LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Col. Forney's Lecture Last Night. Quite a large audience was in attendance at Lafay tte Hall last evening to hear the lecture of Col. John W. Forney, on "American Statesmen," which had been announced by the Young Men's Library Asso-ciation; and the speaker was listened to with marked attention throughout the whole course of his remarks. He introduced his lecture by saying that it was hardly possible to do justice to his subject in the nar-row limits of a lecture; that whole volumes might be written on theme he had chosen. He contrasted who is educated for the position from his earliest infancy and grows grey in the service, and when he drops the reins, they fall into the hands of his son or relative, who has been educated to the succession in a similar manner to his predecessor. The American with in winning fame for himself-his field was the manufactory: wider, and his contests more bitter. He alluded to Buckets, common.......$1,60 per doz.

the almost universal poverty of American statesmen. Franklin had borno "the proud man's contumely" and the scorn of a istocracy; Clay had commenced struggled for a long period as a Massachusetts law. No. 2 Tubs... CURE A COLD.—Now, white winter, with its burthen of Colds and Coughs, is with us, we think a remedy that will at his command. But it did not follow that because No. 4 Tubs.

No. 4 Tubs.

No. 4 Tubs. The character of the American statesman is higher and it will give greater relief than any other medicine we than is generally conceded to him. A public man who is not true to his constituents and their principlos, soon coases to have much influence.

He next spoke of the great backers of the Revolutionary movement—Franklin, Washington and Grand Jury were sworn in, and after listening to Grand Jury were sworn in, and after listening to Grand Jury were sworn in, and after listening to Grand Jury were sworn in, and after listening to Grand Jury were sworn in, and after listening to Grand Jury were sworn in, and after listening to Grand Jury were sworn in, and after listening to Grand Jury were sworn in, and after listening to Grand Jury were sworn in an after listening to Grand Jury were sworn in the Grand Jury were sworn in for twenty statesmen. Washington seemed to have been specially designed for his mission. It had been lavished on the memory of Washington-but "we shall never look upon his like again." The monument of Jefferson was in our system of governmentwhich stands pre-eminent among all others. He then passed to another era of statesmanship, the representatives of which were Jackson, Clay, Webster and Calhoun, and presented some of the chief characteristics of each. Jackson had commenced life, as it were, a poor soldier, and by his ever flagging energy and unbending will had placed himself in the position he occupied. After 1815 he was the iron man of his time. With all his energy human nature; he was ever touched by the tale of sorrow, and could at any time be enlisted in the cause of minfortune. He closed his remarks on Jackson with a touching recital of his last words. Clay was distinguished above all other men in his sphere. He was a highly finished gentleman, a powerful orator, and had the rare faculty of swaying multitudes by his opinions. If Henry Clay had not been a great statesman, he would have been a great soidler. Had he been born twenty years sooner, he would have been in the thickest of the Revolutionary tor spirits of his time, and it was singular to reflect known him. In alluding to Webster, the speaker more like viewing a splendid picture or a colloscal statue than a man. He seemed the type of another age. His speeches were perfect in all their parts, yet they seemed a compound of nature and of art. an English statesman he could not have failed-as an American he was traumphant. He was possessed of a rich fund of humor, yet that humor was not light or flippant, and if he attempted to be playful with his adversary, it was the playfulness of the lion. His career bad been a magnificent one for his coun try, but an unsuccessful one for himself. As a party his absence at one of the Presidential coventions, by his daughter in Boston, which was full of beautiful and touching passages.

Caihoun was different both in mind and manner prices at which he sells bread. He offers three State, and had been an advocate for secession. It he were living to day he would be found on the ex treme of the issue now before the people, but woul! ontinued applause.]

Here the speaker remarked that he regretted that his limited time would not permit him to pay a proper tribute to one of our greatest living states men—Thomas H. Benton. He had the great virtue of acknowledging his errors. And now that his daty to his country in the halls of legislation was ended, the one great desire of his life was to be spared long enough to finish the great work on which he is engaged, which, when concluded will be an invaluareverted to the living statesmen, remarking that every crisis has its hero, and that when the cause is apparent, a Franklin, a Jefferson, and he said it without irroverence, a Clay or a Jackson, will be found among the masses, suitable for any emergency. The man who visits the Senate chamber cannot fail to observe Birmingham. the youthful character of the men there, contrasted with times gone by. There were but a few of the older school there; Crittenden, Bell and Fessender were the few now in the Senate over fifty years of C. Shaw has been appointed postmaster.

age. He mentioned many of the leading men in the Senate at present. [At the mention of the names usiastically.] He then alluded to the falling off of the statesmen of Pennsylvania, and adverted to the period when Buchanan, the Forwards, Ingersoll, M'Kennan, and others, were retained in the service of the State, in contrast with the course at present pursued. He then stated that the South pursued a different policy. When a man was found to be competent and attached to his constituents he kept his coat in Congress until he chose to give it up. This was one great reason why the South, though in a minority, always had an ad /antage over the North. In conclusion, he draw a picture of a true states man, having only the good of his country at heart, himself incorruptible, and closed with a beautiful and appropriate extract from one of the poets of our country.

The lecture occupied about an hour in its delivery and tew who listened would have been wearied with another hour's discourse. It abounded in passages of thrilling eloquouce, which we cannot do justice to in this short eketch. We only regret that we are un-able to lay the whole address before our realers. A Constable Sued.—An information was made on Saturday before Ald. Lewis, by a young man from Lawrenceville, against a constable of the Third Ward. named Giblin, for assault and battery. The prose-cutor states that he was arrosted without a warran: and taken to the county jail, where the jailor very properly refused to take him with ut a commitment, whereupon the prisoner was discharged, without an examination, trial, or even the preferment of a charge against him. According to the statement of the constable, the prosecutor was found at the door of a house in the Sixth Ward, and at the request of the proprie tor of the establishment he arrested him. Giblin was held to bail. We think a lit.le justice should be ad ministered to some of the constables in the city

Merely because they happen to be invested with a lit tle "brief authority," they frequently make arrests without a shadow of cause, and if they do not know their duty it should be taught them. _ ____ The following proceedings were had in the Su-preme Court in Philadelphia on Saturday Last: The County of Crawford vs. the Pittsburgh and Erie Railroud Company. In equity. On motion of G. Church, attorney for the defendants, the Court set aside the decree and strike off the motion order, &c., and vacate the decree of pro confessor of the second

Charge of Highway Robbery.—On Saturday a man named Purcell was committed to jail, on oath of one Andrew Maxwell, who states that while returning from the fire on Thursday morning last, he was robbed of a gold watch and chain. Purcell came up to him shortly afterwards; Maxwell suspected him, and ascertaining that Purcell had sold the watch to a man in Allegheny city, had him arrested. Several suspicious circumstances have appeared against the prisoner. Query: Is this the same Purcell who tried

Court of Quarter Sessions and Oyer and Terminer -The March term of the Criminal Court com wery able explanation of their duties by Judge M'Clure, retired to their room. Some cases of trifling importance were then disposed of, after which the Court adjourned. This will probably be one of the shortest terms of this Court we have had for some time. The cases are but few in number, and most of them are of a very trifling character. We do not anticipate the crowds of spectators that were present luring the last session of this Court.

A Slight Mistake .- Some of our cotemporarie have announced that the President of the Pittsburgt Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company had a copted the ordinance passed by the City Councils at the weeks since. We learn that this statement is acorrect—that the ordinance has not been accepted. It is still subject to the action of the Board of Di ectors. The ordinance has not as yet been recorded, though we presume it will be to-day. The company have always expressed their willingness to make a fair contract with the city, and they will undoubtedly do so in a short time.

Liberal .- On Saturday, Messrs. Zug & Painter, ron merchants, on Water street, presented the Fairmount Fire Company with one hundred dollars, and also promised to procure them some hose. This donation was on account of their exertions in saving their rolling mill in the Fifth Ward, on Thursday morning last. It would probably have been con-sumed had it not been for the exertions of the mem bers of this company.

A SOAP, manufactured by B. C. & J. ... cawyer, receives the preference over all other kinds ever offered for family use.

Its advantages over other Soaps are:—lst. It is of eaper to use, one pound being equal to three of common rosus soap. 2d. Haif the time need only be occupied in washing when this Soap is used in place of other Soap. 3d. Lab.r in washing can be nearly daspensed with, as the ciotnes will require little if any rubbing, thus avoiding their wear on the wash-board. 4th. Boiling the clothes is unnecessary when this Soap is used, and hard or sall water answers equally as well as soit. 5th. Finiters, Machinias, Fainters and others, and it far superior to other Soaps. It speedly removes grease, tar, paint, printers has and dirt from the hands, leaving the skin soit, and free from chapping.

To avoid the labor or rubbing the clothes, and the use of the wash-board, the following directions should be followed:

For the washing of eight or ten of a family, take one pound of Soap, cat it into shavings, and dissolve in one gallon of hot water; put the clothes into a tub containing shout ten gallons of warm water; pour in the dissolved Soap, and stir thoroughly. Let them soak twenty to thirty minutes, wring out, and rinse in warm water once, cold water twice. A very dirty wrist-band, or seam, or grease spits, may require a slight rubbing, but otherwise the cothes will come out clean and white, without rubbing or boiling. Cold water may be used in place of hot, requiring about double time in soaking.

OMLY ONE BOTTLE DR. SANEORD'S INVIGORATOR. IS REQUIRED TO CURE ANY ONE tronvied with Liver Complaints, unless the most desperate of cases, when the second bottle will, with scarce a single failure, restore the patient to health and vigor. We wish to call the attention of all to these facts, that the Invigorator is compounded by a physician who has used it in his practice for the past twenty years with a success almost credutions, and that it is entirely vegetable, being composed wholly of gnms.

Some idea of the strength of these gums may be formed when it is known one bottle of the Invigorator contains as much extrength as one hundred doses of Calomel without any of its deleterious effects.

We know there is nothing now before the American public, prepared with such skill by a scientific man, particularly for diseases of the Liver, as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, or Liver Kemedy. It has attained a reputation second to no other article in the world, simply because it rest on its own merit. To convince all by treal that it is all its proprietors claim it to be, if any of our readers are suffering from such diseases as are described in Dr. Santord's advertisement, as know of know remedy that will so surely cure them as the Invigorator.

The Invigorarer cures Sick Headache. Take one or two teaspoonfuls at the ottock and it will soon disappear. For an overloaded stands it, or where food rises or sourt, take the Invigorator after cataly, and it will not prove disagreeable or oppressive. For Heavtonin, Palpitation, or Difficult Breathing, take a text posture one or twice daily. For Loss of appetite, Languer or tastlessness, the medicine is invaluable. It will rectore the appetite and make the food dig at well. Nightmare, take a teaspoontal on retiring, and the able. It will rector the appetite and make the food digest well. Nightmare, take a teadpoonful on retiring, and the demons of dream-land will all be fairles. After eating a hearty dinner, take a dose of Invigorator and it will relieve all oppression or fullness. The Invigorator is a Liver Remedy of unequaled virtue, acting directly on that organ, curing Dyspepsia, Jaunilice, Billious Attacks, Dysentery, Piles, Worms, and all Femals Obstructions, for which it has no equal.

We know there is nothing now before the American putlic prepared with such skill by a scientific man, particularly for diseases of the Liver, as r. S. aford's invigorator, or Liver Komedy. It has attained a reputation second to no other article in the word, simply because it rests on its own merit. To convince all by trust that it is all fits preprietors claim it to be, if any of our readers are suffering from such diseases as are described in Dr. Santori's advertisorent, we know of no remedy that will so surely cure them as the nyigorator.

There has intely been brought to our notice a medicine that seems to possess wenderful, crrative and healing properties in diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Digestivo Organs. It came to us with so many testimonials in its favor that we have noted its effects in some of the worst cases of continual dibility, caused by derangee liver, and in-every instance the effect was to relieve or give a permanent cure, Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, or Liver Remedy is what we refer to. We always have been creditions about cures by patent medicines, but we are convinced that this medicine, for family use, is not overcated by the host of recommendation if thus. Our advice is, for all troubled with Indigestion, I. bility or Bowel Complaint, to get a bottle and try it; our word for it, relief will be experienced.

BLESSINGS TO THE INVALIDS Who use Dr. Sanford's Invigor BLESSINGS TO THE INVALIDS who use Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, for it will relieve them of their pains as soon as it is taken into their stomach. Fain and misery cannot exist where the Invigorator is used, for it will as surely drive them away, as duylight will banish darkness, of this there can but doubt to these wheetry it, for it carries conviction with every dose taken. Another evance is the thousands of certificates from those who use it or have been cured by it. Try one bottle, it it does not benefit, then we are mistaken.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula. A benefit is always eigherloned from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

DEAR MADAH,—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kind of humors, is so well established by the unanimous voice of all who have over used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skilling physicians and the most exteful Druggists in the country are unanimous in its pranse.

cians and the most externi progress in the country are un-animous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of the curative power, in relieving all, and curring most of those discusses in which you are un-fortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother.
NURSING SORE MOUTH, Is cured as if by a garacle; your own temper is restored to ite natural sweetness, and your babe from short and frotful naps to calm and sweet slumbers, and the Medical Discorery becomes a fountain of blessing to your husband and booseheld. ry becomes a household.

A RETERED PRESICIAN have nearly run out, discovered, while in the East Indies, a certain cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bront hitis, Coughs, Colds, and General bebilty. The remedy was discovered by him when his only child, a daughter, was given up to die. It had heard much of the wonderful restorative and heating qualities of preparations made from the East India Hemp, and the thought occurred to him that he might make a remedy for his child. He studied hard and succeeded in realizing his wishes. His child was carred, and is now alive and west.
