In Sweden it is the custom to take off the hat when acknowledging a salute. King Oscar once said to a gentleman who was commiserating him for being obliged to keep his hat off the whole length of Drottinggatan in a violent snow storm. "You are quiet right, it was exceedingly disagreeable, and it could not help wishing that instead of being King of Sweden, I was the King of Thibet, where, according to Hue, the polite salution is simply to stick out to your tongue."

Two young Trishman happened to get into Three poor boxes extu, 9x1z and 10x1z, an affrey, in which one of them was knocked down. His comrade ran up to him, and cried-out, "Zounds, Dennis, if you be dead can't you spake?"
