CAMP SUSQUEHANNA.

Gov. Packer, commander-in-chief of forces of Pennsylvania has ordered a Camp of Instruction, which, from present indications | The Kansas question is settled, and the most of we judge will be the greatest military gathering ever held in the State, at least, in time of peace. The proposed military gathering will sides, the "name of "Republican" has become take place in Williamsport, Lycoming county: and will be called "Camp Susquehanna." It Wilson on the subject will be found in our more than one-half of them attend, the display cannot fail to be a most magnificent | the political estate of those deceased parties i one. Such gatherings cannot fail to improve the military system of the State, and to render hose who take part in them better prepared for service in the field when their country may require such service.

In Alleghenny County there are a large number of well equipped and well drilled military companies. We hope that every one of them may make arrangements to be at Williamsport in September, and show their fellow-soldiers of Pennsylvania a "touch of at a ruinous shave; the securities deposited with

Benefit of J. C. Foster. To-night has been set apart for the benefit of J. C. Foster Fsq., who, for so many years has devoted his energies and means towards the amusement of the citizens. He is certainly entitled to an overflowing house for what he has recently accomplished, in having constructed a large and elegant first class theatre. The money which this theatre has cost for materials, labor, and decorations, has been expended among the mechanics and furnishing men of our city. Let this class recollect the fact, and be present to-night. The Odd Fellows also have a large interest in the beautiful ball which Mr. Foster has contributed to finish; and they, one and all should show their appreciation of what he has done, by attending his benefit to-night. And the citizens generally, who wish to see a well-conducted place of amusement sustained in the city, which is a bonefit to the place, should also encourage Mr. Foster's enterprise by their presence. Let his benefit tonight be a substantial one; it ought to be,

and we have no doubt that it will be.

Banking in Wisconson. The multiplication of banks in Wisconsin needs watching. The Central Wisconsin. published at Wausau, in Marathon County, cautions against several banks in that county. The banks named are the Tradesman's Bank, Marathon County Bank, State Security Bank, he Osborne Bank of Gemekon, and the Marathon City Bank. Besides these, the Bank of out of circulation The Marathon County Bank purports to be ocated at Eagle River, Marathon County. The Wisconsin says there is no such place in that county, and the bank has no place of doing husiness, nor agent nor office for the redemption of its bills in Marathon County. As to the Gemekor Band, the same paper says there is such a place as Gemekon in Marathon County, where the bank is professsedly located. There is also a place with that name near the northern boundary of the State at Eagle Lake. There the cashier of this bank has been carrying on a "logging business." The Wisconsin says: The best "bullion" the bank officers have to redeem their bills at Gemekon, is good pine saw logs; they are a lawful tender, however, in the pinery, and the bill holders of the other wild cat banks of Northeen Wisconen, will no doubt be glad some day to get even as good currency as pine logs for " rags.

The Osborne Bank of Gemekon professes o located at the place named. Of this bank the Wisconsin reports:

Hudson Bidwell of Beaver Dam Wisconsi appears to be the owner. The amount of capital stock is 40,000. The bank exists only in name. It has no banking office or place of business at Gemekon "logging shanties" any other place in Marathon County.

The New Office for the Pennsylvani Railroad Company. WASHINGTON CITY, June 10, 1858. The London Timer. We make the following extract relative to the "British Thunderer" from an interesting article, by Dr. R. Shelton McKenzie, upon English polities, which we find in the Press: Mr. John Walter, M. P., for the borough Times newspaper, holding nineteen shares out of the twenty-four into which that valuable publication is divided. The publisher, who is responsible for all libels, &c., has one share.

Mr. John Delane, the editor, has one share; and Mrs. Carden, mother of Sir Robert Carden, the present Lord Mayor of London has three shares. It is estimated that each proprietory share is worth over $10,000 a year, making the agreeable sum of $240,000 to $260,000, per annum out of all the shares Controller before there is a depreciation in the Mr. Walter's individual receipts from this source may be averaged at some $200,000

> Kidderminster, is the leading political writer n the Times. He is now 47 years old, and n many respects, rather a remarkable man His father is a country clergyman who could only give him a first rate education, at Wir hester school. He there won what is called an exhibition to University College, Oxford on the small emoluments of which, with assis tance from teaching ("coaching" is the regu lar Oxford phrase) idlers and dullards wh tears as to being able to graduate, he lived while he was an under graduate. At the de gree examination he came out first-class in lassics and second class in mathematics. This was very distinguished answering, and no doubt greatly influenced his success, in 183 when he was elected Fellow of Magdalen College. The emoluments are about $150 year, but he must have made twice as much nore soon after, when, having forseited his Fellowship by marriage, in 1836, he became a private tutor at Oxford, He became a barriste a 1842, and immediately after went to Austra ia, where he was made a member of the E ecutive Council in 1843, which office he retain ed until 1850, when he returned to England. He had the good fortune to obtain an engage ment on the Times, early in 1851, and soon became known as a very able and par icularly well-informed writer. In July 1852. Mr. Lowe succeeded in becoming M. I for Kidderminster, a small manufacturing town in Worcestershire, with fewer than five hundred electors. He was not quite new to legislative work, having represented Sydney, in the Australian Parliament, for two years. He spoke so well upon general politics, and with such clearness upon matters of trade and commerce, that, before he had been six months in Parliament, he was made Secretary and, in August, 1855, was advanced to the Vice Presidency of the Board of Trade. Mr. Walter, who owns a landed estate Berkshire, as well as nineteen shares in the Times newspaper, has long been ambitious of | and agricultural reports are satisfactory, and abun obtaining what is vulgarly denominated a handle to his name. Knighthood, which dies Considerable excitoment with him who receives it, is too fleeting a distinction to satisfy Mr. Walter's "vaulting am- Francisco for the mines. The advices are highly fa bition." It has long been understood in Brttish political circles, that both parties-Whig as well as Tory-have evaded compli ance with his desire to obtain a baronetcy. England to the coast of Cuba, and when far dent, &c. The one for the Treasurer fronts on But with this difference,—the Tories have hird street, and is 30 by 50 feet, and has been given him a point blank refusal, while the Whigs have held out glittering hopes, which, somehow or other, never blossom into matua rity. Lord John Russel thus temporized with him, and so has Lord Palmerston. At the present crisis, it is said that they have given him a distinct pledge, to be fulfilled whenever one or both shall resume office, as Premier. Thus, the support which the Times has given to the Ministry may be somewhat account ed for. If Palmerston or russel return to office, Mr. John Walter may pretty safely calculate upon becoming "Sir John Walter. Bart," with the red hand of Ulster in his armorial quarterings, and succession of the title to "the male heirs of his body lawfully begotten." Therefore, Mr. Walter has a direct personal interest in making his journal strongly back up the partisan pretensions of Lords Palmerston and John Russel.
