

honor, justice and humanity. They have just reconquered Europe to a brave and unhappy people.

People of France, the Senate has declared that Napoleon has forfeited the throne. The country is no longer with him. Another order of things can alone save it. We have known the excess of popular licentiousness and absolute power—let us restore the real monarchy, in limiting by wise laws, the different powers that compose it.

Let exhausted Agriculture re-flourish under a paternal throne—let commerce bound in fetters, resume her freedom—let our youth be no longer cut off in arms before the have strength to bear them—let the order of nature be no longer interrupted—and let the old men hope to die before their children! Men of France, let us rally—past calamities are finished, and Peace will put an end to the subversion of Europe. The august Allies have given their word. France will rest from her long agitation, better enlightened by the double proof of anarchy and despotism, will find happiness in the return of a tutelary government.

(Signed)
Prince of BENEVENTE,
Duke D'ALBERG,
Gen. Count de BOURNONVILLE,
FRANCOIS DE JAUCOURT,
ABBE DE MONTESQUIEU.
By the Provisional government.

ACT OF THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT.
The Provisional Government, hearing, with grief that obstacles have been made to the return of the Pope to his territories, and deploring that continuance of insult which has so long overwhelmed the courageous Head whom the church demands, and that all due honors be paid to him on his journey.

The civil and military authorities are charged with the execution of the present decree.

Given at Paris, April 2, 1814.
[Signed as above.]

The provisional government considering how obvious it is in itself, and contrary to the conventions which have preceded the departure of His Majesty the King of Spain, to keep at Perpignan his brother, the infant Carlos, order that the Prince be conducted as soon as possible with all the honors due to his rank, to the first Spanish port.

It is ordered to all civil and military authorities to take the necessary measures to execute the present order.

Given at Paris, 2 April, 1814.

The Provisional Government Decree

1. That all the emblems, cyphers, and arms, which have characterized the Government of Bonaparte, shall be suppressed and effaced wherever they exist.

2. That this suppression shall be executed exclusively by persons delegated by the authority of police, or municipality, without the zeal of individuals assisting in it or preventing it.

3. That no address, proclamation, public Journal, or private writing contain injurious expressions against the government overthrown, the cause of the country being too noble to adopt such means!

AMERICAN AFFAIRS.
LONDON, April 8.

Ministers it is said, have given the American Commissioners to understand, that they will enter into discussions with them until the question of hostages has been disposed of, as they are determined it shall make no part of the negotiations for peace.

This question has already been disposed of in a great degree.

Twenty five thousand troops are to be immediately transported to America, and already the public mind is prepared for the exertion of all our strength in bringing that forward people to unconditional submission.

This is a mere ebullition of some angry paragraphist, but every thing in England appeared to intimate that a vigorous prosecution of the war against the United States would be extremely popular there.

Bonaparte receives a pension of 24 or 25, 000 pounds sterling per annum.—The latest accounts from England, state, that 25,000 troops had embarked for Quebec, and 10,000 for Halifax.

It is reported Secretary Jones has resigned, and that Com. Decatur has been appointed Secretary of the Navy.

New York, June 10.

20 DOLLARS

REWARD.

Deserted this day, June 1, from this Rendezvous at Bellefonte,

DAVID THARE,

A private in the 4th Rifle Regt. born in Duches county, state of New York, and by profession a Shoemaker. He is full six feet high, about thirty nine years old—complexion very dark, sharp nose, black eyes, and dark hair; was enlisted on the 24th ult. at Mill Hall, in this county. His clothes (having none belonging to the United States) cannot be minutely described. He had on a light grey long coat with large gilt buttons, a pair of coarse Home-made tow trousers, cross-barred, and a pair of half boots, very short and old.

It is earnestly hoped that all citizens favorable to the interests of their country, will make use of some exertions to ensure his apprehension, as every recent desertion appears purposely to defraud government. There are now upwards of one thousand deserters running at large, so that every suspicious character ought to be taken up and strictly examined.

Whoever apprehends said deserter, shall receive the above Reward, & all reasonable expenses for securing or delivering him into the custody of any United States' officer.

WM. G. GREEN, Capt. 4th. R. R.
Bellefonte, June 1, 1814.

20 DOLLARS

REWARD.

DESERTED on the night of the 24th instant, from the Rendezvous at Bellefonte,

JAMES KASCADEN,

A private in the 4th Rifle Regiment, twenty one years old, six feet, one inch high; yellow complexion, dark eyes and dark hair, and by profession a laborer. His clothing (not having uniform) cannot well be recollected further than his having a Wool Hat, Home-made Trowsers, and it is believed a Roundabout or Coatee.

It is earnestly hoped that citizens will exert themselves in apprehending said deserter. He enlisted on Saturday last, and his premature desertion induces a belief that he may probably again enlist, to defraud the United States. He said he was born in Northumberland county, Pennsylvania.

Any person apprehending said deserter shall receive the above reward, and all reasonable expenses paid for delivering him into the hands of any officer of the United States Army.

WM. G. GREEN, Capt. 4th R. R.
