TUESDAY MORNING AUGUST 17, 1958. DEMOCRATIC STATE HOMINATIONS. POR SUPERIND SUDGE,

WILLIAM A. PORTER, OF PHILADELPHIA. FOR CAHAL COMMISSIONER,

WESTLEY FROST, OF PAYETTE COUNTY.

AT LAST. The message from Her Majesty, Queen Victoria, has at length been received. The probthought, trade and civilization. We sincerely nope the present loving embrace of the two great nations of the earth may continue thro' the time to come, and realize to millions yet unborn the blessings of peace and the pleasares of high civilization. May the wire nev-

The County Convention. The Democratic County Convention will assemble to morrow, Wednesday, at ten o'clock, in the Court House. We have not noticed as much excitement for years in relation to a Convention as is apparent in this. There is a fixed determination to put a clean ticket in the field, which will command success. The men spoken of for the various offices are intelligent and reliable and will justly challenge the confidence and respect of the citizens of Allegheny county.

Declinas. The following note will explain itself. The name of William Wilkins, for half a century, has been a tower of strength to the Demo- the arrivals at that place-"Josiah Randall cratic cause. Whilst the party will feel the want of his services now, all will appreciate his desire to spend the remainder of his days, which in the natural order cannot be many, in the bosom of his family, relieved from publie care, refreshed by the memories of the past. HOMEWOOD, Aug. 16, 1858. Mr. Barr :- I observe in the Morning Post and elsewhere, as well as in private conversation, I am named as one intended to be proposed at the approaching Domocratic Convention, for the effice of State Serator.

I now beg leave to say to my fellow citizens who will compose that assembly, that many considerations force upon a e the conclusion that I cannot be a candidate. I have just completed my term of three years; very likely, however honest may have been my purpose, to the dissatisfaction of very many of years past I have had, and still have fiduciary inmy onstituents. I cannot hope to be able to do better in the fature. Great age is not very apt to improve the capacity to be useful. And, I trust, my kind and indulgent neighbors (from whom I have slready received much more than I ever merited) will find in the scores of years that have passed over my head an ample excuse for the withdrawal of my youth and nower.

With respect, Sir, your ob't servit, WM. WILKINS.

A short time after the election of Mr. Buchen. an, in accordance with an invitation from that gentleman, I visited Wheatland. I had a full interchange of opinions with him on the subjects connected with his coming administration, in the course of which I stated that I neither desired, nor would accept of any appointment under him; and from that position I have never yet moved. As his version of the lega roceeding is characteristic, we will let him ell his own story:

On Friday morning, Samuel Wright, edis tor of the Columbia Spy, was arrested by officer Waring, of York, and brought before Justice Welsh, to answer a charge of libel preferred by Daniel Jacobs, a citizen of York orough. The writ duly set forth the parare already sufficiently acquainted. The ar rest was made in the most gentlemanly man-ner by officer Waring, but all his politeness could not save the prisoner from a shouting escort to the Justice's office.
