Clarion County Items. Considerable activity is now manifested along the Clarion Fancy & Plain Furniture & Chairs, river in the beat lusiness. The unexpected high price of that staple has been an facentive to many of our Clarion river friends to turn out as many boats as possible for the next rise in the waters. We are glad of this-they are comosed generally of a hard working class, and we like to see thor rewarded. In former years they were sometimes con elled to take for their boats what would scarcely pay for ie lumber.

Mr. Alexander Brown died on Sunday bust, at the rest lence of J. M. Turney, Esq., in Monroe township. He was onsidered the oldest man in Clarion county, being about 105 years old. Mr. Brown was an early pioneer of that county-settled on Piney creek when the surrounding coun ry was a howling wilderness. He was always a man of it elligence and good character, and his faculties were preerved to a remarkable degree in old age. A new hotel has been opened in Greensville by Mr. R. A Williams. He is known to the public as a hotel keeper, and will doubtless receive the patronage he deserves. A horse or the accommodation of the public was much needed in that place.

The horse of Mr. John L. Smith, of Limestone township on Monday last became frightened near Greenville and ran off with his buggy, and Mr. Smith and his wife, who were | BOOTS in it at the time, were thrown out. Mrs. S. received a very sovere wound on the new; Mr. Smith is considerably in THE ALLEGREN NORT WATCH -- The police " force"

Allegheny Cite, for the protection of the city at night, constating of four men, has been abolished by the Police Comin this section. A youth, a son of G. M. Hubbert, Esq., of mittee of the Allegheny Councils. In conversations with this county, had been for several months under the care of rome of the prominent citizens of Allegheny we were our best practitioners without relief, and the case reported pleased to learn that they propose to effect by private endoubtful, and the young man although scarcely able to get terprise what they cannot through their representatives in about, commenced with the Bitters. He found so much relief from the first bottle, he continued to take, until a comraised from private subscription. We are glad to see the citizens of Alloghony so watchful of their interests. It is singular the ticity has teen so long without a night watch. Its population is at least one-third as much as the of Pittsburgh, and yet, while this city has a night police averaging four men to each ward, the residents of Atlawhere are without one, and are left at the mercy of thieve and vagabonds of every description. We hope this landsde enterprise may be carried out, and that this action of the part of the people will demonstrate to the authorities of the city the necessity of affording protection to the lives and proper of their citizens.

THE TEA PARTY THIS EVENING.—We know of no charity it this city more deserving than the Mercy Hospital. Since its establishment much suffering has been relieved by it. But t costs something to maintain it, and this most be done by the contributions of the charitable. In calling upon our itizens for contributions towards this institution, its maingors have always endeavored to combine recreation with be evolence. Following up this system the Catholic ladies of the city have been making extensive arrangements for Ten Party." to be held at Lafavette Hall this evening, to the benefit of this hospital. We hope it may be a success The many friends of this noble charity will doubtless exer cise their usual liberality, and to those who desire to while way an hour agreeably and at the same time assist in the relief of the distressed, we would carnestly say, "go there and do likewise." __--FOSTER'S NATIONAL THEATRE. - A fair audience was presult last evening at this establishment, and Schiller's great to gedy of "The Robbers" was well performed. Mr. Keebl an actor of considerable talents, and personated the rollber chiefaln to the life. Bailey as the Count, Julia M. Cooke as Amelia, Young as Speigelberg, all did very well, as did also Mr. Bascom as Roller. Mr. Maginley, an old Pitts ourgher, has improved much during an absence of several cars, and appeared to advantage as Switzer. At the close of the piece, Mr. Keeble was called before the curtain, and made a short speech, tha sking the audience for their kind reception of him on his first appearance. This evening, Mr. J. H. Hackett, the world renowned comedian, appears in his unapproachable character of falstaff, in King Henry IV. We feel certain that the house will be crowded on this occasion, and during the four nights

e remains. A RUNAWAY.-Yesterday morning about ten o'clock, a genecond a andlen is: broke an axle and one of the fro mimal had his own way. Ho ran up Market street to the Diamond, whole he was stopped by the bystandeca. During this race the gentleman and his family were in a dangeronprodicament, but they were rescued without receiving the COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

THE SHADES .- Mr. D. Burnard, late of the Barnard House Courth street, has rented and fitted up in excellent style the large centre room in Od! Follows Hall, under Foster's New National Theatre, as a saloon and resistirant, where he will be happy to see the "smiling" faces of all his o d riends, and the public generally. No man in the city is setter calculated to keep a good, orderly establishment of this kind than Dan Barnar. He has experience, courfess. manner, and is always ready to accommed to. Although he has gone to "The Shudes," we hope his "shadow may never grow lear." SALES OF STOCKS .- The foll owing stocks were rold but eve ting at the Commercial Sales Rooms, No. 54 Fefth street P. M. Davis, Auctioneer:--17 shares Bank of Pittsburgh. Mor. sud Man. Bank....

LCCAL LIGISLATION.—Gov. Packer has announced to the egislature that he has signed and approved the following bills passed by that cody:--An act providing for the completion of the Coal Mill and paring to have the whacf. Several pair of coal basts started out yesterday afternoon. The Allegheny is stall rising, and considerable quantities of lumber are coming down. A greater portion of it is stopping here than at the best rise; it was then meanly taken to Cincinnati and at ECN OVER.—A middle agod lady, whose name we did not afternoon. She attempted to cross the street in front of a pair of horses attached to a wagon, when she was knocked down and run over. She escaped without injury, with the exception of a fow bruises on the arm and side. Mgan.-A young lady of this city paid a visit to the city of Allegheny on Monday, and while standing in a store on Federal street, some sneaking scoundrel came up behind her and cut and mutilated a valuable brochs shawl which she had on, so badly as to render it entirely worthiers What motive could the miscreant have in view in commit ting this dastardly outrage?

Dedication.—A new l'restriction church has just beempleted at Sharpsburg. It is said to be a very neat street fore, finished in a plain but handsome style. This edificwill be dedicated to the worship of "the living God" on next Sunday week. Several ministers of this city have been invited and are expected to be present.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.—There was no criminal business befo the Mayor yesterday be ond the usual watch house case in the morning, only nine in number. Five victims were sent to jull, three paid their fines, varying from one to ten dollars, and one was discharged. In the afternoon the Mayor was engaged in taking depositions in civil cases otherwise his office would have been a sinecure. Dull.-Yesterday was emphatically a dull day-Mayor's office, Courts, Aldermen's offices, jail—all quiet. Items not to be found anywhere—though it is useless for us to sa sis; our columns attest it. OARNAGHAN'S CUSTOM DEPARTMENT.—Carnaghan, Alleghens city, who has bid the foundation of a heavy trade in Ready Made Clothing, appears to be no less successful in his custom department. To this branch he pays special attention, by keeping on hand the latest styles of flue picce goods for both in n's and boys' wear, and having his cutting executed with great taste and skill. He furnishes a good article at a reasonable price, by keeping a fine grade of goods, and selling for each. Buyers will do we'll to examine his stock and
