Thy Hoofland's German Bitters had such effect upon her general debility, that I was induced to try it my self. I then got a bottle, and used it according to the directions, and it relieved me more than anything I had before used, giving general tone and strength to the stomach and system. Last fall I had a very severe spell of the Diarrhous, which continued for some time. My life, for a a time, was despair d of. Thy bitters again being used, noted very heppily open the stoms h and intestmes, and soon relieved in from the great pain I saffer, d, and gave me g, neral health to the system. Fire. About eight o'clock on last Saturday evening, the citizens of Greensburg were disturbed by the cry of fire and the ringing of bells. It was soon ascertained that the fire was in a room on the first floor of Kettering's Hotel, occupied as a sleeping room by the girls employed about the house. The smoke was dense and sufficienting, and emanated from a large clothes press, which was looked, and contained the wearing appears of the most of the tained the wearing apparel of the girls. Dastardly Outrage .- As the last train on the Pennylvania Railroad was going by the old depot at Phil lipsburg, on Thursday night, a bullet was fired into the last car by some unknown person, which very Fish, Sair nearly deprived two ladies, residing in Easton, P.a., of their lives. Mrs. J. Dawes, one of the ladies who so narrowly escaped, says that the bullet passed not more than a foot from where she and the other lady, who was on the same seat, sat. There were very few persons, besides the ladies, in the car at the time, and whether the shet was it tended for them or was acci.

Radish a, 2 whether the shot was it tended for them or was accidental, is not yet known. The flash of the gun was seen by one or two gentlemen, but it was so dark Onions, fresh, that they could not distinguish the person who fired Carrots, the gun, or discover how he was dressed. The bullet was found in the car on the following morning. No one is able to account for the affair .- Chronicle. ***

A Narrow Escape .- Dr. Gross, of East Liberty met with an accident on Tuesday evening, and his escape from instant death was wonderful. As he wa coming along the rallroad truck at Wilkinsburg, in a buggy, he saw a freight train on the road. He wait ed until the train passed, and then drove on to the track, when an accommodation train from Johnstown came along. The engine struck his horse, separated him from the shafts of the buggy, and throw him a distance of ten yards. Dr. Gross was thrown out of the buggy, but was not seriously in jured. The horse was fatally injured, and the buggy was braken to pieces. Released .- The two suspected burglars, Williams and Donaldson, who were arrested and committed to know the worth of this remedy, will do as we do-prize it doubly. Take a doubly dose of Dr. Sinford's Invigorator, and it will give greater relief than any other medicine was a book of the same here it will give greater relief than any other medicine was a book of the same here. ever tried, for we have rarely to repeat the dose to be en-Derangement of the Stomach and Liver, we can recommond and they will be kept by the Mayor for future reference. The real names of these gentlemen have been ascertained to be Andrew Carroll and Charley Morgan. Family Jars.—Mary Ann Duffy and her husband John, who reside in M'Clurg's court on Fifth street, got a little whisky yesterday afternoon, and got into a little difficulty between themselves. A constable went to the house and found the flor torn up and the bed posts out with a hatchet. Mary Ann was captured and taken to the watch house; when she got sober she was sent to jail for thirty days. John was not to be found. Mary is very boisterous when in liquor, and yesterday afternoon the symmetrical appearance of her countenance was marred by a black eye which she had received in her conflict with her better half. Divorces .- Several applications for divorce have been made the present term of Court. Judge M'Clure has expressed himself opposed to granting divorces, but he declared vesterday that he could not refuse these applications without disregarding both the law and the testimony. Seven decrees were granted; the names of the parties are: Madelaine Huitman, H. Stearns; Adaline Holmes, from Norval Holmes Ann Cargo, from James Cargo; Susan Underwood, from Sherman Underwood; Joseph Hoak, from Mary Hoak; Henry Brickman, from Elizabeth Brinkman.

The New National Theatre.—Gov. Foster seems determined to have his Theatre opened, according to promise, on Saturday evening. A large force of methodical statements of the statement of the stat chanics—upholsterers, carpenters, painters, gas fit-ters, &c.,—are kept employed night and day, and the building is progressing rapidly towards completion.

We presume the Governor will be able to open at the appointed time, though the arrangements may not be as complete as he could wish. We understand that Mr. Hackett will be here next week. Correction .- In alluding to a decision in the First Ward school case yesterday, we made a triffing error in stating that the action of the Board of Directors had been sustained. The fact is that the petition was dismissed on account of informality, the Court having no jurisdiction over it. The petition was signed by only one person, whereas the law requires six names to be attached. Mr. Collins requests us regularly elected candidate of the Republican party
