Court of Quarter Sessions. Refere Prosident Judge William B. M'Clure, and Associate

Judges Adams and Parke. Monday, June 21st. Commonwealth vs. Porter Newell, Alexander Hanlan, police. A similar case was tried last week, which we de- tongue. tailed at the time, and as the evidence in this case was the zame, we will not repeat it here. The case occupied the entire morning, and after able arguments by A. W. Foster, Esq., City Solicitor, for the watchmen, and Edmund Snowden, Esq., for the Commonwealth, the Court charged the jury, who had not returned a verdict when Court adjourned. Commonwealth vs. James Howell, James Howell, Jr., and Michael Harlan, charged with surety of the peace, on oath of Philip Swanger. The difficulty occurred near M'Keesport, where the parties reside, and originated from Swanger putting cattle into a field claimed by Howell. The prosecutor swore that Howell threatened to split his head with an axe, which the younger man had in his hand, while Harlan was looking on. Harlan swere that Swanger had threatened to split his skull with a club, before the axe was drawn.

After a patient hearing, the Court directed the elder Howell and Ewanger to each pay half the costs. Commonwealth vs. David Dunseith, who was indicted for assault and battery, on oath of John W. Johnston. The letter states that he went into the store of defendant for the purpose of getting a pen which he left there in repair, when he was knocked down, beaten and abused. This difficulty day were taken to the Ponitentiary by Jailor Philips yes. originated in a disagreement about making change in the | terday afternoon. shop of Mr. Dunseith, and was particitated in by the son of the defendant, between whom and the prosecutor there was a struggle for money. The case was argued and submitted to the jury, but no verd'et had been rendered at the hour of adjournment.

The Port Perry Homieide.

The Grand Jury have not as yet acted on the bill against Anderson, Gurdy and King, the parties concerned in the affair at Port Perry, last winter, in which a man lost his life, The bill will not be brought before them this term. Two of the participants in the affair are still at large, and they will probably be arrested by the next meeting of the Court of Quarter Sessions. Yesterday morning application was made to Judgo M'Clure to admit Isaac Anderson to a reasonable amount of bail, inasmuch as there was no evidence going to show that he was guilty of the alleged crime. District At torney Collicr said that he would not pretend to draw a bill against him for murder, but that the most serious charge would be manslaughter. It was therefore at the option of the Court to admit Anderson to bail. He had been in prison for a long period, and it would be injustice to keep him there another term. The Court said they would be governed in the matter by the District Attorney, who is a sworn officer but suggested that the matter be postponed until the Grand Jury had risen, which was accorded to by the counsel.

ANOPHER ATTEMPTED ESCAPE.—Another of the prisoners confined in the county jail endeavored to make his escape on Sunday night, but without success. Arthur Anderson, a colored gentleman, who was awaiting his turn to be conveyed to the Penitentiary, having been sentenced on Saturvessed to the Penitentiary, having been sentenced on Saturday, was confined in a cell on the lewer range. By some means he succeeded in removing one of the stones which formed the floor of the cell, and, digging a hole under the formed the floor of the cell, and, digging a hole under the wall, he managed to make his way into the next cell, which was uneccupied. Here, with an old knife which he had converted into a raw, by means of a file which was found in his cell, he attempted to saw out the iron grating by which light and air are admitted to the cell, but finding it more of an undertaking than he had anticipated, he did not accomplish his work by morning, when he was detected. Once cutside the prison, his escape over the walls would have been easy. He was re-placed in his cell after his detection, where he was kept until afternoon, when he was taken to the Penitentiary. There he will have an opportunity of exercising his ingenuity in effecting an escape.
