The Ten Hour Law.

We publish, with pleasure, the following card from our friend, (Benton,) R. H. Kerr, on the "Ten Hour Law." Benton speaks out without concealment, and it would have been much better for Mr. Williams' his interests are with the "uppor tendum." The poor factory girls could not get aid or language from the would-be member of Congress. But no doubt the a young lawyer w friends of the factory hands will attend carefully to his interests, (to-day,) and give "aid and comfort" that he will understand how different it was with the honest Democrat, Mr. Dannelly. He went forward and addressed their meeting, showing that he was es, in which fact after fact was was held up to conwith them in their struggle for the hours that they wince his hearers that in pure Democracy alone was with them in their struggle for the nous that the vince in struggle for the nous that the political salvation obtained by the exertions of Democrats. All honor to be found their political salvation.

P. J. Sinclair, Esq., closed the meeting by a short that the characters are the political salvation. obtained by the exertions of Democrats. All honor to them for battling in the good fight. Now is the time to remember friends at the polls, and also punish enemies. Then no friend of the operatives should vote for Williams—he is not deserving these favors, when is the deep of their tribulation, he refused. when, in the day of their tribulation, he refused to aid them. Let him be remembered in a way that he will not forget:

MR. BARR:—The True Fress of Faturday refers to me, in Ms. Bars:—The True Press of raturally reads to me, in connection with Gen. Moorhead, on the Ten Heur Law.
I have no knowledge whatever of Gen. Moorhead paying money at Harristurg or olsewhere, nor did he ever oppose at Harristurg the passage of the Ten Hour Law, so far as my knowledge extends.

I am free to confess that I advocated the rights of the fac-In who wiedge extends.

I am free to confess that I advocated the rights of the factory operatives here and at Harrisburg, which is well known to them. I dew the act, and requested the talented and energetic trember from your city (Mr. Swatzwolder) to tack it to a bill from the Senste, as it was the only way to got it through. I worked late and early to accomplish the good work. Senator (Col.) Small, of Philadelphia, took charge of the bill in the Senate and nobly did his duty.

I do not wish, even at this late (ay, to glorify myself for what I considered a (free gift) duty.

I was Chairman of a Convention of which Mr. Fleesan and the Rev. Smith were members. Our duty was to solicit aid and speakers to further the cause of the girls. In the performance of that duty, I called on Thomas Williams, Eaq. (now a candidate for Congress.) requesting him to address a meeting in Aliegheny city, and contribute. He decilined both, by remarking that the girls had better to go work than do worse.

I afterwards observed Mr. Williams at one of our meetings, when Mr. Donnelly (now a candidate for the Legislature) was speaking. I urged on Mr. Williams to make an address; he again declined, stating he did not wish to interfaire. Then it would be all proper for the friends of the factory girls row not to interiere for him. This would be a put retaliation on this distinguished advocate of the ich against the poor.

English and American Railroads .- The following interesting facts have been gathered by the editor o the American Railroad Journal, who is now in Europe. He draws comparison between the railroads of England and this country. Much that is peculiar to the railways of England and the United States grows chiefly out of some difference between the two countries. The long passenger car in use in the United States is rendered necessary by its clime. There is no mode of warming the English passenger car. The latter, first class car, is more comfortable than the American first class, but to ride in it one must pay twice the average charge in the United States. The fare in second class in England equals just about three cents per mile. In these cars you have nothing warmer or softer than painted wood work. In fact, there is nothing but boxes with seats on two sides. The third class cars are still more uncomfortable, so as to correspond in grade and aspect to the lowest class of travelors, the average rate of fare in these is nearly equal to the first class fare on some of the best roads in America. In addition to a high rate of fare, baggage is sharply looked after. For two fair sized trunks the traveler between London and Liverpool has to pay $2,50 extra baggage. Traveling in England is at best twice as expensive as in Sacred Music.-The following remarks, by a writer for a religious exchange, are worthy of perusal and thought: "The one luxury that seems divinely suited all hearts, instinctively and naturally sacred, while it is exquisitely enjoyable by all-is what is commonly understood as devotional music. We have long thought that a sufficient knowledge of music for family devotion should be a part of every child's education—boy and girl. To play five or six simple tunes upon an instrument, and play them well, is not much labor to learn. Half the time and toil often spent in teaching a girl to play many tunes indifferently on the riano, would teach her to perform a few tunes exceedingly well on the melodeon,—and a vant deal more to the refining and elevation as well as to the delight of her family and her friends. And that this small amount of skill should be expanded upon devotional music, will at once be admitted by every mind that has once reflected on the influence of such music upon the feelings and character, as well as on its fulfilment of a duty of household worship." _____ Haul of Thieres .- Un Monday merning, officer Hague, of the Mayor's police, arrested three worthles of supicious character, nailing last from Cleveland.

Their names are Geo. Sanford, alias Bedford, James Smith and William Marvio. Information had been received that they were coming, and they were found at the Mansion House, on Liberty street. They had in their possession a quantity of raw goods, such as coats, pants, vests, handkerchiefs of silk and licen, unhemmed, ladies' scarfe, and other articles, sup posed to be the result of the robbery of some clothing store. Hague knew Sanford at once, having seen him in St. Louis. He is a professional thies, and does not deny it, says he has followed the business for seventeen years, and was never "cribbed" but once. He was familiar with every face in the "Rogues' Gallery," and said he knew them all personally. The three were sent to jail, and the goods re main at the Mayor's office awaiting identification. Scott Legion .- At a meeting of the Scott Legion, held on Saturday night, the following resolutions were passed:-Resolved, That the Legion return their sincure thanks to the officers in command at the late Camp

Duquesne, for the honorable manner in which they received the Legion on the occasion of their visi the encampment. Resolved, That in particular we return our sincere thanks to the Pennsylvania Infantry, Capt. James
S. Negley, cummanding; the Jackson Independent Blues, Capt. A. Hay, commanding, and the Washington Infantry, Lieutenant Evans commanding, for the attention paid us on the occasion of the above visit. Counterfeit .- Counterfeit bills of the denomination of five dollars, on the North Western Bank of Virginia, have recently been extensively circulated in tem. At this season, particularly, the strongest man is not the West. The counterfoi is a dargerous one, and proof against the mularis, in certain sections of the counwell calculated to deceive even protty good judges, try. In all cases of Fever and Agne, the Bitters are more but can be easily detected by observing the following:

Around the large figure 5, in the right hand corner, the word Five, in small capitals, is repeated twelve times. In the counterfoit, this word under the five

There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the National Democracy and friends of Capt. John Birmingham for Congress, last night, held at the house of Jacob Pack. The worthy landlord and true-hearted Democrat himself presided, and an elogical and most satisfactory address in German was made by Mr. Jacob Shriver. He was followed by R. Biddle Roberts, Eq., in a speech in which he most eloquently and admirably set forth the great and permanent advantages which the American Union had nanent advantages which the American Union had derived from the wise and patriotic public measures which the Democratic organization of the country have originated and successfully consummated. Mr. Roberts, always elequent, and always happy in his public addresses, on this occasion was peculiarly apt both the matter and the manner of his speech He has taken and by his talent will maintain a foreorgan had they not mosted the matter, for this hits most position among the young Democracy of Penn Thomas in a tender part. B. L. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE. DR. R. A. WILSON'S Fonic, Cathartic, and Anti-Dyspeptic PILLS. The best cure for worms, either in children or adults, over offered to the public, is undoubtedly the Vermifuge, prepared by B. L. Pahnestock. Thirty years experience in this class of medicine has given a rure guarantee that this is an article every way worthy of confidence. As a cure for worms it claims to be unequalled, and as a merchantable article its prepared and soid as D. L. Salmestock's and no other, as the proprietors do not wish to have it confounded with any other article of Vermifuge n.w in the market.

WILBON'S PILLS have had a mere local existence for over twenty years, unsupported by a tvertising of any kind, and held at druble the price of what they are now sold at, yet with all these disadvantages, wherever used they have in no instance failed to render the utmost satisfaction in performing all the requirements of a caluable family medi-

Hear for instance what Col. Wm. Hopkins, of Washington, Pa. says:

Washington, Pa.—I have been using your Anti-Dyspeptic Pills, when occasion required, for many years, and can truthfully say that I have never found any medicine equal to them in relieving me from affections of the stemach and head; they have never failed to relieve ne from headache, and have always left my system in better condition than they found it. I must confidently commend your pills as a saie and highly valuable medicine.

Genilemen:—In my opinion of the merits of Dr. R. A Wilson's Tonic, Cathartic and Anti-Dyspeptic Pills, I will briefly state that for many years past they have been a standing medicine in my family. A box of these pills is always left within the reach of any one who may feel the necessity of taking a dose, say one to three.

Whether it is owing to the efficacy of these pills or not, I do not pretend to say; but I can safely assent that aince we have used them, my family has enjoyed uninterrupted good health, and I cheerfully, recommend them to all who duly appreciate this inestimable blessing.
