JAMES P. BARB, Editor and Proprietor. PITTSBURGH:

THURSDAY MORNING:::::AUGUST 12, 1858. DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS.

FOR SUPREME JUDGE, WILLIAM A. PORTER, OF PHILADELPHIA

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, WESTLEY FROST, OF PAYETTE COUNTY.

THE COMING CONVENTION.

On Saturday next, delegates will be elected by the Democracy to meet on the Wednesday following, in Convention, to select candidates for the important offices of Congress, Senate, Assembly, Sheriff, Prothonotary, County Commissioner, Auditor, Coroner, and Director of the Poor. The character of the men to be selected will be determined by the delegates. Care should, therefore, be taken in the city and county, that good reliable Democrats be chosen; not mere tricksters who may have some particular object to accomplish, and are willing to sacrifice all things else, even to the disorganization of the party to obtain it. We have enough of good Democrats in Allegheny County to attend to this matter, without being placed in leading strings by Republicans and interested sore-heads. We want no leaders other than those who have been identified with the party for years, we do not even desire their advice as to the proper management of a campaign, much less their unbidden interference. We are induced to these remarks from the fact that a few, calling themselves democrats, are to be found consorting with the enemy, who are covertly making arrangements to disturb the harmony of the coming Convention. Let good men be nominated, but let no man have the hardihood to offer a name unless he can present a clear, democratic record. We want no mongrel ticket. We hope, therefore, great caution will be exercised in the selection of delegates on Saturday, who will be able to stand up to the old landmarks and place such a ticket in the field as will command the respect of the people, and it will surely be elected.

The Election in Kansas --- The Against Admission.

The Washington Union, of Tuesday, in ref erence to the elections in Kansas, says that the results leave no doubt of the refusal of the people to be admitted into the Union on the terms proposed in the Conference Bill of the which amounts to 3600 per hour, and to 36,000 last session. The people of Kansas have had in a day of ten hours. A caster's hand travels a sad experience, as tools in the hands of 2 feet 9 inches during the casting of each type demagogues who have used them to effect | consequently it travels in a day of ten hours, political results outside of the Territory. It | 99,000 feet, or 183 miles or over 5,800 miles in is not surprising, the excitement of the past a year, (omitting Sundays.) having subsided, that they should feel disinlined to put on the habiliments of State, and incur, at a moment of pecuniary pressure, the largely increased expenses of an establishment of their own.

Kansas, by the force of circumstances, to which we need not refer, has been a purely exceptional case. Being drawn into the vortex of the political whirlpool and made merely instrumental in the work of advancing the fortunes of a distant, but reckless fanaticism, it became necessary, if possible, to remove all causes for continued excitement by the prompt admission of the State into the Union, even when it was known that there was not a sufficient number of inhabitants to entitle them to one member of Congress. All efforts to pacify the people, however, having been unavailing, and seeing how demagogues were likely still to exercise supreme control in the Territory, it was the dictate of patriotism to overlook entirely the question of numbers and admit them into the family of States. The terms of admission finally arranged by Congress were liberal, and the question whether they desired to become a State was finally submitted to them. They decided in the

The idea of an electric telegraph across the tlantic was broached and discussed some years ago in England; but no effective step was taken to carry it into execution. It is but fair, how ever, to mention that the formation of the New York, New Foundland, and London Telegraph Railroad, notice of which, if approved by said Company, in 1854, grew out of the failure of company which preceded it, called the Newoundland Telegraph Company, organized in 1852, by Mr. Frederic Gisborne, for the purpose of connecting St. Johns, Newfoundland, with th continent of America, and which was incorpo rated by the Legislature of Newfoundland, and sustained for a short time by one or more capitalists in this city.
