LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Duelling Extraordinary. It seems that the mania for dueling so prevalent about the seat of government recently has had an effect upon our vicinity, and has resulted in one of those bloody encounters in our very midst. It seems that a few evenings since, while engaged in a game of billiards at a fashionable hall, a few words passed between a merchant of Wood street and a steamboat captain, and the former, conceiving himself insulted forthwith challenged his enemy to mortal combat The captain, feeling himself aggrieved, accepted the challenge, and as the choice of weapons was his privlege by the code, he selected rifles as the weapons When the merchant received this message he demurred, and declined the terms. The captain in sisted on his choice. The matter remained unsettled until Friday, when the merchant having made some remarks derogatory to the dignity of the steamboat captain, the latter agreed to accept the terms of the other and fight with pistols. The parties were to stand ten paces apart, with their backs to each other, and to wheel and fire at the word of command. The duel was to take place at Collins' Park, near East Liberty, at five o'clock on Friday evening. A well known physician was requested to be in at endance, and it is stated that the merchant made his will before leaving the city; we cannot, however youch for this. All the preliminaries being arranged the principals, with their seconds and an umpire, lef in separate cerriages, and arrived at the ground shortly before five o'clock. The appointed hour beheld the two antagonists standing ten paces apart, in their shirt sleeves, pistols in hand. At the words "one, two, three, turn and fire," they wheeled around and fired together, but neither fell. The pistols were then re loaded, the word again given, and the parties fired. This time the fire was more decisive r the steamboat captain was seen to stagger and fall backward. The merchant stepped towards him and seeing the blood streaming down, sought safety He seized his garments and made for the fence, but was intercepted by a spectator. He then went back to the fatal spot, and, with his second drove rapidly to town. It is said that he wished to eave the city, but was provailed upon by some of his friends to go to the Mayor's office and give himself up, but he did not find the Mayor at his office. He expressed ponitence for the act, and it was not until Saturday morning that he was informed that he had been hoaxed, that the pistols were loaded without "cold lead," and that the blood was only a red fluid, prepared for the occasion. The matter had been arranged by the seconds and the captain, and in accordance with the programme, he fell to the earth, leading his adversary to believe that he had killed im. The merchant was not the only party sold two or three speciators left the ground with a power ful impression that a man had been killed, and a gen tlema n of this city went to the Mayor's office and requested the Mayor to send out officers to stop the loodshed.

Seriously, we are glad to be able to chronicle ploodless termination to this duel, but we think that four northern men will adopt this dueling system, it is not right that one of the parties should be made game of In this case one of the gentlemen was apised of the fact that the weapons were not loaded with ball, and the man who, not knowing this cir umstance, had the courage to face his antagonist, is held up to ridicule. It would be only fair that both should be apprised of the fact, or both remain in ignorance of it.

Meeting of the Bar. A meeting of the members of the Bar, for the puroose of taking action in relation to the appointment of a new law judge, was held on Saturday afternoon The meeting was organized by calling D. D. Bruce, Esq., to the Chair, and appointing T. J. Bigham and F. C. Flannigan Vice Presidents, and J. H. Hopkins nd John W. Riddell Secretaries. The Chairman stated the object of the meeting and Mr. Barton offered the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the members of the Bar of Pittsurgh respectfully request the members of the Leg islature from this county to use their influence in favor of the act extending to the whole State, or a

The Chair appointed Messrs. Howard, Barton, Carnahan, Wingard and has been produced, bearing strongly in favor of the prisoner, and the case has been postponed for another

This committee reported through their Chairman, homas Howard, Esq., that in their opinion, from he great amount of litigation in this county, the new judge was necessary, and that the Legislature possesses the power to provide one or more additiona judges. This report is quite lengthy and a very able document. It was on motion accepted and adopted. After some discussion, Thomas M. Marshall, Eq. moved that the whole matter be referred to a committee of five, to prepare a bill and memorial, to be submitted to an adjourned meeting of the Bar Saturday next, at two o'clock, P. M. The Chair appointed the following committee undor this resolution: T. J. Bigham, Thomas Mellon,

The meeting then adjourned to meet as above. Riot in Allegheny--Two Men Wounded. Quite a serious affray occurred in Allegbeny Civy a Saturday afternoon, about four or five o'clock, in which an Irishman, named Patrick Doolan was badly beaten. It seems that some fifteen or twenty men vere employed in the grading of Seminary Hill, and Saturday being pay day, it was proposed as is the spree. Doolan refused to contribute his share, as he ould not drink, which engendered ill feeling, and after the remainder of the party had indulged pre ty freely in "fighting whisky," they fell upon and beat him unmercifully. He received a wound with a pickaxe on the right shoulder; also with similar instruments on the face and back of the heid. He was struck with a large boulder, and received several kicks and bruises on various parts of the body. He would probably have been killed had he not been rescued. Three men, named William Bruce, William Stewart and Jacob Wilson, were arrested and comnitted to jail. Bruce had two slight cuts on one arm: but it is not known by whom they were in flicted. Warrants have been issued for the arrest of other parties implicated. Doolan was held in one

More Stolen Goods.—We understand that a gentle nan, whose name we are not at liberty to give, called on Messrs. Hess & Schmidt, on Saturday, bringing with him a silk dress pattern, valued at thirty do lars, which he had purchased from Cady, the young man whose arrest we noticed Saturday. He had seen an account of his misdoings, and feeling that the lress had been stolen, his conscience would not allow him to keep it, and he accordingly returned the acticle. The silk-was recognized by Mr. Hess, as a piece missed by him last November. He is of opinion that Cady has abstracted several hundred dollars' worth of goods from the store, but the young man stoutly nies the soft impeachment.

Pittsburgh Theatre -Mr. Owens concluded his enthe drama of the "Rake's Progress," in which he sustained the character of Sam Slap. This evening Mr. J. G. Hanley, the young American tragedian, who is hereafter to act as stage manager at the Theatre, appears as Ingomar, with Miss Kimberly as Par thenia. If Mr. Hanley can please a Pittsburgh audience in the character of Ingomar, he will be a fa vorite here, as the lamented Breisford played that character so perfectly as to render our theatre goers somewhat fastidious. We hope to see Mr. Hanley welcomed with a good bouse.

The Penn Street Crossing-On Saturday, application was made in the District Court, before Judges Hamp ton and Williams, for an injunction against the Mayor and police of Pittsburgh, to revent them from interfering with the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago ing with the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railrond Company, in laying their track across Pennstreet. Mr. John H. Hampton, Solicitor for the Company, occupied some time with an argument in favor of the injunction, at the close of which the Court adjourned. Mr. Foster, the City Solicitor, will reply at nine o'clock this morning. reply at nine o'clock this morning.

The Blakely Estate. - As J. J. Mitchel, assignee of the state of James Blakely, has resigned, several petitions have been presented to Judge M'Clure, asking for the appointment of Mr. Cummins in his stead.

Others are in favor of Mr. M'Mesters being appoint.

Othors are in favor of Mr. M'Masters being appointed. The Judge considered the matter important, and placed it on the list of questions to be discussed in the Court of Common Pless. It will come up for discussion during the present week.

Discharged.—John Kemp, whom we referred to some days since as being confined in the county jail, on a charge of larceny, was discharged on Saturday. MEDICAL.

ONLY ONE BOTTLE DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR, IS REQUIRED TO CURE ANY ONE troubled with Liver Complaints, unless the most desperate of cases, when the second bottle will, with scarce a single failure, restore the patient to health and vigor. We wish to call the attention of all to these facts, that the Invigorator is compounded by a physician who has used it in his practice for the past twenty years with a success almost creditions, and that it is entirely vegetable, being composed wholly of gums. creditions, and that it is entirely vegetable, being composed wholly of gums.

Some idea of the strength of these gums may be formed when it is known one bottle of the Invigorator contains as much strength as one hundred doses of Calomel without any of its deleterious effects.

We know there is nothing now before the American public, prepared with such skill by a scientific man, particularly for diseases of the Liver, as Dr. Santord's Invigorator, or Liver Remedy. It has attained a reputation second to no other article in the world, simply because it rest on its own merit. To convince all by trial that it is all its proprietors claim it to be, if any of our readers are suffering from such diseases as are described in Dr. Sanford's advertisement, we know of know remedy that will so surely cure them as the Invigorator.

The Invigorator cures Sick Headache. Take one or two teaspoonfuls at each attack and it will soon disappear. For an overloaded stomach, or when food rises or sours, take the Invigorator after eating, and it will not prove disagreeable or oppressive. For Heartburn, Palpitation, or Difficult Breathing, take a tea poonful once or twice daily. For Loss of Appetite, Languor or Lustlessness, the medicine is invaluable. It will restore the appetite and make the food digest well. Nightmare, take a teaspoonful on retiring, and the demons of dream-land will all be fairles. Aftor eating a hearty dinner, take a dose of Invigorator and it will relieve all oppression or fullness. The Juvigorator is a Liver Rome dy of unequaled virtue, acting directly on that organ, curing Dyspepsia, Jauniice, Billious Attacks, Dysontery, Piles, Worms, and all Female Obstructions, for which it has no equal.

We know there is nothing now before the American public prepared with such skill by a scientific man, particularly for diseases of the Liver, as a r. Sanford's Invigorator, or Liver Romedy. It has attained a reputation second to no other article in the wor d, simply because it rests on its own merit. To convince all by trial that it is all its proprietors claim it to be, if any of our readers are suffering from such diseases as are described in Dr. Sanford's advertisement, we know of no remedy that will so surely cure them as the Invigorator.

There has lately been brought to our notice a medicine that seems to possess wonderful, curative and healing properties in diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Digestive Organs. It came to us with so many testimonials in its favor that we have noted its effects in some of the worst cases of that we have noted its effects in some of the worst cases of continual dibility, caused by deranged liver, and in every instance the effect was to relieve or give a permanent cure, Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, or Liver Remedy is what we refer to. We always have been credulous about cures by patent medicines, but we are convinced that this medicine, for family use, is not overrated by the host of recommendation; it has. Our advice is, for all troubled with Indigestion, Poblity or Bowel Complaint, to get a bottle and try it; our word for it, relief will be experienced.

word for it, relief will be experienced.

Blessings to the invalids who use Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, for it will relieve them of their pains as soon as it is taken into their stomach. Pain and misery cannot exist where the Invigorator is used, for it will as surely drive them away, as daylight will banish darkness, of this there can be no doubt to these whe try it, for it carries conviction with every dose taken. Another evidence is the thousands of certificates from those who use it or have been cured by it, try one bottie, it it does not benefit, then we are mistaken.
