LANCASTER, April 80, 1938. Respected Sir :- I have been for a long series of years of flicted with Dyspensia, Inactivity of the Liver, and Nerv. as Debility. My montal powers have been so reduced as to render me quite unfit for the transaction of any kind of business. After consulting meny eminent physicians, and using their prescriptions, and after using the most popular remedies of the day, supposed to be applicable to my case, I always failed to have a permanent relief. A friend, with much persuation, induced me to try a bottle of your celebraed Bitters. I have used one bottle, and this day commence the second. I can, with cheerfulness, state that it has happily improved me. My appetite and spirits have autopishngly improved, and I begin to fiel as though I had grown (suddenly) ten years younger; and really, I am aimout prepared to say that I now consider myself calculated for any Jusiness, while, ten days ago, I would as soon have under aken to "square the circle," as to have attempted it.

We anticipate a crowded house at this establishment this evening, as Maggie is a great favorite in Patternargh. She drew good houses luring for last engage ment here, and can do so again

FAVAL ACCIDENT.—A little boy about five y are of age, son f a German named John Feudam, who keeps a distillery on Liberty street, in the Mith ward, was killed about three clock on Saturday afternoon, in the following manner: He was playing with a number of children of the same age, lef re his father's door, while a freight train was coming attention. down the street, and attempted to cross in front of it, when he was struck by the bumper of the locomotive, thrown across the track and literally cut in two. His father, seeing him in danger, took hold of his arm, but too late to save him; he too was struck in the side by the engine, and came near losing his life. A VALUABLE WORK .- Mr. J. B D. Clark, No. 4 Girard House, will call ou our citizens to-day with an invaluable work entitled "The Laws of Business for Business Men," by Theopholus Parsons, L. D. D., Professor of Law at Cambridge University. It contains forms for mercantile instruments, leases, wills, d.eds, &c. It contains the enactments of the different States relative to considerations, personal property. frauds, notes and bills of exchange, agency, partnership, limitation, arbitration, and other necessary information for the business man. It is a work which should be in the library of every merchant, and as the price is low, its cost would be saved in a short time. The Ethicplans.—The management of the old Pittsburgh Theatre, encouraged by the immense access of the min' strel troupe last week, have re-engaged them for six nights more. They will appear this evening with an entirely new programme, and we have no doubt they will continue to fill the Theatre throughout the week, as this kind of amusement does not seem to cleg on a littleburgh public. The Matines on Saturdsy afternoon for the benefit of the little nes was finely attended by our best families, and it was pleasant to observe the animation of their countenances and the manifest enjoyment they felt. The house was also well filled in the evening. This evening, between seven and eight o'clock, a fine band of music will perform in front of the Theatre in honor of the great success which has attended the engagement of this incomparable troupe of minstrels.

DEGWNED .- A little boy, between six and seven years of gneny river between one and two c'clock on Saturday afterneen. He was p'aying on a pile of beards which projected over the river, when he fell off into the water. He was in the water about ten minutes, when he was taken out, and for two or three hours every means was tried to resuecitate him, but to no purpose. His father is a hard-working German, residing on Etna street, and is employed as warehouse.
