DEMOCRATIC STATE MOMINATIONS.

FOR SUPREMB JUDGE. WILLIAM A. PORTER. OF PHILADELPHIA.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER. WESTLEY FROST. OF PAYETTE COUNTY.

THE POST, ION OF THE KANSAS BILL The question is frequently asked, "What is the present situation of the Lecompton Bill, under the resolution of the House to "adhero" to its admendment?" The inquiry is much, is not the bill lost " Jarliamentary rules are sometime amount of construction even by pairamentarians themselves, but according to our heat information in the matter we will endeavor to explain.

Having passed the Senate, the bill was sent to the House, where it was amended and returned to the Senate, which body rejected the am indiment of the House, or refused to agree wit. All this frequently occurs in legislation, there being searcely an appropriation bill for many years past, which has not been the subject of disagreeing votes in the two bodies, In such cases it is the usual custom for each House to again consider the subject, upon which the d sagreement occurs, and t the opinion of either House is not changed, it then resolves to insist upon an amendment and ask a committee of conference. In the present instance the flouse did not take the preliminary measure of "insisting," but resolved to "adhe: e," which was the most decid ed action which the circumstances admitted of, and this action of the House now sends the bill back to the Senate, where it can be "laid on the table," "po tponed indefinitely," or the Senate may "ir sist" on its action and demand a conference.

The following joint rules of Congress to great extent regulate this matter.

Joint Rule 1 In every eve of an amendmen of a bill agreed to in one House, and dissented to in the other, if either House shall request a cor ference, and appoint a committee for that pur pose, and the other House shall also appoint committee to confor, such committee shall, at convenient hour, to be agreed on by their chair man, meet in the conference chamber, and sta to each other verbally, or in writing, as either shall choose, the reasons of their respective Houses for and against the amendment, and cor to adhere, does not in any way preclude its appointing a committee of conference to meet a like committee on the part of the Senate changes think that the decisive action of the of March, were as follows: House, however, would indicate that is will From Freight ... not agree to any further action on the bill-If the Senate again refuses the Montgomery amendment, and return the bill to the House, we would not be surprised that the latter laid it on the table, and once there it will take an affirmative vote of two thirds to take it up again.

The House may agree to a conference without disturbing its resolutions to adhere, but before agreeing to any report of a committee of conference; the votes already taken would have to be reconsidered, leaving the bill clear of the resolution to "adhere." In other words it can back out, and agree to a report of a conference committee if it likes that report, or it can maintain its position.

The substance of the whole thing is this, that unless the Senate agree to the Montgomery amendment, the bill will be lost though the House is not yet so committed by parliamentary action as to preclude, itself if disposed, from taking other action.

AS OUTHA E. A SUANDAL AND

SHOME From the New York papers we learn that on to-morrow, the 14th of April, public de cency and public decorum is to be sutraged by a demonstration of much obseques of the French assassins, Orami and Pierri. the Empire City is it fested by a heat of fauties, and anarchists who here as well as in their own land despise all law, and are utterly regardless of all kinds of public social duty. These haters of law, order, religion, and all kinds of wholesome restraint, have had a meeting in a disreputable Red Republican haunt called the Steuber House, where they are free to speak and to discuss their infamous murder and plunder doctrines, and have ars ranged to have a public torch light procession and a requium sung in honor o the murderers of fourteen of their fellow beings, whose moral guilt in the crime they have committed and for which they have justly suffered, is greater than that of Fife and Charlotte Jones and other common murderers. The idea of & public demonstration for a murd-rous gallows have turned the heads of the fashionables of those bird in America, is ridiculous and d sgusting, and the pretext of patriotism and love of libe erty by which these foreign desperadoes endeavor to cover their murders, is a false and flimsy illusion. In the mad phrensy of their deep rooted social and political corruption, in their impotent rage against the right of pros perity, and of mankind, these villanious foreigners prostitute all that is good. In their Red Republican orgies they have canonized these assassins, and Orsini and Pierri are made "first class saints in the Red Republican heaven." Is it any wonder that political Americanism springs up when such things as this proposed demonstration in New York City are permitted? By the law of nation, and the laws of God, as well as the law of France these men were bloody assassins, and is it to be suffered that in this land of freedom, their murders are to be applauded and their mem-

DESTRICTED GEN. W. MARKES. Gen. William Marks for many years prominent citizen of this county, died at Beaver on Saturday last, at the advanced age of seventy eight years. In speaking of his demise, the Chronicle says that perhaps no man in Pennsylvania ever served so long in political life. Entering the Legislature in 1810, he continued in it until 1827, during which time he was for six years Speaker of the Senate and was generally esteemed a prompt, decided and impartial presiding officer. In 1827 he was elected to the United States Sens ate, and served a term of six years. In this distinguished body he was cotemporary with Webster, Calhoun, Van Buren, Benton, Berrien. AN ARTICLE FOR THE LADIES

A Grand Fancy ball came off on Thursday night, of last week, at the residence of Senator Gwin, in Washington City. It was most brilliant affair, and the following graphic account of it from the Star will be read with interest, especially by our lady readers

We need nardly remark that the Inchromable no.
