Hemicide at Port Perry. On Tussday morning, a man named Frederick Haser, a resident of Port Perry, appeared before Mayor Weaver, and made information against John King, Isaac Anderson, Frank Dawson, Jefferson Grady, Washington Lowis, Michael Hur y and others, charging them with riot, assault and battery, and homicide. The circumstances of the effair are about ssembled at his beer house, when they became noisy, and he told them they could have no more beer, whereupon they left the house; but they soon efterwards returned and commenced an attack on the house with stones, bricks and other missiles, breaking the windows. A man named Donnis Newl. who was in the house, went outside, but was immediately knocked down. A young German, named August Tilinson, who bearded in Nasor's house, went out to assist him, when he was struck with a brick and knocked down After about wound was dressed and he wout to bed; for some days he complained very much of his head until last Tuesday morning, when he died. No physician was called in during his

Dr. W.J. Lyan effirmed—Last evening, after dark, I was called on by the Geroner to appear at the house of Frederick Naser; he wished me to examine the body of Tilmann; he said the jury had taken action. I removed the scalp and found a wound through the integuments two isches lone, nearly diagonal, dark on its edges, and much swol en; the smell of the wound was very offensive. Removed the skull over the hoision, and passed in a probe; found the suture knocked apart; enwed out a triangular piece of the skull, and found it fractured; gangrene had taken place, and the discharge, upon removing the piece of skull, was very offensive; I found no other marks upon the man. There were two incisions on the frontal bone, which might have been made with the corner of a brick; in my opinion the wound was the cause of his death, trom the fact that medical assistance had not been called in: the man's life might have been saved by tropanning.
