In the morning they were examined before the Mayor and fined 'Sl each. The driver of the omnibus testified that he dealers recorder was driving at his usual rate, and that there was no nonsual noise inside. On the other hand, the testimony for the de fence went to prove that the party in the omnibus were acting in a noisy and disorderly manner, singing and hal looing, and that the 'bus was being driven very rapidly 1 was also testified that the driver was whipping the horses and that he was so much intoxicated that he could not drive his team properly. The case was submitted to the july, after the arguments of counsel, who returned a verdict o not guilty, and the county to pay the costs. he seart cose was one of surety of the peace, preferred L. Mrs Esther Smith, of Temperanceville, against her neighbor, Mrs. Sarah Williams. The evidence showed that the latter was in the babit of becoming intoxicated and abusing Mrs. Snith, while the witness for Mrs. William showed that Mrs Smith had thrown water on Mrs. W The Judge ordered each party to pay half the costs, and re quested the husbands of the parties to try and keep them within bounds. Court adjourned until two o'clock.

Court re-assembled at two o'clock . Commonwealth vs. Frederick Honnemeyer, indicted for farceny, in stealing five pair of boots from Frederick Zerney, of Tarentum, on the 20th of April last. On the 27th of April, kionnemayer went to the shop of H. V Sende, in Allegheny, and sold the boots to him. Zerney came to the city a day or two afterwards in search of ha boots, and they were found in the possession of Mr. Sende. Honnemeyer had worked for Sende. The prisoner said that ne had witnesses who could explain some of the suspicious circumstances, but they were not present. Honnemey was accordingly lound guilty, and the Court said they would hear the statements of the witnesses previous to sentencing the prisoner. In the case of John Force, indicted for keeping a ferociou dog, an affidavit stating that the dog had been killed, w filed, and Force was ordered to pay the costs

Commonwealth vs. Maria Straw, indicted for assault on battery, on oath of Mrs. Wall The assault was committed on a small boy, about eight years of age, son of the proscutrix. It was alleged by the prosecution that the defer dant had besten the boy with a broom, while the defenshowed that the bay has strock a child of the defendant with a stone. The jury found a verdict of not guilty. Commonwealth vs one Fehl, indicted for assault and battery with intent to kill. Some time during the month of May the defendant, a boy thirt on an fourteen years old got into a difficulty with output boy of the same ag named Daniel Ruelans, who had lent him a knife a tew lays before - During an altercation about the knife, the ditendant drew the knife and cut the other boy on the thig The evidence against young Fehl was not very conclusias to malice, it appearing that the cutting was done either

The Manager takes the liberty of informing the public, that he has in store a great musical trees. They shall hear Herr Karl Form s, who has a world wide reputation, and has been pronounced by the unanimcus judgment of the musical critics of Paris, Lonion, Vienna and New York, the first living Basso. To describe Herr Formes' wonderful volce, combining the music extraordinary power with sweet-ness and flexibility, would be certaivily an idle task. No living singer has created such a deep impression on his an diences as Mr. Formes. The cruit on may be, parhaps, traced to the hisfory of the artiste. Mr. Formes is not only a singer, but an a complianci gentleman, a patriot and a phisinger, but an a complished geotleman, a patriot and a phi-tanthropist. In the revolution of '48, when fighting for the liberty of Germany on the barricades in Vienna, with a sm ill force which he commanded, he heid in chack soveral days four Austrian regulents, butil, bleeding from every vern, he was carried souscless from the fl id of battle.

ern, he was carried souseless from the h id of battle. In London, he made immense pecuniary sacrifices to sau-tain the German Opera, and Last winter, in New York, the extraordinary furore which be created, saved the manager of the Academy of Music from utter ruin. Notwithstanding the coornious expenses to which the Management has been surjected in procuring Herr Karl Formes, and the other distinguished artists who accompany him, it has been concluded to throw open the Hall at a uni-form urise. form price. ANOTHER VIOLIM OF INTEMPERANCE,--- On Monday afternoo about four o'clock, as a Mr. Lindsay was riding into Alte gheny City, he observed a man in a state of insensibility lying on the Perivsville Plank Road, near the head of Fe oral street. He dismounted, and on examination found that he was almost dead, and Samaritan-like, took him o his horse to convey him to the Mayor's office, where he could be cared for. But before reaching the office the manwas dead The foody was kept in the office until the Opromer was sent for; a jury was expandeled, and they returned wordict of death from excessive drinking. The deceased was an old man, over fifty years of age, named Elijah Taylor. He has lived in this city nearly all his life, was a butcher b occupition, and has fatterly been employed by Mr Tesh and others. DROWNED --- O. Monday morning, three lads aged about ton years, sous of H. Pa-ker, tailor on Smithfield street, Mr. Anderson, tax collector of the Second Ward and Ge r. Burker, went down to the Monongahela river for the pur pose of bathing. They went into the water near the abut most of the new Birmingham bridge, none of them being able to swim. As the water at that point is twenty feet doop, they were unable to resist the force of the current, and two of them, John Burker and William Anderson, were drawn under and drowned. The third boy was saved with some difficulty. The todies of the two boys were recover last evening

THE NEW NATIONAL .- This evening, a couple of the mo popular stars traveling, commonce an ongagement, Mr. and Mrs. John Drew. The first piece is "Grist to the Mill." in which Mrs Drew appears as Francine, to be followed by "Handy Andy," in which Mr. Drew appears as the blunde ing boy concluding with the farce of "Mistaken Philosphy." This is a good bill, and the reputation of these actors should onsure a good house. The benefit of Gov. Foster last even ing was a pretty good one, and the pieces were well played.

THE LOTTERY CASES .- These cases were called over in the Court of Quarter Bessions, yesterday, and none of the detendants appearing, their bail was declared torfeited. Judge M'Clure remarked that they would make little by staying away, as the Court would take such active measur that they would find it to their a lyantage to stand a trial. He hoped the County Commissioners would take immediate measures to collect the amount due on the forfeited bai

THE SCOTT HOUSE -Strangers visiting the city, who wish to put up at a good house, cannot do better than to go to the Scott House, corner of Irwin street and Duquesne way: it is a new house, very pleasantly located, and the table is well supplied, thus combining all the requisites of a first class hotel. The host, Mr B D. Marker, is a clever, affable | gentleman, well quidified to make his guests comfortable He is doing a good business, and deserves all the pationage čestowed on him.

IN A DANGEROUS SITUATION --- We learn that Prof. Bashr the gentleman who was mjured by a slung-shot in the hands of James M'Kee, is in a dangerous situation, and that his recovery is by no means cortain. M'Kee was to hav been examined yesterday, but he has been committed for further hearing until Wednesday, when Bachris case will have assumed a more definite form. ----
