

Pittsburgh Post

PUBLISHED DAILY BY JAMES P. BARR, AT THE "POST BUILDINGS," CORNER OF WOOD AND FIFTH STREETS; AT FIVE DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

VOLUME XVI.

PITTSBURGH, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1898.

NUMBER 301.

HOTELS & RESTAURANTS.

MARKER HOUSE.

BLAIRSVILLE, INDIANA COUNTY, PA.

COL. ROBT. EVANS, Proprietor.

HAVING PURCHASED THIS HOUSE, has been enlarged and improved, and is now ready to receive and accommodate visitors in the most comfortable and convenient manner. A good table and service are guaranteed. In connection with the house, there is a good library of books, and a billiard table.

For particulars apply to

COL. ROBT. EVANS,

Blairsville, Ind.

or to J. P. BARR, Pittsburgh, Pa.

THE SYMPOSIUM.

WILLIAM C. GALLAGHER,

PROPRIETOR.

17th Street, Next Door to the Pittsburgh Theatre.

The house is new, built especially for the purpose of affording a place where the guests can enjoy the best of the city's Wines, Liquors and all the best of the quality. It is a most palatial and comfortable place, and is the most complete and perfect of its kind in the city.

Excelsior Restaurant.

111 Wood Street.

JAMES KATER, Proprietor.

LAKE AND EASTERN FISH SOLD

Wholesale and Retail, at the lowest prices.

Large quantities of Fish, Shell Fish, and Crabs, etc., from the Great Lakes and the West. Also, New York Prime Beef, Pork, and all other fresh meats, and vegetables, at the lowest prices.

Call early in the morning, and order your supply for the day.

Excelsior Restaurant.

111 Wood Street.

THE NATIONAL SALOON.

Under Foster's New National Theatre.

D. BARNARD, Proprietor.

HAS FITTED UP IN A TASTEFUL and comfortable manner, the large center of the city, and is now ready to receive and accommodate

visitors in the most comfortable and

convenient manner. A good table and

service are guaranteed. In connection

with the house, there is a good library

of books, and a billiard table.

For particulars apply to

D. BARNARD,

111 Wood Street.

or to J. P. BARR, Pittsburgh, Pa.

WASHINGTON HOUSE,

COR. PENNA AVENUE & THIRD ST.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

A. F. BEVERIDGE, Proprietor.

H. W. KANAGA.

U. S. HOTEL,

Opposite the Penna. Railroad Depot,

HARRISBURG, PA.

WASHINGTON HOTEL,

FORMERLY THE U. S. HOTEL,

PITTSBURGH, PA.

JAMES SHANNON, Proprietor.

THIS HOUSE IS LOCATED ON THE corner of PENNA AVENUE and

THIRD STREET, and is now ready to receive and accommodate

visitors in the most comfortable and

convenient manner. A good table and

service are guaranteed. In connection

with the house, there is a good library

of books, and a billiard table.

For particulars apply to

JAMES SHANNON,

111 Wood Street.

or to J. P. BARR, Pittsburgh, Pa.

MANHATTAN HOUSE, GEORGE AUSTIN,

Proprietor.

111 Wood Street.

THE DAILY POST.

DEMOCRATS OF THE DISTRICT.

Now is the time to vote. Go to the meeting to be held in the Allegheny

Diamond tonight and listen to what will be said. Let no Democrat be deceived into voting for Thomas

Williams. If the candidates on your own ticket say they are going to vote for Williams the Black Republican, scratch them from your ticket. Ask them then the question whether they are going to vote for Birmingham or Williams. Make them swear if they are secretly working in aid of the Black Republican candidate, let us know it. As Democrats they have no right to vote for Williams and claim your vote. Your candidate John Birmingham is second on the tax question—he never was an attorney for Railroads like Thomas Williams—

his record is clear—he is the only man in the field who is entitled to a single

Democratic vote.

In selecting your ticket, the voters of the

XIII district must make the test of Democracy, whether the candidates support John

Birmingham the Democratic candidate for Congress.

BAKING WATER.

The True Press, at last admits that "it is of no consequence whatever, whether any of the candidates for the Presidency, or of the candidates for the Commission, or

of the candidates for the Legislature, or

of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

THE DAILY POST.

DEMOCRATS OF THE DISTRICT.

Now is the time to vote. Go to the meeting to be held in the Allegheny

Diamond tonight and listen to what

will be said. Let no Democrat be

deceived into voting for Thomas

Williams. If the candidates on your

own ticket say they are going to vote

for Williams the Black Republican, scratch

them from your ticket. Ask them then the

question whether they are going to vote

for Birmingham or Williams. Make them

swear if they are secretly working in

aid of the Black Republican candidate, let

us know it. As Democrats they have no

right to vote for Williams and claim your

vote. Your candidate John Birmingham is

second on the tax question—he never was an

attorney for Railroads like Thomas Williams—

his record is clear—he is the only

man in the field who is entitled to a single

Democratic vote.

In selecting your ticket, the voters of the

XIII district must make the test of Democracy, whether the candidates support John

Birmingham the Democratic candidate for

Congress.

BAKING WATER.

The True Press, at last admits that "it

is of no consequence whatever, whether any

of the candidates for the Presidency, or

of the candidates for the Commission, or

of the candidates for the Legislature, or

of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

THE DAILY POST.

DEMOCRATS OF THE DISTRICT.

Now is the time to vote. Go to the meeting to be held in the Allegheny

Diamond tonight and listen to what

will be said. Let no Democrat be

deceived into voting for Thomas

Williams. If the candidates on your

own ticket say they are going to vote

for Williams the Black Republican, scratch

them from your ticket. Ask them then the

question whether they are going to vote

for Birmingham or Williams. Make them

swear if they are secretly working in

aid of the Black Republican candidate, let

us know it. As Democrats they have no

right to vote for Williams and claim your

vote. Your candidate John Birmingham is

second on the tax question—he never was an

attorney for Railroads like Thomas Williams—

his record is clear—he is the only

man in the field who is entitled to a single

Democratic vote.

In selecting your ticket, the voters of the

XIII district must make the test of Democracy, whether the candidates support John

Birmingham the Democratic candidate for

Congress.

BAKING WATER.

The True Press, at last admits that "it

is of no consequence whatever, whether any

of the candidates for the Presidency, or

of the candidates for the Commission, or

of the candidates for the Legislature, or

of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,

or of the candidates for the State House,

is of any consequence whatever, whether

any of the candidates for the Presidency,

or of the candidates for the Commission,

or of the candidates for the Legislature,

or of the candidates for the State Senate,