THE DAILY POST

The Washington States on the Public Princing Plunder. On Wednesday last, Mr Cameron, of Pennsylvania, made some remarks in the Senate on the subject of the public printing, which confirms, in every particular, the statements made by us last summer. When we first called attention to the enormity of the public print ng p under, we were charged with gross exaggerations; but the truth is now out, and our reasers will see for themselves that we drew no fancy picture. We were the first to call attention to this enormity, and Congress has now taken the proper steps in this matter to easu e a speedy reform. According to Mr. Cameron's statement:

The cost of Congressional printing has suldenly increased so large y as to be non a subject of serious interest to the whole country. In 1847, only eleven years ago, the whole sum paid for paper, printing and binding, amounted only to $64 691 96. This was under the contract system, when the work was given to the lowest bidder. Some three or four years later, this system, was changed, at the instance, mainly, of persons interested in the high prices

The new system was a mixed one. The pri ces were fixed by the law, and the U vernment under it has become the purchaser of paper and other materials. The office of Superintendent of Printing has been established and that offiver become a functionary of the Government, in many instances, irresponsible to any authority, though nominally responsible to the Committee on Printing of each house. He buys the paper, orders the engravings, and controls the expenditure of hundreds of thousands of dol-

It is not my purpose to inquire into the manner in which the duties of that office have been fulfilled; much less is it my wish to impure wilful wrong to any one connected with the management of the public printing. I desire only to draw the attention of the Senate to the enormous cost of the work, with the hope that the present committee will be sustained in their labors of retrenchment. The cost of printing, paper, and bindin*, from July 1,1856 to March 4, 1857, am unted to the sum of $1 258 010,42 Inc binding alone for that period, it will be seen, was more than six times as much as the whole cost of paper, printing and binding, for the year 1847 for the year just ended I have not been able to obtain; but it is probably over a million and a half of dollars. A great dea! of this extravagance of expenditure has arisen from the loose manner in which Congress has ordered the printing or reports by officers of the army and havy, and other functionaries sent upon expl ri g outies. It has been common, I am tota, to direct the printing of such reports without ex mination, permitting the officer to complete his report while the work is progressing in the lands of the printer. Such has been the course with the Coast Survey, the Japan Expedition, and Pacific Railroad report, and many others. The Coast Survey report out for printing and the year 1000 the choim us our of $78 441,70. Gilis' rep re and arready cost ver $ 00.000; али the ээни эте е whole work as ordered is $149,107 97. The Japan expedition rep rt, water has been comhave been prin ed; four m re are in the hands and by what I have shown, it will be seen to have been a plentiful mother of costly books. Its cost I have not been able to learn. The exwhich was conducted by him with great at thity, was a favorite with the country; and in their gratitude the o gress of the United States seemed willing to let hir print the book to suit himself, and, I believe, to keep the copies when printed.

The Patent office report has been a favorite of the country; and, like all favorites, it has been permitted to overgrow its proper dimensions. well selected facts and tried opinions, it has now become three volumes; one devoted to agriculture and the others to inventious in the me-1857 was $365,286 It cost the G vernment 70 cents a copy, and it can be bought in any num-ber, I am told, in the bookstores of this city for 15 cents-a pretty fair evidence that the number printed is much greater than the country needs.
