RAILROAD MATTERS. The Presidents of the four Eastern roads-Messrs, Chancey Brooks, of the Baltimore and Ohio; G. Edgar Thomson, of the Pennsylvania; Erastus Corning, of the New York Central, and Charles Maron, of the New York in and Erie, with Messrs. Thomas L. Jewett, of Mercy, a community of ladies who devote them. the Steubenville and Indiana; Geo. W. Cass, of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, and C. J. Brydges. of the Great Western, (Canada,)-the Committee appointed under a resolution of the Buffalo Railroad Convention, a report of the proceedings of which we publish this morning, to carry into effect the secured. The aim of the talented and pious inresolution of that Convention respecting the violation of the arrangement between the different roads, will meet in New York city to-day. It is fully anticipated that the old rates of passenger fare will be resumed, and a remunerative rate for the transportation of freight be agreed upon.

Every member of the Buffalo Convention appears to have realized the fact that the present rates on both passengers and freight vere ruinous to the whole railroad interest of | wardness which is the result of stupidity. The mu the country; but with such varied and conflicting interests as exists, the great difficulty appeared to be how to remedy the evil upon fair and equal terms to all the parties. It is expected that a satisfactory basis of agreement may be suggested by the Committee and adheared to by the railroad companies in the future.

The Logan House.

Away up in the coal mountain district, at Altoona, Messrs. D. K. Miller & Walter Roe, both Pittsburghers, and both capital providers for the comfort and accommodation of the public, have, for several years, conducted the Logan House with great acceptability to the thousands who have partaken of their hospitality. The house is a large one with a fine, cool, airy verandah around it, the rooms are spacious and well ventilated, pure, mountain spring water is abundant, and Messrs. Miller & Roe keep an unexceptionable table fully supplied with every thing to be had in either the Eastern or Western markets. The air at Altoona is pure and cool-there

The farm upon which St. Navier's Academy for young ladies is situated, was presentd, in 1855, by Henry Kulin, Esq., for the nurposes of an educational institution. All the usual branches of an English education are taught, with vocal and instrumental music, painting, drawing, French and Italian. Under the charge of the Sisters of Mercy, with sister Gonzaga O'Gorman as directress, this Academy has acquired a well-deserved reputation.

We were delighted with the exhibition the pupils on Thursday, and with their manifest improvement and accomplishments. We are happy to be able fully to endorse the opinions of a correspondent at Latrobe, who has kindly furnished us with the following notice of the distribution :

Editor of Morning Post:-Yesterday, July 1st mittee Mr. Cass accepted the amendment. I had the pleasure of assisting at the exhibition of Mr. Moran said that any explanation which the young ladies of the St. Xavier's Academy. This nstitution is under the charge of the Sisters of he had to make would be made on the proper selves to attending the sick and poor, and to instruct-ing and educating female youth. He thought ituated in a beautiful location, about three mil it was sufficiently evident that the Ecie road from Latrobe, Westmoreland county. Judging from the specimens witnessed at the exhibition, I should would not go before the Convention. Mr. Moran said he represented a large amount say that the education given at St. Xaviers is o that solid and substantial kind which all parents do whether the western roads would control the sire for their childron, but which, in many cases, notwithstanding the most brilliant promises, is no would control the western roads. Mr. Jewett moved to lay the motion on the tructresses of St. Xaviers is to implant in the heart of their pupils those religious sentiments, without which no child can be a source of real consolation t her family, and, at the same time, to improve their nor ramuy, and, at the same time, to improve their friends by communicating to them all the knowledge which can be of use or of ornament to a lady. The programme of the exhibition, which I sub-join, will be sufficient to give you some idea of the course of instantian advantations. All there are ourse of instruction adopted here. All those wh were present expressed their highest admiration of the real preficiency of the young ladies, and of the graceful modesty with which they performed the parts assigned to them. While they were not offended by the pertness often exhibited in more fashion ble schools, they were not annoyed by that back tahle. sical department especially seems to be cultivated t great perfection. In another room I was pleased see exhibitions of fancy needle-work and drawing which were highly creditable to the pupils. The premiums were distributed by the Rt. Rev Bishop O'Connor, assisted by Rov. Messrs. Keenan of Lancaster, and Maher, of Harrisburg. The num ber of pupils this yoar was, I beliove, seventy five mostly from Western Pennsylvania. After the ccremonles of the day were over, the in vited guests sat down to a repast furnished by the indness of the Sisters, and all separated with thes celings of pleasure and satisfaction which are th reward of a day spent in witnessing an exhibition well regulated Academy. Misses Wise and O'Hara received Crowns in the

A Mistake.

Inadvertently, in an article regarding the authority of the Aldermen and Mayor under the city ordinances, we stated that Mayor Weaver had last year left the city, while Alderman Johns acted in his place. This was a mistake. It was Mayor Bingham who was absent and for whom Alderman Johns acted. The error in the name of the Mayor does not, in the least, affect our argument which is that if Mayor Weaver's assumption of exclusive jurisdiction under ordinances is correct, then in the case of the sickness, absence or death of the Mayor, the ordinances cannot be legally enforced. The Journal, in noticing this mistake, says : "Surely, if the Mayor appoint a substitute, he would act a Mayor pro tem." The Mayor has no more power to appoint a substitute than Judge McClure has to deputize his judicial powers to John Smith or John Jones. There are eighteen Aldermen in the city fully empowered to enforce the or'dinances, and hence the law, seeing no necessity for substitute Mayors, has made no provision for transfering the authority of the mayorality.

THE CATHOLIC INSTITUTIONS NEAR LATROBE

On Thursday last, we had the pleasure of being present at the Annual Distribution of Premiums at St. Navier Academy, near La trobe. in Westmoreland county. The Religious and Literary Institutions at Latrobe are possessed of much interest. The domain, which they occupy, was originally known by the legal title of "Sportman's Hall" -a title given it in early times by the Legislature, from the fact that the hills and forests of which it was then composed, were filled with an abundance of game, which attracted sportsmen and hunters from a distance, as similar locations in the far west now do. It was at this point that the first Catholic Church in Penusylvania, west of the Alleghenies, was established by Father Coursey, in 1785. He was succeeded in 1789 by Rev. Browers, and in 1799 Father Hilburn took control of the church affairs here who ex ercised a religious supervision over all the country as far as Lake Brie on the north and Rrownsville on the south. At that time Westmoreland county embraced all the country in western Pennsylvania, known as the "Lake Region." In 1815 Mr. Hilburn was succeeded by Mr. O'Brien, and in 1817 that well known and much esteemed Clergyman, Rev. Charles B. Maguire, took charge of the religious interests of the district which he continued to exercise unti 1830, when he was succeeded by Rev. Girr, who was again, in
