Joseph White's Carriage Repository.

JOSEPH WHITE, now carrying on extensive manufactories, has lately enlarged, and is now in his spacious premises, more lately enlarged, on the Pittsburg and Greensburg Turnpike, near the Two Mile Run, between 2d and 3d Streets, and Lawrenceville, respectfully invites the public to inspect his stock of CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, &c. And to particulars, to inform gentlemen purchasers, that one price only is made.

Forteen years' experience in the business enables him to place before his patrons the same choice collection of Carriages which, so many years, it has been his particular department to select, from the various and most talented Eastern manufacturers. The success of his new system is complete—the economy of his arrangements he will supply the best and most fashionable manufactures at a specific price.

Unencumbered by those heavy expenses, which the mania for decorating houses of business has heaped upon the price of goods, he begs to assure coats, JOSEPH WHITE will offer, on ready money only, at much less than the usual prices.

Carriages repaired in the best manner with dispatch. may16-ly

BANKS.

DOLLAR SAVINGS BANK,

No. 66 Fourth Street.

MIDDLE ROOM, JONES' NEW BUILDING.

OPEN DAILY, from 9 to 2 o'clock; also, on Wednesday and Saturday evenings, from May 1st to November 1st, from 7 to 9 o'clock; and from November 1st to May 1st, from 6 to 8 o'clock.

The Bank has declared all sums not less than One Dollar, as a dividend on the profits declared twice a year, in June and December. Interest was declared at the rate of six per cent. per annum, on the first of December, 1857: also in June and December, 1856, and June, 1857.

Interest, if not drawn out, is placed to the credit of the depositor as principal, and bears the same interest from the first days of June and December, compounding twice a year without requiring the depositor to call or even to present his pass book. At this rate, money will double in less than twelve years, making in the aggregate, eight and one-half per cent. a year.

Books containing the Charter, By-Laws, Rules and Regulations, furnished gratis, on application at the office.

PRINCE & CO'S IMPROVED PATENT MELODEONS. The Great Sensation

now on the Lips of Connoisseurs, and the subject of universal admiration, is the new and improved Melodeon of Prince & Co., and I realize a handsome influence by dispensing to them to other manufacturers to use their new improvement, but as long power to make it a feature in their establishment, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their Melodeons. The improvements are as follows:

PORTABLE CABINET—

Four octave Melodeon, extending from C to C.....$60 00
