LOCAL AFFAIRS.

The Correspondence Art Association.—We have been asked several times recently by interested persons whether this institution has failed. We have ascertained that the drawing will take place on the 25th of March next. The origin of the report was in the entanglement of pictures by the proprietors of "Putnam's Monthly." We clip the following in relation to the suit from the New York "Times:"

Messrs. Appleton Oakesmith and Seba Smith, owners and proprietors of "Emerson's Magazine and Putnam's Monthly," have commenced legal proceedings against the Cosmopolitan Art Association, for an alleged violation of an agreement. The plaintiffs state that at various times, between July 1, 1857, and June 20, 1858, the defendants subscribed for, and agreed to take and receive from the plaintiffs 905 copies of the said Magazine, for the period of one year from the respective dates of such subscription, and for which they agreed to pay the plaintiffs the sum of $1 50 per annum for each copy so subscribed for, in advance, and that the amount agreed to be paid by the defendants was $1,632 50. Also, that the defendants agreed to subscribe for five thousand of their monthly publication for 1858, and that they now refuse to act in accordance with their agreement. The case was brought before Judge Sutherland, when the defendants gave the required security, and the case will now take the proper legal course. It is said that although the Association owns a great deal of valuable property, the recent "crisis" affected the yearly subscription list very seriously, so much so that they have been compelled to postpone the annual distribution of pictures until March 25, 1858.

Beaver Academy and Seminary.—An exhibition of the male department of the Beaver Academy was given in Seminary Hall on the evening of the 28th of January. The performances consisted of select and original orations, and a debate. The performers acquitted themselves in a manner that reflected credit both upon themselves and their teachers.

On the following evening, the Hall was again crowded to overflowing at an early hour, to hear the reading of essays by the senior class of the female department. The essays themselves were, indeed, a rich treat, and the firmness and distinctness with which they were read, showed that even the oratorical part of the ladies' education had not been omitted.

The exercises were enlivened on both occasions by vocal and instrumental music by the music class, and the masterly style in which the different parts were performed was such as to reflect credit upon themselves, and establish for their teacher an enviable reputation.

The want of a suitable Academy building has for some time past been seriously felt. This obstacle is, however, in a fair way of being overcome, the Trustees having lately purchased the building known as the "Porter House" for that purpose. It is their intention to fit up the building so arranged that a large number of students can be accommodated with rooms and boarding in the building, thus securing the double purpose of academy and boarding house, and at the same time obviate the difficulty heretofore experienced by students in obtaining suitable study rooms.—Star.

Determined Attempt to Commit Suicide.—A man named Jack Nelson, who became notorious in connection with the Coon perjury case, was arrested on Friday evening, in Allegheny city, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He was placed in the tombs, and about seven o'clock in the evening became tired of life, and tying his vest and neck-handkerchief together, made a noose, tied the rest to the cell door, slipped his neck into the noose, and threw himself backwards. A prisoner in the next cell heard heavy breathing, and raised an alarm. Officer Adams came in his appearance, and cut him down. He was then left alone, and about nine o'clock it was discovered that he had made a second attempt on his life by tearing his shirt into strips, forming a rope of them, and suspending himself. He was rescued, however, before his purpose was accomplished. He was then secured, and on Saturday morning Mayor Stuckrath sent him to jail for two days. When he gets out he will probably be arrested on a charge of perjury.

Schoolmaster Abroad.—A few days since one of our hands picked up a scrawl, very neatly lettered in colors, and bearing the specimen catalogue generally seen hanging at a grocer's door. We only copy the words wherein the orthography differs from Webster. It reads:

"Buter, Ches Fishs Flower Molasses Tobacker Rosens Sinemun Mustard Salid (salt) Wetsger Seet & Caster Oils Broum & Loafs Shugger Saleratus Shocklett Blu & Blak Ink."

We are told that the sign originally came from Pittsburgh. We don't think the author is living, as no man with an ordinary constitution could survive many such spells, as that.—New Brighton Times.

—Guess it don't belong here, neighbor—we disclaim it entirely. We presume it is one of the "Signs of the Times."

Sentenced.—In the Court of Quarter Sessions on Saturday, Enoch Howell was brought in for sentence. His counsel made a strong effort to procure a new trial. A deposition was read from one Jack Bird, charging Lee Swift on a man named James Buckley. Judge M'Clure refused to grant a new trial, and sentenced Enoch to two years and nine months' imprisonment in the penitentiary. After being sentenced Enoch rose up and made a short speech to the Court, detailing his history for some time past. He said he would have been an honest man and he not been supplanted by Rogers and other police officers, who hunted him down with all speed, and pointed him out to the world as a thief. In this situation he could not obtain work. He said he was innocent of the larceny with which he was charged, and that he knew nothing about it. A large crowd was in attendance at the delivery of this speech.

The following contract from a Buffalo paper indicates that there, as well as here, the opportunity for cure presented in Mrs. Mansfield visit was realized to be no ordinary one. Many are coming from considerable distances around Pittsburgh to see her, and she will remain at the Monongahela House until Thursday or Friday:—

"Mrs. Mansfield's rooms have been thronged with invalids since the results of her treatment have transpired in some difficult cases for which she prescribed in the early part of her visit; and her remedies would thus seem to be very prompt in their action. Her attention to removing the latent causes of disease largely accounts for her success. Letters received by invalids here from others whom she has relieved in places who has recently visited, have likewise added to the feeling of confidence in her skill."—Buffalo Express.

Rapkins, adults and frock overcoats for men, youth and boys; dress and business coats, neatly cut and made; fine plush and silk vests, a large variety of fine and common pants, now on hands and selling at very close rates by Carnahan, Allegheny. Special attention is invited to a full stock of fine coatings, pantaloons and vestings, kept exclusively for custom work, which, with a choice variety of gloves and hosiery, shawls, mufflers, ties, &c., will be disposed of at favorable prices. Terms strictly cash—hence the low rates.

In our issue of Saturday we stated that an exhibition of the Pittsburgh Polytechnic Association would take place on Thursday evening. This was an error; it should have been Monday evening. The members have been making extensive preparations for a pleasant time this evening, and will no doubt succeed. Remember, gentlemen, with the single exception of the press, will be admitted unless accompanied by a lady. Females are a necessity some times, as in this case.

Burglary.—On Friday night some bold thieves broke into the grocery store of Mager & Robinson, on Federal street. They effected an entrance by forcing open the door with a crowbar, and after making a thorough search for money, and breaking the locks off all the drawers, without disturbing the safe, however, they decamped, not much the better of their efforts. They carried off nothing of any value excepting a can or two of oysters.

William Smith, who was charged with depositing an infernal machine in a blacksmith shop—the effects of which were so terrible, was admitted to bail by the Mayor on Saturday. He was obliged to deposit five hundred dollars in cash, besides additional security in the sum of one thousand dollars, previous to being released. It is right that so dangerous a character (if the charge be proved) should be secured in this way.

Violin Teaching.—Mr. C. B. Lafferty, late of Sanford's Opera Troupe, intends opening a school in this city for giving instructions on the violin. Mr. Lafferty is one of the most perfect masters of his art, and fully capable of imparting tuition on that excellent instrument—the violin. Persons desirous of acquiring the ability to perform on this instrument, should call on Mr. Lafferty, at No. 109 Water street.

Gayeties.—Mr. Gardiner Coyne concluded his engagement at the Gayeties on Saturday night. The bill for to night consist of "Ben Bolt," and "The Jacobite." Mr. Jas. Madison, the "cast-iron man," will go through a variety of extraordinary feats of strength. These feats are said to be almost incredible.

Theatre.—Miss Heron repeated her great character of Madeline Saturday evening, to a good house. This evening she appears as Mrs. Haller in the "Stranger," and Juliana in the "Honey Moon." To-morrow evening she takes a benefit, which closes her engagement.

One evening last week, two boys, about twelve years of age, were caught in the act of breaking into a confectionary store in New Brighton. They had succeeded in breaking in one of the panels of the back door when they were detected. The young scamps should be sent to the House of Refuge.

Mr. George Miller took the oath of office as a member of the Board of Directors, from Hon. Wm. H. Williams, Judge of the District Court, on Thursday last. He has been one of the board ever since its organization, and has proved a very efficient officer.

Committed.—On Friday evening, Esq. Wampole, of M'Keesport, committed Thomas M'Garvey to jail, charged with an assault on a Miss M'Pherson of that place.

At the Mayor's office on Saturday and yesterday, everything was quite dull. We did not hear of an assault and battery.

In the District Court, on Saturday, no business of

We understand that the Blairsville "Record," which was sold at sheriff's sale about a week since, has been purchased by James F. Campbell, late of Steubenville, and formerly an employee in this office. May he be as successful as he is deserving.

Sworn In.—Charles W. Lewis, Esq., received his commission as Alderman in the Third Ward last week. He has been sworn in, and will be ready for busiuess in a new office on Wylie street near Fifth.

Dr. Elder, of this city, has received a call from the O. S. Presbyterian congregation of Fairview, Erie county. He has accepted the call, and will shortly remove there.

William Maxwell, charged with larceny, was brought up in Judge M'Clure's Court on Saturday for sentence, but at the request of his counsel, sentence was postponed.

The Greatest Invention of the Age.—The Excelsior Shingle Mills.—Who Wants to Get Rich? Everybody!

Then let everybody pay a visit to the Great Western Planing Mill, on the corner of Marbury street and Duquesne way, and see the Excelsior Mill make sixty perfectly formed shingles in one minute. But we would advise anybody wishing to secure the means of rapidly accumulating a fortune, to call soon, as we are disposing of Shop, Township, County State and Territorial rights almost as fast as we can draw up the deeds. We have, as yet, some valuable rights for sale—therefore, to who would at some future roll in your costly carriages, had better call soon.

We do not ask any one to purchase, until after he has thoroughly examined the mill, and perfectly understands the principles upon which it is constructed.

The best evidence we can give of the great value of this machine, is the work it performs.

The shingles made by it are more perfectly and beautifully formed, and command a much higher price from dealers than those made in any other way.

The public are respectfully invited to call and see the machine in operation at the above named place. The Proprietors can always be found at the St. Nicholas Hotel, corner of Grant and Fourth streets, Pittsburgh.

From Washington.—The Fight in Congress.—The Lecompton Constitution.

WASHINGTON CITY, February 7.—The affray in the House on Friday morning still affords an animated subject of conversation, but there is no probability that further difficulty will occur between the two principal belligerents, growing out of the rencontre. The account given of the conversation and engagement between Messrs. Nott and Grow, on the authority of a member of Congress, in Saturday's despatch, was not designed as an authentic statement, but was given on application as embodying his impression at the time. The friends of Keitt, who were in his vicinity, say that he was not knocked down by Grow, but was wrenched from his seat by Reuben Davis, who interfered as a peace maker; and further that as Keitt premeditated no disturbance with Grow, he the more seriously regrets its occurrence.

It is uncertain when the Anti-Lecompton Constitution Democrats will issue their address, giving their reasons why they cannot vote for the admission of Kansas under that instrument. It has not yet been finished by the committee having it in charge.

The Union of yesterday morning reads Mr. Harris, of Illinois, out of the party, calling him and the Democrats who act with him, a corporation guard and renegades.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMSHIP ARABIA.

SANDY HOOK, February 7.—The steamer Arabia, with Liverpool dates to the 22d ult., passed here this evening.

The bullion in the Bank has increased £1,000,000. The money market is slightly easier; the bank rate is unchanged.

Lord Elgin has sent an ultimatum to the Chinese, and has given ten days for its consideration.

Napoleon opened the French Legislature by a lengthy speech. He spoke of more repressive measures.

Four of the Italian chiefs in the attempted assassination will be tried in January.

Heavy failures have occurred at Marseilles, including Duclos & Co., for £200,000.

Counterfeiters Arrested.

ALBANY, N. Y., February 7.—A man named Wm. G. Gurney, and a woman named Elvire Bates, was arrested charged with counterfeiting twenty shilling dollar, half dollar, and twenty-five cent pieces. Both are now in custody of the United States Marshall; also a step daughter of Mrs. Bates.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON CITY, February 6.—The Senate was not in session to-day.

House.—In the House the whole night was spented in trivial motions. At 6½ o'clock in the morning Mr. Quitman submitted a resolution that the House adjourn until Monday next, when the subject under consideration—the Kansas Message—shall be resumed, and the vote on the pending propositions shall be taken without any further delay or dilatory motions. Unanimous consent was given for the introduction of the resolution, which was agreed to and the Speaker announced the House adjourned until Monday, when the subject will come up as the special order.

Just before two o'clock the House was thrown into a violent excitement, and a fearful scene of confusion. It appears that while Mr. Grow (a Pennsylvania was walking down the aisle on the Democratic side of the hall, Mr. Keitt of South Carolina and a friend approached him, and a slight squabble ensued. Keitt struck Grow, but the parties were separated by their friends; they then exchanged words in an excited and menacing manner. Keitt again dealt a blow at Grow, the latter ignoring the latter down. Crowds of their respective friends rushed to the rescue. The various members on each side engaged in the fight in the area fronting the Clerk's desk. Washburne of Illinois was conspicuous among the Republicans, dealing heavy blows. The Speaker loudly called on the Sergeant-at-Arms to interfere. That functionary, carrying his cane of office, together with his assistants, hurried to the scene, and crowded into the thickest of the fight, in which at least a dozen members were engaged. Some minutes elapsed before the truly fearful contest was quieted; the members having reluctantly returned to their seats, there was a dead calm in comparison with the scene just enacted.

Mr. Quitman moved that they now adjourn and take the question on the reference of the message of the President on Kansas affairs affairs at one o'clock P. M., on Monday.

Emphatic and general responses from the Rejah Bean side, of "No. no." Confusion began to break out afresh, when the Speaker said he would direct the Sergeant-at-Arms to put under arrest those who disregarded the order of the House.

Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, said he foresaw that this gross disorder would result here from the excited questions connected with Kansas, and was called to order by Mr. Barksdale. Campbell said he wished the gentleman from Mississippi to know that he was his peer.

The Late Explosion of the Steamer Col. Crossman.

ST. LOUIS, February 6.—The following are the names of all the persons thus far known to have been lost by the explosion of the steamer Crossman: C. L. Chesver, of the firm of Warne & Chesver; Mrs. David G. Taylor and child, and one child of Nicholas Wall, and also Capt. Comvelse, all of St. Louis; Alex. Mercer, boat keeper; Wilson Perrie, pilot; Mr. Low, mate; Mr. Scott, Steward; Mr. Dunking, of Chicago; Richard Johnson, clerk; Jno. B. Chanda, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Green, and seven or eight firemen and deck hands.

Defaulters.

BOSTON, February 6.—The report of the committee appointed to investigate the affairs of the Bay State Mills Corporation, the concern for which Lawrence, Stone & Co. were agents, shows that they (L. S. & Co.) are defaulters to the amount of $32,000. The corporation is bankrupt, and the company is dissolved. The report hints that some one connected with Lawrence, Stone & Co. can tell all about the disbursement of the $87,000 fund.

Illinois Supreme Court Decision.

CHICAGO, February 6.—In the case of the appointment of last winter, signed but afterwards vetoed by Gov. Bissell, the Supreme Court have given a decision in favor of the legality of the veto.

THE CHEMICAL OLIVE ERASIVE SOAP, manufactured by B. C. & J. H. Sawyer, receives the preference over all other kinds ever offered for family use.

Its advantages over other Soaps are:—1st. It is cheaper to use, one pound being equal to three of common resin Soap. 2d. Half the time need only be occupied in washing when this Soap is used, than of other Soaps. 3d. Labor in washing can be nearly dispensed with, as the clothes will require little if any rubbing, thus avoiding their wear on the washboard. By boiling the clothes is unnecessary when this Soap is used, and hard or salt water answers equally as well as soft. 5th. Printers, Machinists, Painters and others, find it far superior to other Soaps. It specially removes grease, tar, paint, printers' ink and dirt from the hands, leaving the skin soft, and free from chapping.

To avoid the labor of rubbing the clothes, and the use of the washboard, the following directions should be followed:

For the washing of eight or ten of a family, take one pound of Soap, cut it into shavings, and dissolve in one gallon of hot water; put the clothes into a tub containing about ten gallons of warm water, free from the dissolved Soap, and stir thoroughly. Let them soak twenty to thirty minutes; wring out, and rinse in warm water once; cold water twice. A very dirty piece of cloth, or cotton or grease spots, may require a slight rubbing, but otherwise the clothes will come out clean and white, without rubbing or boiling. Cold water may be used in place of hot, requiring about double time in soaking.

RIVER NEWS.

HARDY & M'GREW, Steamboat and General Agents. Corner of First and Ferry streets.

RIVER, WEATHER, Etc.—The river continues to fall, with 4 feet 8 inches in the channel. The ice is running in considerable quantities out of the Allegheny. Above the aqueduct it has stopped, and it is solid for a considerable distance. It had also stopped above the Monongahela bridge on safety morning, but resumed at nine o'clock. Forthcoming Saturday was rather brisker than at any other time during the week.

The Emma Graham arrived yesterday morning, and will leave to-morrow evening for Zanesville, at 5 o'clock. She is the regular Tuesday packet

The river reporter of the Journal must have been taking lessons in geography. Saturday morning it announced that the steamer Clifton, capt. Thos. Rea, had loaded up in the landing to load for Nashville and take in three bales on the Muskingum river! Shades
