Court of Quarter Sessions, &c.

Before President Judge William B. M'Clure, and Associate Judges Gabriel Adams and John E. Parke.

OCTOBER 6, 1858.

In the assault and battery cases tried yesterday, a verdict of guilty was found as to Smith, the toll-keeper, and not guilty as to the other defendants.

Several cross suits of assault and battery, among James Campbell, Jr., James Campbell, Sr., William and Thomas Weston and Patrick Murphy, all arising from the tearing down of a fence. Murphy was convicted on one charge and James Campbell, Sr., on another. They were sentenced to pay a fine of $5 each, and costs of prosecution. The others were acquitted.

Commonwealth vs. Richard Brooks, who will be remembered as "the man of many commitments;" indicted for assault and battery with intent to kill on the person of Mary Schwambly.

Mary testified that in September last, the defendant followed her up Grant street, to the Third Ward School House; she stopped to talk to another woman, when Brooks struck her on the face, knocked her down and kicked her. He had a small penknife in his hand, which he did not use.

After a short absence the jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault and battery, no evidence having been offered to prove the intent to kill. As there are other charges against Brooks, he was remanded for the present.

Commonwealth vs. Thomas Connor and Francis Rule, charged with the larceny of a steer five from the steamer Melnotte, in August last. Several witnesses testified to having seen the defendants taking the line, and also that they had sold it. Other witnesses testified to their good character, and also that they had been in the habit of picking up old pieces of line on the wharf or in the rivers. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty, and the prisoners were remanded.

The State Fair.

The Annual Fair of the State Agricultural Society, was brought to a close at Pittsburg on Saturday last. The address was delivered on Friday, by Gen. Will A. Stokes, of Westmoreland county, and was such a production as could only emanate from a gentleman, who, with a practical knowledge of agriculture, combines a vigorous mind and elegant and polished tastes. We learn that the total receipts of the society reach the handsome sum of $13,000, which we suppose will be ample to defray all expenses and place the society in a better position than it has been for some years. The admirable management of the affairs of the society during the last year, and the complete success of this exhibition both pecuniarily and otherwise, will, without doubt, have the happy effect of restoring that public confidence lost through the mismanagement—if not something worse—and misfortune attending former operations of the society which drained the treasury and withdrew the interest of the farming community. The complete success of this exhibition is mainly due to the energy of the President, David Taggart, and the Secretary, Judge Hiester, and we are gratified to see that their services have been appreciated by the citizens of Pittsburgh, by whom a public dinner has been tendered to the President, and the highest encomiums of the press lavished upon the Secretary. These gentlemen were elected officers of the society at a time when its treasury was bankrupt and its credit entirely sunk. Judge Hiester has given its affairs his almost undivided attention, directing his well known practical activity to its work which has accomplished results so highly favorable to the interest and character of the society.

We feel assured that under good management the funds of the State society will, in a few years, become ample, and its usefulness increased in proportion. Harrisburg Patriot and Union.

Sewing Machines.—One of the greatest labor saving machines—one that has probably done more to take off the burdens of a too frequently neglected portion of society—the poor female sempstresses of the large cities—is the Sewing Machines. Many of this class who were once content to earn their pittance of a few shillings daily, are now, by the aid of this truly great invention, realizing as many dollars for their daily labor. And not only is this mission, but the amount of labor saved by it in families is almost incredible. Indeed, we have been informed by several heads of families that they have saved the cost of one in a single year by the saving of time and labor effected by it. We are glad to see the citizens of Pittsburgh daily turning their attention more to this valuable improvement—a fact clearly shown by the increase of sales on these articles in the last twelve months. While seeking for the best we hope those designing to purchase will not forget Mr. R. Straw, corner of Market and Second streets, who is the agent for Singer's Sewing Machine in this city, and the pioneer in their introduction here. There has been much discussion as to the merits of the various machines now offered by manufacturers, and we will not pretend to express an opinion as to the superiority—that belongs to the purchaser. But we can recommend Mr. Straw as a honorable dealer, and say that purchasers can lose nothing by calling and examining the machines sold by him, before making their choice.

Counterfeit Money.—Forty two new counterfeits of various bank notes have been put in circulation since last month—a pretty certain proof that the talent, labor and risk of those persons concerned in this illegal trade must with a substantial reward. Were counteracting unprincipled men would be content to rest it; but, when it is found that banking associations are careless about the matter, and the community at public generally rather indifferent on the subject, counterfeiters will proceed with their work at all hazards. The only way to account for the latter's warmness generally manifested towards propositions to stay the flood of worthless money thrown into circulation, is to believe that the losers by counterfeits are chiefly persons who work for wages, upon the mass of whom the taxations of counterfeiting, on the aggregate, falls with great severity, several millions of dollars annually being made and scattered over the country. This is a condition of things that requires a speedy and effectual remedy.

Woodruff's Sleeping Cars.—The Woodruff sleeping cars, which we have before noticed, have been introduced on the Lake Shore, Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati, Ohio and Mississippi, Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana, Michigan Central, Illinois and Chicago Union, and Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroads. They are manufactured at Troy, Cleveland, Dayton, Springfield and Detroit, and cost about $2,00 each more than ordinary first class passenger cars. Mr. George Woodruff has charge of one, now attached to an express train upon the Pennsylvania Railroad, and does a thriving business. The car is a great convenience, and for comfort cannot be excelled.

Tailoring.—Every one in the city has heard of Samuel Gray, and his celebrated tailoring establishment, located on St. Clair street. He has long enjoyed the reputation of being a first class artist in his way, and deservedly, too, for his clothing always fits to perfection. He has just received a new supply of goods for the fall and winter. Our fancy gents and others who wish a good suit of clothes at reasonable rates should give him a call and see what he has.

Attempted Suicide in Jail.—On Tuesday night, a prisoner, named George Shallenberger, confined in the county jail for malicious mischief, attempted to hang himself in his cell. His coil name found him suspended from the window grating by a strip of calico. He was quite insensible when taken down, and remained so for some time. This is the same man who lately escaped from jail and was afterwards captured in Washington county.

Porter's Theatre.—A fair audience was assembled at Porter's Pittsburgh Theatre, last evening, to witness Mr. Roberts' personation of Iago. We did not have the pleasure of seeing it, but are informed it was a fine effort, and that he received merited applause. This evening he appears as Sir Giles Overreach, in "A New Way to Pay Old Debts," and we are mistaken if he does not do the character ample justice.

In a Critical Condition.—We learn that John Fisher, the brakesman on the Pennsylvania Railroad, who was injured by an accident at Mifflin, last week, is lying in a critical condition and that but little hope is entertained of his recovery. He is an aged man, and has been for a long time employed on the Pennsylvania road.

Accident on the Northern Central Railroad.—An accident occurred to a coal train on this road, on Saturday last, north of Georgetown, caused by the breaking of an axle of the tender of the engine. The train was thrown from the track, causing a general smash up, and demolishing about twenty cars.

The Hutchinsons.—We are informed that Masonic Hall has been leased for the benefit of the Hutchinson Brothers, tendered by the Pittsburgh Gymnastic Association, and the time fixed for to-morrow evening. They should be greeted with a bumper.

Coulter & Mentzer, House, Sign and Ornamental Painters and Grainers. Orders left at their shop on Fourth street, near Market, Burke's Buildings, will be promptly attended. *6m

Carnaghan's advertisement of men and boys' clothing will interest many. His manufacture of clothing has grown in popularity, from its neatness of style and durability. Buyers will find his prices favorable.

Bowman & Co.:—My wife was troubled with cough and pain in the breast for five years—the last two of which she was very low indeed. I procured some of your Compound, and after she had taken it for about five weeks she was able to do all our housework, which she had not previously done for four years.

We cheerfully, and unasked, recommend your Compound to all who are suffering under that terrible disease—Consumption.

Mrs. Julia Dean Hayne

This talented actress will make her second appearance at Foster's National Theatre this evening, in the character of the Countess in Sheridan Knowles' play of "Love, or the Countess and the Serf," a play admirably adapted to the display of her great and acknowledged ability. The play itself, aside from this lady's personation of the chief character, is grand, portraying beautifully the impression made by one of "nature's noblemen" upon the heart of "a lady of high degree," and the conflict between love and pride. How happily one of the characters is made to describe true dignity:

Riches impoverish, that divide respect!
Oh, to be cherished for mine I alone!
To crave the love that heaven to us to taught
Which fortune's summer—winter—gives or takes!
To know that while we wear the heart and mind,
Feature and form, high Heaven endowed us with,
Let the storm pelt us, or fair weather warm,
We shall be loved! Kings from their thrones cast down,
Have blessed their fate that they were valued for Themselves, and not their stations, when some knee,
That hardly bowed to them in plenitude,
Has kissed the dust before them stripped of all!"

The piece contains many other passages of beauty, and is considered by many as the masterpiece of its celebrated author. It was first produced at Drury Lane Theatre in 1838, when Mr. Anderson personated Huon, Ellen Tree the Countess, and Madame Vestris Catherine. It has since been favorably received all over the United States, though many alterations have been made in the text by managers, to suit circumstances. Mrs. Shaw gained a celebrity by her fine conception and faultless delineation of the character of the piece, and Mrs. Hayne has the reputation of equaling her in its representation. We think she will well sustain it. To-night Catherine, by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard and Mr. Chas. Foster. We hope to see a full house this evening, to give her the necessary encouragement to produce a favorable impression.

Infringement on Patent.—We learn that Mr. G. B. Griffin, proprietor of the celebrated "Cumming's Cutting Box," which was exhibited at the State Fair by Messrs. Owens, McFarland & Co., has entered suit against Mr. Thomas H. Wilson, of Harrisburg, Pa., for an infringement of his patent. The suit was brought in Louisville, Ky., where Mr. Wilson had his machine on exhibition.

A Case was on trial in the District Court, yesterday, and is not yet concluded, in which Hon. Thos. Irwin was sued by the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company for $2000, the value of two bonds issued by the county, which were transferred by Gen. Larimer to Judge Irwin as collateral security for a private debt.

The Chatham House.—Peter Brady, at his well kept restaurant at the corner of Wylie and Chatham streets, has fine, fresh oysters and lots of other good things. Peter keeps a quiet and excellent house, which is a great accommodation to the up town folks.

Accepted.—We observe from the Chronicle of yesterday evening that the challenge of the "Cassidy" has been accepted, and that the preliminaries of a race will be arranged between the "Cassidy" and the "Reindeer" or "Gullett" in a few days.

Pat Gormly, the well known market gardener at Lawrenceville, made a fine display of garden products at the State Fair. He can be found in the Diamond Market on market days with fine vegetables of all sorts.

Democratic Rally.—There will be a rally of the Democrats of the Twenty-Second District, and the friends of Capt. John Birmingham, in the Allegheny Market House, this evening, at which a number of the best Democratic speakers will be in attendance.

The Climax Fan is to be seen at Lafayette Buildings, No. 65 Wood street. The agent will be found either there or at the St. Charles Hotel.

Heavy Damages.—In the seduction case mentioned yesterday, on trial in the District Court, the jury found damages for the plaintiff, Joseph B. M'Laughlin, in the sum of $1625.

Mayor Stuckrath committed three men to jail yesterday, charged with stealing a stove from Mr. A. Burchfield.

Shoenberger's, and Coleman & Hallman's Iron Works have both gone to work this week. This argues better times at hand.

Bishop Whelan, of Wheeling, has returned home after an absence, in Europe, of over fifteen months.

Bonds.—Two $1000 Pittsburgh 6's were sold in Philadelphia on Monday at $510 per $1,000.

DURING THE SUMMER THAT HAS JUST PASSED AWAY, thousands of our race from dysentery and diarrhœa have been relieved by the use of BRETT'S PILLS, a medicine which is evidently destined to occupy a permanent place in the public estimation. Without mentioning a one of those diseases which baffles the skill of the physician. The medicine they administer to act upon the bowels never seems to reach the source of disease. The difficulty is to get a remedy that will reach all the digestive organs, and give them simultaneously a touch of vigor, to rid themselves of this disease. This problem is solved by the Brett's, which never fail to conquer the most stubborn cases. It is only for to say, that during the season just closed, this medicine has no equal more than any other ever presented to the public, and during the time which it has merit to recommend it, it has proved, to be peculiarly the Summer's well known friend. Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

Weekly Review of Pittsburgh Markets.

PITTSBURGH, October 6, 1858.

We have but little change to record in the business of the city during the past week. Business has, we may say, improved, and during the early part of the week our merchants were busily engaged, many visitors to the State Fair taking advantage of their presence here to make their fall purchases. In prices the changes are very trifling; indeed so much so as to be scarcely worth noting.

The river, in consequence of the late rains, has risen some, there being at present about four feet in the channel. Some few boats are loading for below, and are getting plenty of freight. We fear, however, this rise will not give much impetus to business, as it will scarcely extend as far as Cincinnati, and unless a further rise occurs the boats now loading will have some difficulty in reaching that point.

Money matters have undergone no change. Money is abundant, and can be had at reasonable rates on good security. The rates of Exchange are ½ per cent. premium for Eastern, and par for Western.

The Bank Statements for the week ending Saturday, October 2, show the following aggregate:—

| | October 2. | September 25. |
