which is published under the editorial head THE INCREASE OF CRIME. in number; there is no end to the drunken of society. There must be some cause for all edy. One main cause of the great increase of crime of which the community so justly complains, is undoubtedly, idleness. The difficulty which has obtained in getting remunerative employment for a year past, has driven many persons of weak morality to crime .-Another cause is the want of due parental control and guardianship over the young In a large city the temptations to vice are so numerous, that the utmost watchfulness is necessary to prevent the rising generation from falling into error. Another, and probably one of the principal causes of the increase of crime in these communities, arises from the fact that the penalties are so easily avoidto minor offenses, such as are summarily disposed of by the magistracy. For these grades grounds. of offense there is no proper place of punishment provided, as in other large cities. The county jails, with its crowded cells, where County.

criminals of all grades are thrown together in idleness, is no place for reformation, but rather a school for vice. And even in the iail, where, for want of a better place, criminals guilty of offenses against the good order of society and the public peace are committed there, they do not serve out their sentences, the commissioners' office, are turned loose upon the community, again to be arrested and committed at the expense of the public treasury. We have been informed upon authority which cannot be denied that persons from the Commissioners' office are accustomed to solicit magistrates for discharges for prisoners committed for minor offenses, such as disorderly conduct, vagrancy, etc., and that at the request of the Commissioners the magistrates grant these discharges. We can name cases of the most hopeless character who have been committed to jail for thirty days three times within the past month. It is scarce two weeks since the notorious Mary Burke was sent up for thirty days for the most disgustingly outrageous conduct upon the public streets, yet we are informed she is now at large. We can name dozens of similar instances, where the Commissioners have interfered to procure the discharge of prisoners sort of pardoning power is vested in the Commissioners' office. To be sure, they get a discharge from the committing magistrate, but in cases of summary convictions, no magistrate, when he has once adjudged the casehas any legal authority to grant a discharge. until his sentence has been complied with .-If he commits in default of a fine, either the fine must be paid, or the prisoner serve out his sentence. This is the clear intent of the law, and when John B. Guthrie and Jonas R. McClintock were the chief magistrates of our city, they never granted a discharge until the sentence was complied with, either by pays ment of the one imposed, or serving out the imprisonment as an alternative. The practice is illegal, and is one of the main causes why the number of commitments has so largely increased. It is a mistake on the part of the us Banks for Congress. Commissioners, if they suppose they are saving the public treasury by the course which ther legal, economical, nor in any way for the public good. They result in inducing a careless boldness and utter disregard of legal penalties on the part of offenders, and thus increase offenses and consequent expenses to New York, fought a duel in France about the

Until this is done, there can be little prospect of a decrease in the number of offenses, which the vicious and degraded commit against the peace and good order of society.

[For the Morning Post] Mr. Editor :- As you appear to be very hostile to the Know-Nothing party, and bitterly opposed to the election of J. K. Moorhead because of his supposed as surly as possible—that is if you cannot be a attachment to that order, how can you reconcile your conduct with consistency when you support Thomas Farley for County Commissioner, and Alex. Black or Prothenotary, both of whom received the endorsement, adoption and pomination in the same convention, by the same parties, and at the same moment of time, as J. K. Moorhead for Congress. shall not vote for Moorhend, nor shall I vote for Farley or Black, unless they give substantial evidence that they have no affiliation with or sympathy for this detestable order. Let them purge themselves.

A FIFTH WARD DEMOCRAT. We have supported Messrs. Black and Farley as Democrats, and nothing else. If Repudiation and Know Nothing Conventions have certified to them, by endorsement, it does not necessarily follow that they in return endorse them. It would be far more preferable, and we may as well state it now as again, that Messrs. Farley and Black would very much enhance their chance of success and secure the confidence of a large portion of the Democratic party, in detaching themselves from the Know Nothing endorses ment. They have nothing to lose by doing so, and we advise them to at once take as bold ground against this miserable party, as they ave in favor of Repudiation.

| For the Morning Post | Editor Post :- A specimen of the spirit of the True Press is evinced in last Saturday's number, in an editorial notice of a call upon the National Democracy, to elect delegates to assemble in Convention on Wednesday, the 15th prox. It is an obligation conferred, that such indesoretion has so early exposed the tactics of the Press, and unmasked that terrible engine which burls such ponderous shot at " six or seven amall frv." The call alluded to bears upon its face a special object, which the True Press declines to state, but misrepresents by applying opprobrious terms. However, we take him upon his own words, and give further explanation.

Suppose a case of augling-" Small Fry," vorms, even if their heads need attention, will serve to catch other " small fry"-minnows and chubs, and then good old fishermen (if the rod used be a good one,) will, may be, be able to right to bite.

We will further, for the benefit of dull com prehension, explain the object of that call. A good shepherd should always know his own sheep, and as the Alleghony County (Pa.) flock has, of late, been slightly mixed, James Buchanan and Wm. F. Packer desire to know what sheep carry their wool. Easily done-by tarring red or blue, marking, as taste prompts. They will not recognize any black sheep, nor allow their white sheep to mingle politically with hem, for in time the stock invariably mixes.

There is an unusual solicitude on this subjec at present, inasmuch as all the salt has been expended on a few of the flock, and no more can low be issued. As a consequence, a few infecteral holes in the iron plate in the window of ed animals are endeavored to get a lick out of their trough, disguising themselves with a coat of Republican ink. For preserving all kinds of Fresh Fruits, Vegetables, Mince Meats, Oysters, and all such perishable articles manufactured and for sale by GUNINGHAMS & CO, Nos. 109
WATER and 140 FIRST STREETS, Pittsburgh, Fa.

SE The main secret of preserving fruit in a fresh condition, consists in having it thoroughly heated when readed up, and in expelling all the art there may may be in the ressel, so that when the fruit coels, it will form a vacuum.
The undersigned having procured the right to manufacture theso Jars, respectfully call the attention of dealors and others to them.

The great superiority of GLASS over any other substance for the preservation of fruits, etc., etc. is so well known, that any comments upon it are entirely unnecessary, and the proprietors feel confident that any one, after having once seen these Jars, will never be induced to use any other. the proprietors feel confident the once seen these sars, will he compare the for sale wholesale and retail by CUNINGHAMS & CO., No. 109 Water street.
