Pittsburgh Theatre .- Mr. Owons played John Unit in "Solf" last evening, for the third time, to an au dience equally as good as on any evening since his engagement. The farce of a "Conjugal Lesson," in which he appeared as Simon Lullaby, was also loudly applauded. This evening Mr. Owens takes a benefit, when he appears as Billy Lackaday, in "Sweethearts and Wives," as Solon Shingle, in the "People's Lawyer," and as Jonathan Gillman, a bridegroom, in "The Happiest Day of my Life." $1,539,000.

----Run Over.-Yesterday afternoon at about three o'clock, a boy about eleven years of age, named Pat-rick Nockton, was passing along Fifth street; when near the Theatre he attempted to cross, and was hear the liberts he alternpred to cross, and was knocked down by a horse attached to a wagon loaded with coal. He fell down and the wagon passed over his left log, crushing it badly. His wounds were cared for by Dr. A. G. Walter. No bones were broken, and the wound is not dangerous. It is almost a miracle that the weight of the heavy wagon did not break any bones. _____ Accident .--- A young German, named Jacob Staub, narrowly escaped with his life at Conemanyh station. on the Pennsylvania Railroad, a few evenings since. He was caught by some of the machinery attached to a train of 'reight cars, and dragged under the wheels quite a long distance. One of his arms was broken, and his legs were terribly orushed. Ho was dragged through Johnstown, and it is said his cries investments, s.t present prices, perfectly safe or even probably lucrative; and the man of true sagacity instead of becoming himself a buyer, lends his means temporarily on the best securities offering, if only a were heart-rending.
