Conneil adjourne i. ARREST OF AN ALLIGED HORSE THIEF .- On Funday evening last a man named Noah Stitt, residing in Armstrong county. fore miles from Warren lost a dark sorrel horse, valued at one hundred dollars. He suspected a man named John Davis of stealing the animal, and getting on the track of him, tollowed him to this city, where he arrived yesterday morning. He proce ded at once to the Mayor's office, where he gave information of the facts, when a posse of police was sent out in search of him, and succeeded in capturing him in Duquesne coro gh. He had the horse in his possession when arrested. Mr. stitt was aware of a tailor shep in War ren having been rebbed on Saturday night, and on opening a bundle which Lavis had with him, six or seven tairs of trante and other articles of clothing were found in it, which are supposed to have been the proceeds of this robbery. He was committed to jail, where he will be obliged to remain until his trial, as horse stealing is an effeuse not bailable by BENEFIT OF JOHNNY PELL,-Where all the performers ar so good as they are in the company of minstrels now perform ng at the old Theatre, it is difficult to make a distinction and say with is the best. But we think that we risk nothing in saying that Johnny Pell is the best delineator of negro character in the company. This evening Johnny takes a benefit, and we advise every one fond of pure fun to go by all means. The hill is a good one, combining a number of novelties, including one or two new dances by Sliter, and an extravaganza called " Lucy at the Soiree," In which Johany Pell, Lon Morris and Dick Sliter will sustain the characters. In addition to the other attractions, Dick will introduce his trained dog. Altogether, this is the richest programme of the season, and we shall be surprized if Johnny does not draw a crowded house.

The Trained Docs.—Mesers. Cony and Turner, with their trained dogs, drew a fair audience at the new National las evening. The performances of the two dogs, Bruin and Cato, are truly wonderful. This evening the exciting melo drama of the " Forest of Boudy, or the Dog of Montargis," will be presented, in which the dog Bruin represents the Bragon. The drama of "Jocko, the Brazilian Ape," will also be performed, in which Mr. Cony, as Jocko, will make an ascent from the second tier to the dome of the Theatre, and then descend to the parquette, head downwards, on a single rope. The management announce the engagement of Mr. and Mrs. Florence, who will appear soon.

Disposed Op.—The confidence men whose arrest we no nced yesterday morning have been discharged by Mayor Weaver. Wangeman and Walker both lived at such a distance that they could not be here to prosecute, and it was not thought advisable to subject the county to expenses by keeping them in jail. They were obliged to deposit with the Mayor a sufficient amount of money to reimburse Waugeman and Walker, and pay all costs. Then, after having their pictures taken to leave here as a remembrancer, they were allowed to depart, with the understanding that they should leave the city forthwith.

SURETY OF THE PEACE. -Two suits for surety of the peace were entered against a woman named Josephine Thompson or Hall, residing in Cherry alley, in the Third Ward. One of the complaints was made by Nancy King, who swear that Josephine has at various times made throats against her daughter Martha, and that she is fearful of the life of her daughter. Mary Haney swore that she had also threatened her. Josephine was held to bail in the sum of fifty dollars on each charge. She declares that the charge is "spite work," she having sued the above parties for selling liquor and keeping a disorderly house.

The attention of capitalists and others seeking a safe and profitable investment, we would direct to the sale to-morrow evening, at the Commercial Sales Rooms, No. 54 Fifth street, of the preferred stock in the Birmingham and Pitts largest stock of than fills and French Lace Martillas in the city.
