Chairman of Dem. County Committee of Corres MEETING OF THE DEMOCRATIO STATE COMMITTEE.

Pursuant to the call of the Chairman, the Democratic State Committee convened on Wednesday evening, September 15th, at the St. Charles Hotel in this city.

The Committee was well attended-a large number of members from Philadelphia and the interior districts of the State, as well as the West, being present. Many of these gentlemen now visit the city for the first time, and before their departure we hope to show them some of our large manufactories, and other things of local interest in our city, that they may have some little idea of the business and resources of Pittsburgh.

At the appointed hour (seven o'clock,) the Committee was called to order by R. Biddle Roberts, Esq., the Chairman.

The following members were present: Dist.
1. Jno. Hamilton, Jr. 15. W. H. Miller, N. B. Brown, 20. J. B. Crawford.

24. Jas. P. Barr, David Lynch, Jas. A. Gibson, John H. Dohnert, 6. Sam'l L. Young, 12. J. Cummings, 25. Hugh M'Kee. On motion, N. B. Brown, of Philadelphia, and W. H. Miller, of Harrisburg, were selected as Secretaries of the Committee. The Convention spent the evening in a free interchange of opinions relative to the Democratic policy of the State, and the best means of insuring success at the approaching elec-

MR. BURKE OR THE TARIFF. We understand that Andrew Burke, Esq., our candidate for Congress in the Twentyfirst District, in his public speeches, takes strong ground in favor of a fair and just protection for the producing and manufacturing interests of Pennsylvania, when the tariff shall come to be revised next winter, so as to produce an amount of revenue adequate to the necessities of the government. In August last a Democratic Convention met in this room, and undertook to dictate to me concerning my Democratic belief, which I have followed for many years, and made a new issue to which I must submit. I can not submit to this dictation. The charge that we are disorganizers is untrue, and without the least foundation. Our object is to re-affirm the resolutions offered by an eminent statesman, and rejected in the former Convention. We meet here to rebuke the manuer and spirit with which gentlemen of very long standing in the Democratic party were treated in that Convention.
