The play was the sterling hakspearian tragedy of "Richard III," and we have selder sen it better cast. Mr. Bennett's personation of the humphacked tyract" was fine in every particular. With s excellent voice and good stage action he combines the care quality of faultless reading, the whole together prolucing the finest representation of the character we have son since the days of the elder Booth. He was well an

torted by Mr. Keeble as the Earl of Richmond, Julia M doke as Lady Anne, Mr. Bascom as Tressel, and Mr. Ashmer is the Duke of Buckingham. The audience manifeste heir approval of the performance by repeated cheecs. To-night the great historical tragedy of "King John" ill be presented. When well put upon the stage, the enic effect of this piece is grand, and dov. MORE STOLEN PROPERTY RECOVERED .- The gentleman at rested on Friday afternoon, who gave his name as J. B. Smith had several other aliases. He seems to have been an old hand at the business. On Saturday morning a copy of the United States Gazetteer was taken to the Mayor's Office, | Men, Boys and Youth's which he had presented to a physician. Inside of it was inscribed "A present from patient B." It has doubtless been ossession calling for a coat at Beauley's pawn office, which proved to be the property of a gentleman at one of the principal hotels. It had been stolen from him about two weeks since. The book is at the Mayor's Office awai,ing identification. In his pockets were found some tickets containing the numbers of houses. That Shooting Match. - The preliminaries of the shoot ing match so long talked of, between Daniel Armstrong, of Pittsburgh, and Capt. George W. Nisely, of Waynesburg. dreene county, were agreed upon last Saturday. The cou ditions of the match are as follows: Capt. Nisely and Mr. Armstrong are each to select three gentlemen to shoot in the city of Pittsburgh on the 17th day of June next. The dred yards-fair off-hand shooting-each man to have seven party is to select a judge, and the two judges are to choose an umpire. A forfeit of twenty-five dollars has been deposit d by each party with Col. Samuel Hare, of this city, which is to be forfeited by the party falling to comply with the conditions.

Gipsies.—For some time past, a party of gipsies has been encamped near Oakland. On Saturday night they came to the city for a bit of a spree, and took up their quarters at the Bulls Head Tavern, on Second street, where they became quite noisy and disorderly. The night watch made a descent upon them, when they took to their horses and attempted to escape, one of them riding over a watchman. Three of. the wanderers, Henry Small, John Brier and John Harrison were arrested, locked up in the tombs, and yesterday morning they were fined three dollars, each, which they paid Office of Sealer of Weights and They seemed to have pleuty of money, one of them had $75 with him, and another $90.

Honor to the Brave .- Capt. John F. Hutchinson, commander of Fort Jackson, in the Ninth Ward, was committed to jail by the Mayor on Saturday morning. On Friday morning, some festivities were going on at his fort, which proved rather annoying to some of his neighbors. The night watch was called, and after some resistance on the part of the Captain, arrested the party, and conveyed them to the watch house. In the morning, the Captain was sent up for thirty days.

SANYORD'S OPERA TROUPE.-This company, whose coming nas been so long heralded, make their first appearance before a Pittsburgh audience this evening at Masonic Hall. FATENTED IN 1856. THE UNDERSIGNED IS PREPARED TO COVER AND REPAIR ALL KINDS OF The Onderson His Preparation is adapted for all kinds of Roo's, flat or steep; it can also be applied on its free, or Od Sanagles, making a perfect job. This composition is not affected by atmospheric changes; it will neither crack nor run; it is impervious to water; FIRE PROOF and more durable than any other kind of Roofing. This roofing material is used in vas—quantities throughout the United States, on Houses, Bridges, Rolling Mills, Raihoad Cars, and Steambeats, giving entire satisfaction, and is considered a perfect protection from the elements. Although this roofing was only introduced here in 1850, it can be seen on many of the buildings in the city. Also, on most of the Rollroads. I here refer to a few places where this Reofing is in use, and can be seen.—Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad; at Belle Air; Bridgeport; Martineville; Portland; Lagrange; Steubenville; McCoy's. Wellaville; Liverpool and Rochester Stations, and the Manchester Depot; Pennsylvania Central Railroad; Spruce Creek Asteria Station, Mill at Tipton and Parsonage at Altoona; Allogheny City, Westminster College, and mean chest Buildings; Pittsburgh, J McCully's Warehouse; Ben Trimble's Hotel; also, numerous others in this city.

All orders left at No. 247 LIBERTY STREET, PITTSBURGH, (where samples of the material can be seen,) will receive prompt attention, by W. F. FAHNESTOCK, Agent.
