As may be imagined, the more sensitive of these maltreated creatures are thus rendered very miserable, even entreating for prison, in some erected in front of the Capitol in Harrisburg, instances, to put an end to their existence voll as that of their cruel masters. It is well known that, while Oriental women are taught to believe that they have no souls, they are impresel with the idea that their husbands will reve in delight in the bowers of paradise, where each will have a hareem of any number of black-eyed houris, varying from seventy to seventy thousand, to administer to his happines. But, notwithstanding that, these depraved creatures are very religious, as far as bodily exercise goes. strictly observing their many fasts and festivals, and devoting much of their time in prayer. And their prayers, although so complicated, lengthy and fatiguing, are not confined to their mosques or their homes; but, whether visiting or on any excursion of pieasure, they no sooner bear the sonorous voice of the muezzim, than their gir dies, sheets or mats are spread, their faces, arm hands and less bared, and they commence the intricate process of prayer. Not twice or thris a day, but five times do these deluded organize go through their genuflexions and prostration thus setting us so example, which, if imitated but a limited extent, would prove a blessing in only to ourselves, but reflexly to them. One day we had a visit from several of the reems of the nobing, numbering twenty beliand half as many sleves, and although away fr home, they sent their slaves to the well for water orformed their absorbins, and each one hamo developer the cry of the muezzim, develot prayed. Of course, their wells and sheets were hald aside, and I was not little amazed at th great commotion made by the sudden entrance with uncovered faces. The slaves set up a lonscream, and terror struck, ran in every direction themselves, it was actually distressing to hear their piercing cries-and such was their effect on the unfortunate intruder, that he had made a precipitate retreat, amid showts of "Roohee! roohee!"-away! away! Gratitude is one of their redeeming qualities What will the ungrateful lady of the Occident think of her Oriental sisters abasing themselves to kiss the feet of a dispenser of medicines, to show their appreciation of some slight medical services he may have rendered them? I have seen a lady of the upper circle of Jerusalem so ciety struggling to perform this humiliating act, all this, too, in spice of an uncultivated mind and soul. The education of Oriental women is not only entirely neglected, but strongly reproduted by public sentiment-almost the sole arbiter of manners and oustoms in that country, if not in this. Indeed, must this not necessarily result from the contempt and servitude in which she is held? Among rich and poor, in the family of the Effendi and the Fellah, she is slike ignovent. Her accomplishments consist in being able to cook, arrange her turban tastefully, and administer to every whim of her doting husband. Olious as he must too often be,
