The Row Boat Race, The race between the four-cared row boats " Patman " and " Darling," which has been the subject of for their recovery. so much speculation, transpired on Saturday evening At any o'clock, the Monongahela river was lined with people from the bridge to the Point. The bridge was hterally crowded, and every steamboat at the landing was occupied by crowds, many of them ladies, wherever a view of the course could be had. The hour fixed for the start was half-past six, but the steamer "Marmora" coming in sight at that time in the chaptel, a delay of fficen minutes was proseconed until she landed at the Point. An immeass fleet of boats of every description lined the river on both sides of the course, leaving it clear. Here were chiffs, rowboats, barges, flats, scows yawls, tow boats and rafts orowded to their utmost apacity with ankious spaciators.

The crew of the "Potman" were neatly dressed in white parts and shirts and rod caps, while the corsmen in the "Darling" were striped shirts, white consistent in the "Paring" were striped starte, wante pants and light skull caps. At a quarter before eaven the word was given by the Judges, stationed on the bridge, and the boats started. After pulling a few lengths, one of the "Putman" crew "caught." a crab," delaying them, while the "Darling" shot chead nearly two lengths. Before they reached Mar ket street, the "Putman" had passed the "Darling, and it was confidently expected that she would win the race. Bets on the former boat went begging. the row boat "Thomas A. S AN EFFICIENT, safe and convenient A SAN EFFICIENT, SHE SHE CONVENIENT to top cattiartic and anti-dyspeptic medicine, these Pills are recommended to the public by the former proprietor, (DR. WILSON,) with a confidence such as a long continued and careful trial of them in an ample practice wartinued and careful trial of them in an ample practice warrants. In their operation as a cathartic, they influence more the motory and less the secarning power of the bowels than any other combination in common use.

AS A TONIC—They agree with the most delicate stomach, removing names pain, and debility from that organ, and through it impart tone and vigor to the whole system.

AS AN ANTI-DYSPEPTIC—They neutralize and interpret the formation of order these ferromation and pro-AS AN ANTI-DYSPEPTIO—They neutralize and interrapt the formation of acids, check fermentation, and prevent the elimination of gases from the food in the stomach,—the direct consequences of chemical action,—an action which should never exist in the human stomach. From these peculiarities in the Pilla, a person taking them may expect a free, full and natural evacuation of the bowels, without pain, nauses, local or general debility, or that disgunting sickness or costiveness—the usual effects which at tend or follow the use of other purges.
