

Federal prints announcing the occupation of Paris by the allies. We thought at the time it concluded very abruptly. We have been favored with a French copy of the Bulletin, printed at Nantes; and to our surprise we find that the Boston papers mutilated the document by omitting the two last paragraphs; which as they are important to a correct view of the whole, we have translated below, leaving our readers to make their own comments on this wilful translation of foreign News.

[The omitted paragraphs.]
The occupation of the capital by the enemy is a misfortune which deeply afflicts the heart of her majesty. But the presence of the Emperor with his army at the gates of Paris, will hinder the enemy from indulging in his accustomed excesses in a city so populous, that he cannot guard it without rendering his position very dangerous. It will prevent him too from detaching any thing but light troops to disturb the neighboring departments.

Her majesty the empress, the great dignitaries, the president, the officers, and the members of the Senate; the councillors of state, &c. &c. are removed to the Loire, where the centre of the government is established."

20 DOLLARS REWARD.

Deserted this day, June 1, from the Rendezvous at Bellefonte,

DAVID THARE,

A private in the 4th Rifle Regt. born in Duches county, state of New York, and by profession a Shoemaker. He is full six feet high, about thirty nine years old—complexion very dark, sharp nose, black eyes, and dark hair; was enlisted on the 24th ult. at Mill Hall, in this county. His clothes (having none belonging to the United States) cannot be minutely described. He had on a light grey long coat with large gilt buttons, a pair of coarse Home-made tow trousers, cross-barred, and a pair of half boots, very soft and old.

It is earnestly hoped that all citizens favorable to the interests of their country, will make use of some exertions to ensure his apprehension, as every recent desertion appears purposely to defraud government. There are now upwards of one thousand deserters running at large, so that every suspicious character ought to be taken up and strictly examined.

Whoever apprehends said deserter, shall receive the above Reward, & all reasonable expenses for securing or delivering him into the custody of any United States' officer.

WM. G. GREEN, Capt. 4th. R. R. Bellefonte, June 1, 1814.

REWARD.

DESERTED on the night of the 24th instant, from the Rendezvous at Bellefonte, JAMES KASCADEN,

A private in the 4th Rifle Regiment, twenty one years old, six feet, one inch high; yellow complexion, dark eyes and dark hair, and by profession a laborer. His clothing (not having uniform) cannot well be recollected further than his having a Wool Hat, Home-made Trowsers, and it is believed a Roundabout or Coatee.

It is earnestly hoped that citizens will exert themselves in apprehending said deserter. He enlisted on Saturday last, and his premature desertion induces a belief that he may probably again enlist to defraud the United States. He said he was born in Northumberland county, Pennsylvania.

Any person apprehending said deserter shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable expenses paid for delivering him into the hands of any officer of the United States Army.

WM. G. GREEN, Capt. 4th R. R. Bellefonte, May 28, 1814.
