JONES HOUSE.

WELLS COVERLY, PROPRIETOR.

Corner of Market Street and Market Square,

HARRISBURG, PA.

THIS NEW AND ELEGANT HOTEL, recently erected by the Messrs. JONES in Harrisburg, Pa., having been leased for a term of years by the undersigned, he takes this method of calling the attention of his former patrons, friends, and the traveling community, thereto.

Having a front of one hundred and forty-five feet on the principal street of the city, and fifty-seven feet front on Market Square, it cannot fail to prove attractive as well as inviting to strangers.

The CHAMBERS are of the size, well ventilated, and furnished with entire new furniture, and in view of the most approved style.

The HALLS are warmed throughout by heaters, on every modern improvement, in fact has been added, that may contribute to the safety, comfort and happiness of the guests.

Visitors may, therefore, rest assured that the "JONES HOUSE" has been made perfect in all its appointments—that each department has been placed in charge of Experienced and Competent Persons—that in every particular the system which has so long adopted by the Proprietors, will afford to those who may make it their home, as great a degree of comfort as may be obtained at any similar establishment in the State.

To secure this desirable to all, he has furnished the Public and Private Parlors, Chambers, Dining Room, &c., with entirely NEW FURNITURE; and also arranged within the building, a fine BARBER SALOON, OYSTER SALOON, DANCING ROOM, BOWLING SALOON, &c.

The CULINARY DEPARTMENT AND DINING ROOM will receive the especial attention of the Proprietor, which, he trusts, will be a sufficient guarantee that all tastes will be satisfied.

After returning his heartfelt thanks to his old friends and patrons, for the generous patronage so long extended to him at the "Cottage House," and also to his friends and patrons at the "Monongahela House," Cape Island, during the season of 1856, he respectfully solicits a continuance of it at the "JONES HOUSE"
