testimony, from all parts of the American continent, sorumulated during the last ten years, in the hands of the proent proprietor. The prevalence of diseases to which the German Bitters are adapted, it is with sorrow we say it, is almost universal; indeed there is scarcely a sensity throughout the whole extent of our country in which there cannot be form among its members that poculiar sailow and langual suffering Dyspeptic.

Then of what immense importance to this blass of inval & that a corrain and sectable remety should be placed with their reach; one in which no baneful or injurious drug enters into its composition; a remedy on which the patient acrely with the utmost confidence and certainty, and be assure from actual and tangible proofs that the article he is using really possesses the virtues attributed to it. Such a remedy as "HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS." Thousands of dollars have been expended in its manufacture and diffusion dollars have been expended in its manufacture and diffusion throughout all parts of this continent, and the propriet.

feels the greatest satisfaction in stating that there is no state, county, or even village, where the Nedicine has been introduced, that there cannot be found numbers willing testify to its virtues.

It is used constantly in the practice of a large number of the most prominent. Physicians in the country, who have also added their written testimony in evidence of its great virtues. In conclusion, then, we would respectfully ask of all those affected with any of the above discusses to give the Bitters a trial, and rest assured it will never be regrotted.
