LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Country Items. Mr. Daily, a superintendent at the Gibson Mills, near Bellevernon, fell through the hatchway of the main building from the third story to the ground floor, last week, and was so seriously it jured that he died in a short time. He was ecently from Philadelphia, and left a family.

Two young men named James Storer and Abner Bean, living in the town of Elizabeth, were coming to this city on a boat some two weeks since, when they got to wrestling, and Storer threw Bean down with such force as to injure him uternally. Bean was taken home, where he lingered until last Friday, when he died. No blame attaches to Storer; as he and Bean were wrestling for amusement, and the injury as entirely accidental.

A charter election was hold in the borough of Washington n last Monday, which resulted in the election of the following officers: Burgesses, James W. Kuntz and James Rush; Councilmen, Jacob Goldsmith, David Wolf, John Prigg, N. F. Brobst and W. H. Stoy: Auditor, Adam C. Merrow; High Constable, John Ruth; School Directors, John Harter and John S. THN NEW NATIONAL.—Hackett made his appearance last night as Sir John Falstaff, in Shakespeare's laughter-mov ing comedy of the "Morry Wives of Windsor." The heare was kept in motion throughout the evening by the inlimit

This evening Mr. Hackett appears for the fourth and last er. The audience was a large and fashionable one. ime, on which occasion ho will repeat his representation o 'lean Jack" in King Honry IV. We hope to see the house filled completely on this occasion. It is seldom we have an opportunity of witnessing Hackett's performances, and those who desire to see him should avail thomselves of the

The house was completely fieled, which was not expected, from the fact that it was a repetition of a concert given in the same building on Toursda night. The audience present was highly delighted. DRY-Yesterday there was a most remarkable dearth of local news. We heard of nothing of general interest i either city, or any of the adjoining boroughs.
