HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The bill to regulate the municipal elections in Washington gave rise to an animated debate, during which Mr. Davis, of Md., said that the President, the Mayor and other municipal officers were vicious, corrupt, and utilt for the places they hold. The floating temporary government vote elected them. He vindicated the Americans and denounced the calling out of the marines at the last June election. and the consequent bloodshed. Mr. Burnett replied it was notorious that the reign of terror prevailed here at that time, owing to the arrival of rowdies from Baltimore, armed with deadly weapons. > since a number of counterfeit ten dollar bills on the bank of Ironton, Ohio, were passed on several merchants on Federal street, Allegheny City. About the same time a young girl called at the millinery shop of a Miss Grubs, on Water street, near the Allegheny post effice, and purchased a bonnet, for which she gave in payment a note of the above mentioned character, receiving in change seven dollars in good money. After the girl had gone out, Miss G. asceryoung girl called at the millinery shop of a Miss Grube, on good money. After the girl had gone out, Miss G. ascertained that the bill was not genuine, but she did not know! Have been careful of one or the other of the above allment. This is the best proof of its chicacy: the girl, and had no clue to her whereabouts. On last Sunday, however, she saw the bonnet on the street, worn by the same person to whom she had sold it. On inquiry she found that her name was Nancy M'Clain, and yesterday morning Nancy was sent for and taken before Mayor Stuckrath. On bring questioned about the note she appeared a good deal confused, and made contradictory statements as to the manner in which she came in possession of it. From her manner it was believed that she knew that the oill was counterfeit when she passed it. The milliner, Miss Grubs, however, refused to prosecute her, and she was

A PLIPPERY CUSTOMER.—A reward of one hundred dollars is effered for the apprehension of a man named W. H. Yeung dias Hukins, who escaped from the mail train on the Pitts burgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad at two o'clock on Saturday morning, three miles east of Alliance. Young was engaged in some swindling operations in Philadelphia some months since, was pursued by the police and managed to nized him in this city, and our police officers were put on his track, but he give them the slip. Some three months after e left Pittsburgh, he was arrested and confined in the St. Louis station house, but by some hocus pocus effected a escape. About ten days ago he was re-captured, and at the time of his escape was being conveyed to Philadelphia to stand a trial. The officer who had him in charge is said to have gone to sleep, when Young took advantage of the cirumstance and got off the train. A SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHER IN TROUBLE -A city ordinance of Allegheny imposes a fine of from one to five dollars or. persons for congregating in the neighborhood of churches and other public places, obstructing the sidewalk, and on oving passers by females especially. Numerous complaints have recently been made of a crowd of men and boys who assemble near the Braver street church. On Sunday morning, High Constable Wills, learning that they were again "... nuty," visited the spot, and ordered them to disperse, which they did, with the exception of one young man, who, the officer states, was very insolent towards bim, and at first refused to go. He stated that he was a teacher in the school; and as such had a right to stand about as much as he pleased. Yesterday morning he was arrested and taken be OP: MA TIKE, ETC | fore Mayor Stuckrath, who, after an investigation of the cir cumstances, fined him one dollar under the ordinance.

VIOLATING THE SUNDAY LAW —Two individuals, proprietors of a drinking saloon on the corner of Elm and Prespect streets, with the immortal title of the "Pig and Whistle," were before Mayer Weaver yesterday, charged with violating the ordinance relative to the sale of intoxicating liquors on Sunday. The police had picked up a man named M'Elhinny, rather the worse for his potations, who, upon being closely questioned, acknowledged that he nad procured the liquids which brought him to that condition at the house above stated, whereupon they were arrested. John declared he had purchased sundry drinks, and in evidence produced a counterfeit bill, which he said he had got in change. The two parties accused were fined five dollars and costs for selling liquor on Sunday, and held to bail for passing counter-

THE RELIEF OF LUCKNOW.—There was a good audien coat Feater's National last evening, on the eccasion of the first representation of the drama, written expressly for Miss Maggio Mitchell, by James Pilgrim, Esq, entitled "Jestio Brown, or the Relief of Lucknow." As a dramatic produc tion, the piece has considerable merit, the incidents are well incorporated into the piece. Miss Mitchell performs the leading character in the play well, and with considerable success. The manner in which this piece is put on the stagaffects great credit on the managerial capacities of Gev coster, the scenery is good, and the stage effects are well studied and executed. The piece will be repeated again this vening, and will, if we mistake not, have a successful 'run" on the boards of the National.
