THE TRUE BLOODED YANKEE!

Salem, Feb. 12

A letter from Mr. Preble, an American gentleman from Massachusetts, now residing in Paris, owner of that celebrated American Privateer dated the 30th of December received in this town, states that the True Blooded Yankee has captured since she was fitted out twenty seven vessels, and made two hundred and seventy prisoners. During the last cruise, Oxnard who now commands her, took an Island on the coast of Ireland, and held it six days. He also took a port in Scotland and burnt seven vessels at anchor. The Bunker Hill, late the Linnét British sloop of war, armed with 14 eighteen pounders and one hundred and thirty men, belonging to the same concern, was fitted out and nearly ready for sea.

Nothing new at Halifax, the 3d instant. No late arrivals from England, and no prizes sent in up to that date for some time previous.

LATEST FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

London, Jan. 8

Vice-armiral sir A. Cochrane is expected at Portsmouth in a few days, to hoist his flag on board the Asia for the North American command.

A rumor has been circulated for these two or three days past, in the circle of superior emigrants from France, that a direct invitation has been received by Louis XVIII from Normandy, to return, and with an assurance that his standard would be surrounded by thousands who are in their hearts devoted to his cause.

War-Department, Downing street, Dec. 30; Despatches have been received at this office from the Marquis of Wellington, dated the 19th and 23d insts. It appears that since the battle of the 14th, marshal Soult has made several movements on the right bank of the Adour, and towards the rear of sir Rowland Hill's position; but these movements were foreseen and frustrated. The enemy being foiled in every attempt to dislodge the allied forces from their position, the main body of the French army has retreated from Bayone, and has marched up the right bank of the Ardour, towards Dax.

Antigua, Feb. 27.

By a London paper of the 8th of January with which we have been obligingly favored, intelligence of the highest importance to the future happiness of the civilized world has been received. Since our last, there have been rescued from the fell grasp of Bonaparte, the State of Holland, Flanders, Switzerland, and the principal Italian states on the shores of the Adriatic sea. Flanders by an express request of the people, is now united to Holland, under the United Netherlands, having at the head of the general government the prince of Orange, with the title of the Royal Sovereign of the United Netherlands. Again has victory crowned the arms of Wellington. Under the walls of Bayone Soult made a desperate stand, from whence he was driven with great loss—that the town is in possession of the allies—the ports of the river Ardour on which it stands, are open to all nations not at war with any of the allies.

The following persons have been appointed agents for the American Patriot, and will receive subscriptions and payment for it from those resident in their neighborhoods, friendly to its interest, viz:
