The Seer at Fault .-- Notwithstanding all the predictions and remonstrances of the " Great American dictions and remonstrances of the "Gradt American Astrologer," Madame Harper, she has been obliged to liquidate the claim against her for boarding, by Mrs. Thompson. Fair words and promises would not do, and when, before Mayor Weaver yesterday, she found that she must pay or become acquainted with the inside of prison walls, she wisely took the first horn of the dilemma, and paid the demand against her, some fitteen dollars, when the prosecu-tion for false pretences was withdrawn, and she was allowed to depart.

License Revolted .- The St. Louis Board of Steam-boat Inspectors have reported in regard to the socident of the ill fated Pennsylvanian. They say they gave gathered the evidence and examined carefully all the facts they could obtain connected with the disaster, and feel it to be their duty " to withdraw disastor, and teel it to be their duty "to withdraw Francis Doris from the profession of an engineer, and he can no longor be permitted to assume the duties of that responsible colling."
