Terrible Accident in the Jail. she would have been crushed to a jelly on the stone floor below. It was very carrently reported in the prison that, al hough a common vagrant, she was possessed of considerbie property, and that she had some fifteen thousand dollars at interest in one of the city banks. She made a statement to this effect to the County Commissioners after her eccident. Whether it is true or not, remains to be seen ; if , the county will be indemnified for the expense incurred n keeping her in jail as a vagrant. - Since the above was in type, a legal investigation be en made into the circumstances attending the accident, by Alderman Lewis and the County Commissioners. It ms that the old woman was very anneying, and on Sat urday morning she had visited several cells importunite the prisoners for a match. On arriving at the cell in which Lizzie M'Oreary, known as "Puss Lee," was, with others. "Puss" gave her a push from the door, and she, being very feeble, fell over. There seems to have been no intention of serious violence, but a commitment has been lodged against the girl for further bearing. A further examination proves that she is not so seriously mjured as was at first supposed—the spine is not injured cospital, and there is a probability of her recovery. ______ FATAL RAILBOAD ACCIDENT .- Mr. John Peebles, formerly a esident of this city, rost with an accident at Lima, Allencounty, Onio, on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, on Friday evening. After a consultation with Mr. Solden, his counsel a unced that he thought he could not, in justice to himself,

A terrible, and most probably fatal, accident occurred in the county jail on Saturday morning. An aged woman simed Mary Ann Shaw, who was confined there for vagrancy, was leaning on the railing of the third corridor, which is allotted to the females, when, by some means, he feet slipped from under her, and she fell through to the ond tior of cells. Her head struck against the railing with such force as to break the heavy oak railing and snap off one of the cast iron posts which support it. Her head was badly cut and her spine dislocated. Her right knee also struck against the stone floor, breaking the knee pan and crushing the bones. Dr. Baldwin, the jail physician, was immediately called, and dressed her wounds. He is of merops certificates which are daily received, in their favor, opinion that they will prove fatal. She has been a frequent show conclusively that they are the greatest and most reliainmate of the jail recently, and is very fifthy in her habits | ble preparation of the kind ever introduced to the public and person.
