stables in Third, below Wood street. As he gives his personal attention to the business a continuance of the patronage which he has hitherto received from public is solicited.

HOTELS & RESTAURANTS.

JONES HOUSE.

WELLS COVERLY, PROPRIETOR.

Corner of Market Street and Market Square,

HARRISBURG, PA.

THIS NEW AND ELEGANT HOTEL, recently erected by the owners JONES in Harrisburg, Pa., having been leased for a term of years by the undersigned, he takes this method of calling the attention of his former patrons, friends, and the traveling community, thereto.

Having a front of one hundred and forty-five feet on the principal street of the city, and fronting the Public Square, it cannot fail to prove attractive as well as inviting to strangers.

The CHAMBERS are of one size, well ventilated, and richly with gas—a number with connecting doors—making them very desirable for families.

The HALLS are spacious throughout, and every modern improvement, as far as has been added, that may conduce to the safety, comfort and happiness of the guests.

Visitors may, therefore, rest assured that the "JONES HOUSE" has been made perfect in all its appointments—that each department has been placed in charge of EXPERIENCED and COMPETENT Persons—that in every particular the system which has been adopted by the proprietor, will afford to those who may favor it their home, as great a degree of comfort as may be obtained at any similar establishment in the State.

To secure this desirable result, he has furnished the Public and Private Parlors, Chambers, Dining Room, &c., with entirely NEW FURNITURE; and also arranged within the building a fine Barber Saloon, Ornamental Saloon, Bar and Coffee Rooms, Hot and Cold Baths, &c.

The CULINARY DEPARTMENT AND DINING ROOM will receive the especial attention of the Proprietor, which, he trusts, will be a sufficient guarantee that all tastes will be suited.

After returning his heartfelt thanks to his old friends and patrons, for the generous patronage so long extended to him at the "Cowden House," and also to his friends and public at the "Columbia House," which he kindly favored during the fall of 1856, he respectfully solicits a continuance of it at the "JONES HOUSE."
