The German Saengerband. The Saengerbund festivities are rapidly drawing to a close, and the Germans, and indeed many of our American citizens, seem to be enjoying themselves vastly. The early part of the day yesterday was occupied in the transaction of business. At three o'clock in the afternoon the contest for the prize for the best singers came off. Some eight clubs took part in the friendly emulation. A committee, consisting of Professor Schwab, Philip Rohn, of Philadelphia, and Henry Kleber, of our city, were appointed a committee to award the prize, a fine cilver goblet. The prize has not yet been awarded, but we understand that the Cleveland club will most probably carry it off. The concert was well attended, and all present seemed pleased

He also stated that some witnesses material to his case were now in the city, who would not be here a week hence. The Prosecuting Attorney stated that a material witness for the Commonwealth was absent in another State, and could not be got here in time for an immediate trial. The counsel agreed to hold a consultation and decide as to when the case shall be taken up.

MR. KEEBLS -Mr. Walter Keeble, who is playing his first meason here, comes before the public to-night for his first benefit. The bill offered is a good one, consisting of the "Corsican Brothers," in which he sustains the characters Louis and Fabian de Franchi, and the "Rake's Progress," in which he appears as Thomas Rakewell. He is an actor . considerable talent, and deserves a good benefit, and we hope To-morrow evening, Young-the fanny-and his estima

Gov. FOSTER'S BENEFIT.—The immense assemblage filled Foster's Theatre on Tuesday evening, demonstrates the fact that a good audience can be centred there, and we hope that an audience as large may great Governor Foster on the occasion of his benefit, on Monday evening next, in the Theatre which he has labored so hard to make worthy of the support of our sitizens. He is deserving of a fitting estimonial of regard for his untiring energy in our behalt, and we, with many of his friends, will feel disappointed the occasion is not one that will reflect credit on our citizens in showing that they are not ungrateful.

A Foor RACE.—A man named M'Carthy was arrested and taken before Alderman Lewis yesterday morning, charged with disorderly conduct, having made bold to tear the dress of a respectable lady passing down Fifth street, and otherwise misbehaving. The alderman imposed a fine of twentyfive dollars on him, which he was rather loth to pay, and to escape it, took to his heels and ran down Ross street. The officers and a crowd of boys followed him, and after a sharp chase he was captured and committed in default.

Ws have received our usual budget of papers from J. B D. Clarke, No. 4 Girard House. Among them we find Harper's, Ballon's and Frank Leslie's Pictorial, the latter superb number, the Waverly Magazine, Dollar Newspaper, Saturday Evening Post, New York Weekly, Flag of Our Union, and other valuable periodicals. Clarke is an enterpeiling dealer, and worthy of an extended patronage.

_____ JULIA M. COORE'S BENEFIT .- The audience in attendance at Foster's National last evening was good, and the fair beneficiary seemed to take another inspiration from it; indeed, we never saw her perform so well. After the first piece she presented the members of the row boat club owning the "Julia M. Cooke" with a splendid silk flag, accomon A. Shinn on the part of the club, who thanked her fo the gift in appropriate terms.

WIFE BEATING seems to be a favorite amusement in our sister city. Mayor Stuckrath had three men before him yesterday charged with this offense, of as many different countries-an Irishman, a German and an Englishman. They
