THE KNOW-NOTHING CONVENTION. is generally supposed there are quite a respeciable number, must feel very cheap when they look at the ticket nominated by the Con that has just been brought out at the Long Isvention on Wednesday. The dark lantern land Course. He caght to be a spirited steed was decidedly in the ascendant, and all the old-liners of the party have been compelled to Indiana Legislature, there were grave charges of give way to Know-Nothingism in one shape bribery and corruption, preferred by certainper ond March, one thousand seven hundred and or another. Even the transparent bid for sons and presses sgainst members of tast hon- twenty-three, entitled, "an act to reduce the the German vote, in nominating Mr. Z dler for the Legislature, was a say neight arrangement. The whole thing is decidedly rich, so far as so-called Republicanism is concerned. The Gazette and the Journal, the organs of the dominant party as has been generally supposed, must yield the palm to the Dispatch, whose advertising columns apparently wield a more potent influence in the mongrel party, than their elaborate editorials and most patriotic appeals. We feel deeply-very deeply-for the Republicans. It was Henry D. E Johnson, for seduction of plaintiff's a shame to give Know-Nothingism every daughter, resulted in a verdict of $3,400 fe thing, or at least all that is supposed to pay. The high personal character, the well-known talent, and the peculiar adaptedness for publie service of such men as Loomis, and Robinson, and Darsie, availed them nothing. Their merits paled in the rays of the darklantern. It was no use trying-they must aid in supporting a party which will not return favor for favor. The Republicans are sold, and they feel it and know it. In the old Whig and Anti-Masonic times, such an utter disregard of fairness in the distribution of the offices as was made by the Convention yesterday, would have brought a third party into the field; but the spirit of former days has departed, and those who have borne the burthen and heat of the day are existing among us, co-extensive with the repub compelled to "stand back like bound boys at lie, everywhere asserting and maintaining the a husking." This is the appearance of things in the camp of the opposition to us Demo eratic outsiders, and we are pleased at it The eyes of many who have heretofore acted with the conglomerate party will be opened after a while. The Germans will not be blinded by the barefaced attempt to how wink them with Mr. Zoller, and all those wh have supposed that they stood upon an equal footing in the party with those who had joined | spinls, seems to have become the ruling passithe secret cabals of pseudo Americanism, will complexion of affairs, and sincerely congratulate our REPUBLICAN friends upon the results of their nominations. Barring their politics there are some good men on the ticket. but where are the Republicans? "Young Sain" shows his finger marks on every ballot

The Convention did not get through with its business until cleven o'clock, and as the sacrificed Republicans wended their way homeward, curses loud and deep were heard on all sides. We heard more than one delegate to the Convention swear most solemnly NOT TO SUPPORT THE TICKET, and they were the kind of men who mean what they say, The people, when they come to see the way that Sam has "fixed things," will be greater fools than we take them to be, if they swallow all the bitter pills which the wireworkers have tendered them. The dose is too nauseating, in many respects, for even the strong stomachs of Black Republicanism. There are many of the old citizens of the county who have hitherto acted with the bybrid party, in whom the instincts of manhood are stronger than the frail bonds which bind them to an organization which uses them when necessary, but when pay time comes the assets don't reach the liabilities. Indeed, we are very, very sorry for the Republicans.

The compliment of Mr. Loomis, of electing him a delegate to the State Convention at Harrisburg, cannot fail to be keenly appres ciated by his friends. Some good Republi cans may be able to appreciate the wit of the arrangement, but to others it may wear the appearance of adding insult to injury.

Arrived at Home. The American Consul at Hong Kong, Gen James Keenan, reached his home, in Greensburgh, on Monday night last, after an ab sence of over four years in China. He is in fine health, and although at times his employment in the service of his country has been a difficult and hazardous one, he has enjoyed his visit to the land of the Celestials. It i his intention to remain for some months in this country, after which he will return to China and resume his official duties.

Official Corruption in lows. At the late session of the Legislature Iowa, a special committee was appointed t investigate alleged frauds in the location of the capital at Des Moines. Before this committee, evidence was given, showing that the black republican commissioners who had charge of the location, received in the way of bribes more than fifty thousand dollars' worth of property. Certain witnesses refus ed to testify to most important points in the investigation, and though the committee reported them as contumacious, the black republican House neglected or refused to com- cured. pel them to to testify-thus attempting to throw a cloak over the villainy of the com-

THE NEW PARTY.

The construction of a new party is a favorto scheme of politicians who have failed in retting the old parties to appreciate their merits. The following schedule of principles has been promulged in various parts of the ountry as a "feeler," to see whether a new party would be a popular movement. charge originated with the Republicana, for political purposes. The debate was further continued. The House resumed the consideration of the Fort dling report. Mr. Clark, of New York, differed from the concluions of both the majority and minority reports. There was not the slightest ground for impeaching he personal or official integrity of the Secretary of War, but the management of the sale was injudicious and improper. He believed it was probable or possible that there was an entire want of authority for and Benjamin supported the amendment.

Mr. Fessenden, of Maine, moved to amend that the the circumstances attending it. In the course of his remarks, Mr. Clark said that certain actions were brought some years since against the collectors and other federal officers in New York, and Mr. McKeon, ders or general instructions, appeared and took men-then District Attorney, in pursuance of special orsures for their defense, while the actions were pending. Mr. McKeon was supercoded by Mr. Sedgwick, | tour stamps and get 80 pages particulars, gratis.

EPHRAIM BBOWN, Lewell, Mass. hence arose the questions make by the Secretary the Treasury to the Attorney General, who has decided, First. That the District Attorney cannot in any case charge more for his services than the lee ppropriate $54,000 for the improvement of St. Clair | bill expressly allows bim to receive. Second. That when a ministerial or other officer is sued for an act done in the lawful discharge of his duty, the gov-Ar. Slideil changed his vote to ayo, thus acquiring ernment who employed him is bound to stand be tween him and the consequence, if at the request of the government it is to pay such a sum as may be agreed upon. If the act has been done in bad faith hen the officer is to take care of himself. Third. It is for the Secretary of the Treasury, in his discre tion, to decide whether the outgoing attorney shall cease all communications with the pending suits against the sollectors; where cases have been prepared by the late Attorney, it is better to employ him > as an assistant. Mr. Smith, of Illinois, said that when he offered the resolution of inquiry on which this report wa made, he disclaimed any charge of fraud or corrup-tion against any one. He did not now believe tha the Secretary acted corruptly or dishonestly, but that he was deceived and unfortunate in the selection an agent to effect the sale. Mr. Barksdale, of Mississippi, appealed to the House, in view of the short time remaining of the session, to vote on the matter at once. He presumed that every member had made up his mind. He then moved the previous question, which was seconded. Mr. Pettit, of Indiana, closed the debate. contended that the sale could not be justified by aw, usage, practice or morals, and that the ac throughout was wrong. He defended the report he majority. From Washington. WASHINGTON CITY, June 2.—The New York Her ald's Washington correspondent says it is stated here that reliable information has been received that British cruiser had fired into an American vessel and that one man was killed. The occurrence said to have taken place off Peesacola. It is furthermore stated that the United States steamer Fult had gone to chase after the cruiser. The New York Times' Washington corresponde says considerable unpasiness is felt at the British arbassy, lest a collission should occur in the Gui between the English and American war vessels b fore the British Admiral receives Lord Napier's despatches, which he has requested to be sent in a spe cial steamer from Halifax to Bermuda.

Rumors have been current here for two or three days, of a collision having occurred between the U. S. steamer Fulton and British steamer Styx. It was believed to be entirely false from the first, and noth ing has been received from the South by the Govern ment or for the press to give any grounds for th

It will also remove all pimples from the face and skin. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative will do all this, s'e circular and the following:

ANN ARBOR, November 5, 1856. he wonderful effects of your Hair Restorative, but having been so often cheated by quackery and quack no trums, bair dyes, &c., I was disposed to place your Restorative in the same category with the thousand and one loudly trumstate and the same category with the thousand and one loudly trumstate in the same category. the same category with the thousand and one loudly trumpeted quack remedies, until I met you in 1 awrence county some month since, when you gave me such assurance as induced the trial of your Restorative in my family—first by my coal wife, whose hair had become very thin and entirely white, and before exhausting one of your large bortles, her hair was restored nearly to its original beautiful brown color, and had thickened and become beautiful and clossy upon, and outlied your the head; she continues to the true the part simply because of its hearthying of its upon this part of the part ee it, not simply because of its beautifying effects upon ie hair, but because of its healtbful influence upon the end and mind. Others of my family and riends are using head and mind. Others of my family and triends are using start kestorative, with the happiest effects; therefore, my skepticism and doubts in reterence to its character and value are entirely removed; and I can and do most containly and confidentially recommend its use by all who would have their hair restored from white or gray (by reason of sickness or ago,) to original color and beauty, and by all young persons wo would have their hair beautiful and glossy.

Very truly and gratefully yours,

SOLOMON MANN.

FRIND Wood: It was a long time after I saw you at Bissfield before I got the bottle of Restorative for which you gave me an order upon your agent in Detroit, and when I got it we concluded to try it on Mrs. Mann's hair, as the surest test of its power. It has done all that you assured me it would do; and others of my family and friends, having witnessed its effects, are now using and recommending its use to others as entitled to the highest consideration are desirated. aim for it.
Again, very respectfully and truly, yours,
SOLOMON MANN.

Carrie, Ill., June 28, 1852. I have used Prof. O. J. Wood's Hair Restorative, and have admired its wonderful effects. My hair was becoming, as I thought, prematurely gray, but by the use of his Restorative it has resumed its original color, and, I have no doubt, permanently so.
